Dear

Rejection of Application to be a
Listed Chinese Medicine Practitioner
(Application No.: _____)

The Chinese Medicine Practitioners Board shall not enter your name on the List of Chinese Medicine Practitioners maintained under section 90 of the Chinese Medicine Ordinance. Your application to be a listed Chinese medicine practitioner has been rejected for the reason(s) below:

- Various reasons of rejection are at Annex A

According to section 108 of the Chinese Medicine Ordinance, only a listed or registered Chinese medicine practitioner can practise Chinese medicine in Hong Kong. The commencement date of the relevant section of the Ordinance will be published in the Gazette. Starting from that date, you are not allowed to practise Chinese medicine in Hong Kong, and you can neither use the title of “Chinese medicine practitioner” nor profess to be practising Chinese medicine. Please refer to the Chinese Medicine Ordinance for the details of the relevant provisions.

If you have any enquiry, please contact the Secretariat of the Chinese Medicine Council of Hong Kong (tel.: 2121 1888, fax: 2121 1898).

Application for Registration as a Registered Chinese Medicine Practitioner
(Registration Assessment)

In accordance with sections 92 and 94 of the Chinese Medicine Ordinance (Cap. 549 of the Laws of Hong Kong), the Chinese Medicine Practitioners Board has determined that you shall be exempted from the Licensing Examination but are required to pass the Registration Assessment conducted by the Chinese Medicine Practitioners Board.

The Registration Assessment under the transitional arrangements for registration for Chinese medicine practitioners will be held only once. If you fail to attend the Registration Assessment or fail to pass the Registration Assessment, you are required to sit and pass the Licensing Examination before you are qualified to apply for registration as a registered Chinese medicine practitioner. The syllabus and format of the Registration Assessment are detailed in the enclosed “Handbook for the Registration Assessment for Listed Chinese Medicine Practitioners” (Chinese version only).

If you choose to apply for taking the Registration Assessment, please complete the enclosed enrolment form. The completed form should be returned and reach the Secretariat of the Chinese Medicine Council of Hong Kong, by registered post or in person on or before 25 September 2002, together with the prescribed fee (a crossed cheque or bank draft of HK$1,155). Late enrolment will not be accepted. Cheques/bank drafts should be made payable to “The Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region” or “The Government of the Hong Kong SAR”. We shall inform you of the arrangements of the Registration Assessment in due course. For enquiries, please contact the Secretariat of the Chinese Medicine Council of Hong Kong at 2121 1888. Please quote your Listing Number when making enquiries.

If you choose not to take the Registration Assessment, please fill in the attached reply slip confirming that you will not take the Registration Assessment and fax or mail it to the Secretariat of the Chinese Medicine Council of Hong Kong by 25 September 2002.

Appeal Procedures relating to Chinese Medicines according to the Chinese Medicine Ordinance

According to Section 140 and 141 of the Chinese Medicine Ordinance, any person aggrieved by the decision of the Chinese Medicines Committee (CMC), the Chinese Medicines Traders Committee (CMTC) or the Chinese Medicines Board (CMB), may request for review or appeal of such decision.

i) Review of decisions of the Chinese Medicines Committee or the Chinese Medicines Committee

According to the Chinese Medicine Ordinance, the CMB could delegate some of its prescribed functions to the CMC or the CMTC. If any person aggrieved by the decision which is made by the CMC or CMTC, he/she may request the CMB to review such decision.

The applicant may make the request with reasons stated within 14 days after the receipt of the notification of decision.

Upon receipt of the written request for review, the CMB shall review the decision and shall serve a notice of its decision together with the reasons for its decision on the person concerned.

ii) Right of appeal to Court of First Instance

If any person aggrieved by the decision made by the CMB, he/she may appeal to the Court of First Instance.

The applicant may appeal to the Court of First Instance within 1 month from the date of service of the notice.

The Court of First Instance may affirm, reverse or vary the decision appealed against. The decision of the Court of First Instance shall be final.

Review and appeal procedures relating to Licensing Examination under the Chinese Medicine Ordinance

The review and appeal procedures relating to the Licensing Examination are stipulated in Sections 62, 66 and 97 of the Chinese Medicine Ordinance.

Review of results of Licensing Examination and eligibility for taking Licensing Examination

According to Section 62 of the Chinese Medicine Ordinance, a person may request the PB to review the results of the Licensing Examination. According to Section 66 of the Chinese Medicine Ordinance, the PB has delegated the authority to approve applications for taking the Licensing Examination to the Examination Committee. If any person aggrieved by the decision of the Examination Committee regarding his application for taking the Licensing Examination, he may request the PB to review the decision.

A person may make the written request for review of the decision on his application for taking the Licensing Examination or the result of the Licensing Examination with reasons stated within 14 days after the receipt of the notification of the result or decision. For review of examination results, one should also pay a prescribed review fee.

Upon receipt of the written request for review and the prescribed fee (where payable), the PB shall review the result or the decision as appropriate and notify the person in writing of its decision within 1 month after the completion of the review.

Appeals against the decision of the PB

As stipulated in Section 97 of the Chinese Medicine Ordinance, if any person aggrieved by the decision of the PB on the review of the eligibility for taking the Licensing Examination / the result of the Licensing Examination, and the certificate of passing the Licensing Examination, he may appeal to the CMC.

A person may appeal against the decision to the CMC with reasons stated within 14 days after the receipt of the notification of the decision, or within such further time as the CMC may in special circumstances allow.

The CMC may affirm, reverse or vary the decision appealed against. The decision of the CMC shall be final.
