Paper for the House Committee Meeting
on 14 November 2003

LegCo Fun Day 2003-2004

Purpose

This paper seeks Members' advice on whether a Legislative Council (LegCo) Fun Day, with participation of Members and reporters, should be held in the 2003-2004 session.

Background

2. The LegCo Fun Day has been held annually since 1987 to foster relations between Members and reporters. The expenditure is equally shared by all Members.
3. LegCo Fun Day 2002-2003 was held on 13 December 2002, with 29 Members, 3 former Members and 70 reporters participating in the buffet dinner and games such as "Treasure Hunt", "Karaoke Singing Contest", "Owner Wanted", "Who is it?" and "Charades".

Proposal

4. It is proposed that the LegCo Fun Day will continue to be held in the 2003-2004 session and its format will follow that of the last session; that is, a dinner reception with indoor games held in the Dining Hall of the LegCo Building.

Advice Sought

5. Members are invited to advise:
 - (a) whether a LegCo Fun Day should be held in the 2003-2004 session as proposed in paragraph 4; and if so,

- (b) whether an Organizing Committee should be formed to decide on the details of the Fun Day.
