Organizational Structure of Development & Construction Branch

(Position as at 24 November 1997)

- To develop building designs and standards for public housing
- To facilitate the forward reservation and acquisition of sites for public housing development
- To select, appoint and appraise the performance of consultants for out-sourced projects
- To provide professional supporting services to the Works and Project Management Divisions

- To fulfill the housing production programme through the planing and management of individual projects
- To co-ordinate with concerned departments on the works programme
- To control and monitor the progress and budget of the projects
- To provide third party checks to ensure the projects are meeting the statutory design and client's requirement

- To be responsible for design, tendering and contract management of all in-house projects
- To monitor the performance of contractors and consultants
- To carry out site inspection and quality control functions to ensure that works are in compliance with all contract requirements

Legend

Chief Civil Engineer CA Chief Architect CCE CSE Chief Structural Engineer CGE

Chief Geotechnical Engineer

CBSE Chief Building Services Engineer Design and Standard D&S

Chief Quantity Surveyor CQS Vet Vetting

PM Project Manager Consultant Management Unit CMU Chief Planning Officer CPO