- (a) endorse the notice with the date of its receipt; and
- (b) notify both parties of the receipt of the notice.”.

5. Savings in respect of Part IV

(1) In the case of a tenancy to which Part IV applies and which is in existence on the day before the commencement date, if—

- (a) the landlord has before the commencement date given notice under and in accordance with section 119 of the principal Ordinance to terminate the tenancy; or
- (b) the tenant has before the commencement date made a request for a new tenancy under and in accordance with section 119A of the principal Ordinance,

- (d) the enactments amended by sections 10 to 16 of and the Schedule to this Ordinance shall, if applicable, apply to the tenancy as if they were not amended.

(2) On and after the commencement date, a tenancy to which Part IV applies and which is in existence on the day before the commencement date, but in respect of which no notice or request has been given or made before the commencement date under section 119 or 119A of the principal Ordinance, may, subject to subsections (4) and (5), only be terminated by a transitional termination notice as provided for by section 6.

(3) The term “the tenancy” (該租賃) as used in subsection (1)(c) and (d) does not include any new tenancy granted pursuant to Part IV on or after the commencement date.

(4) The requirement in subsection (2) for a transitional termination notice in respect of a tenancy, and any such notice that has been issued in respect of a tenancy, ceases to apply if, on or after the commencement date—

- (a) the parties to the tenancy—
 - (i) agree to some other period for notice of termination; or
 - (ii) alter any other term of the tenancy; or
- (b) the tenancy is assigned to a new tenant.

- (5) Subsection (2) is without prejudice to—

 - (b) any right of forfeiture conferred on a landlord;
 - (c) any right of surrender or early termination conferred on a tenant.
- (6) (a) The benefits and protection afforded by this Part shall, in any tenancy to which it applies, be available to the widow, widower, mother, father or any daughter or son over the age of 18 years of the tenant where she or he was residing with the tenant at the time of the tenant's death; and, for the purposes of this Part, references to a tenant shall except in this subsection include a reference to such widow, widower, mother, father, daughter or son.
- (b) Only one person mentioned in paragraph (a) shall be entitled to the benefits and protection of this Part at one time and, in default of agreement by those persons, the Tribunal shall nominate that person on such grounds as appears to it to be just and equitable.
- (c) The benefits and protection afforded by this Part shall not be available to a personal representative of a deceased tenant or, notwithstanding any will or the law of succession on intestacy, any other person who is not a person mentioned in paragraph (a) as entitled to those benefits and that protection.

(7) On and after the commencement date, a tenancy which would have terminated, but for the requirement in subsection (2) for a transitional termination notice, shall, until terminated by such a notice, but subject to section 7, continue at the same rent and upon the same covenants, conditions and other terms of the original tenancy as are appropriate to a month to month tenancy.

(8) If, before the commencement date, a landlord has successfully opposed the grant of a new tenancy on a ground specified in paragraph (b) or (c) of section 119E(1) of the principal Ordinance, the provisions of sections 119F and 119H of that Ordinance and of any condition imposed or order made under either of those sections apply in respect of the landlord as if those sections were not repealed on that date.

(9) If, on the commencement date, a tenant is in possession of premises in the circumstances described in section 119NA(1) of the principal Ordinance, the provisions of section 119NA of that Ordinance apply in respect of the tenant as if that section was not repealed on that date.

(10) Proceedings relating to Part IV which are pending in the Tribunal on the commencement date, and decisions of the Tribunal relating to that Part which have not been given effect to on that date, may respectively continue and be given effect to on and after the commencement date notwithstanding the repeal of certain provisions of that Part by section 3 of this Ordinance.

(11) Proceedings relating to provisions of Part IV saved by this section may be commenced in the Tribunal on or after the commencement date.

6. Transitional termination notice

(1) For the purpose of section 5(2), a “transitional termination notice” (過渡性終止通知書) means a written notice of termination of a tenancy served on or after the commencement date in accordance with this section.

(2) A transitional termination notice must be served—

(a) by a landlord, not less than 12 months; or

(b) by a tenant, not less than 1 month, before the day on which it is to take effect.

(3) A transitional termination notice may be served at any time on or after the commencement date, but—

(a) in respect of a tenancy for a fixed term which was in existence on the day before the commencement date, may not be served earlier than the last day of the term;

(b) in respect of a periodic tenancy which was in existence on the day before the commencement date, may not be served earlier than the last day of the period of the tenancy current at the commencement date.

(4) A transitional termination notice may be served in any of the ways specified in section 119Y(1) of the principal Ordinance and subsection (2) of that section applies to such service.

(5) Where a transitional termination notice is served on a tenant, if—

(a) the notice is in both Chinese and English; and

(b) the notice is posted on 3 successive days upon the main door or entrance of the premises affected, the notice shall take effect terminating also any sub-tenancies created out of the tenancy to which it relates.

(6) Subject to section 5(4), a transitional termination notice duly served in respect of a tenancy in accordance with this section takes effect according to its terms, notwithstanding—

(a) a change of landlord that does not create a new tenancy;

(b) any express or implied provision in the tenancy regarding the giving of notice of termination (subject to section 5(5)(c) as to early termination); or

- (c) any other rule of law regarding the date on which a termination notice takes effect.

7. Other transitional provisions

(1) During the continuance of a tenancy as described in section 5(7), the Tribunal may, on the application of the landlord, make an order for possession of the premises to which the tenancy relates, or any part of them, notwithstanding that a transitional termination notice in respect of the premises has not been served, or has been served but has not expired, if the Tribunal is satisfied that the premises are, or that that part of them is, reasonably required by the landlord for occupation as a residence for himself, his father, his mother or any son or daughter of his over the age of 18.

(2) The Tribunal shall not make an order for possession under subsection (1) if—

- (a) in the case of a tenancy, the tenant satisfies the Tribunal that, in all the circumstances of the case, it would manifestly not be just and equitable to make the order; or
- (b) in the case of a sub-tenancy, the Tribunal is satisfied in all the circumstances of the case, including whether other accommodation is available for the principal tenant or the sub-tenant, greater hardship would be caused by making the order than by refusing it.

(3) If the Tribunal makes an order for possession under subsection (1)—

- (a) the Tribunal must specify the name of the person for whose occupation it is satisfied the premises are, or the part of the premises is, required;
- (b) subject to subsection (4), the landlord must not, for a period of 24 months after the date of the order, use, or allow the use of the premises, or the part of the premises, other than as a residence for the person specified under paragraph (a);
- (c) subject to subsection (4), the landlord must not, for a period of 24 months after the date of the order—
 - (i) let the premises or any part of them; or
 - (ii) assign, transfer or part with possession of the premises or any part of them.

(4) If the Tribunal makes an order for possession under subsection (1), the Tribunal may authorize the landlord to—

- (a) let the premises or any part of them;
- (b) assign, transfer or part with possession of the premises or any part of them; or

- (c) use, or allow the use of, the premises, or any part of them, other than as a residence for the person specified under subsection (3)(a).

(5) The Tribunal, when granting an authority under subsection (4) to let, must specify the terms, including the rent, on which the premises are, or the part of the premises is, to be let, and the rent must not be more than that payable by the tenant last in possession.

(6) Without prejudice to subsection (8), a landlord who contravenes subsection (3)(b) or (c) commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment—

- (a) to a fine of $500,000;
- (b) in addition, on a second or subsequent conviction, to imprisonment for 12 months;
- (c) in any case, to forfeit a sum not exceeding the equivalent of—
 - (i) in the case of a contravention of subsection (3)(c)(i), 2 years' rent calculated at the rate at which the premises were let without the authority of the Tribunal; or
 - (ii) in the case of a contravention of subsection (3)(c)(ii), the difference, at the date of the contravention, between the market value of the premises with vacant possession and the market value of the premises with the former tenant in possession.

(7) A court which sentences a landlord for an offence under subsection (6) may, in addition to imposing a penalty under that subsection, make an order under subsection (8) after hearing the former tenant and the landlord.

(8) If—

- (a) an application for an order for possession is made by the landlord under subsection (1) and it is subsequently made to appear to the Tribunal that the application was successful by reason of the misrepresentation or concealment of material facts by the landlord; or
- (b) the landlord is shown to have acted in contravention of subsection (3)(b) or (c), the Tribunal or, as the case may be, the court referred to in subsection (7) may order the landlord to pay to the former tenant such sum as it thinks fit by way of compensation for damage or loss sustained by that tenant as a result of the application.

(9) A letting, assignment, transfer or parting with possession of premises or part of them shall not be void, voidable or unenforceable by reason only of a contravention of subsection (3)(b) or (c).

(10) A landlord who has been granted an order for possession pursuant to subsection (1) shall be presumed, until the contrary is shown, to have knowledge of the making of the order, of the terms of the order, and of any consent given by the tenant or sub-tenant in connection with the delivery of vacant possession.

(11) For the purpose of this section—

“his father, his mother or any son or daughter of his” (其父親、母親、兒子或女兒) includes the father, mother, son or daughter of one or more landlords, holding the premises jointly or in common, with the other landlord or landlords so holding assenting to the application for an order for possession;

“landlord” (業主) includes one or more landlords, holding the premises jointly or in common, with the other landlord or landlords so holding assenting to the application for an order for possession.

(2) On and after the commencement date, a tenancy to which Part V applies and which is in existence on the day before the commencement date, but in respect of which no notice of termination has been served before the commencement date under section 122(1) of the principal Ordinance—

- (a) may be terminated in accordance with its terms or as otherwise agreed between the parties; or

(b) if it is a tenancy which was continued by virtue of section 122(4) of that Ordinance, may be terminated either as a month to month tenancy or as agreed between the parties.

(3) Proceedings relating to Part V which are pending in the Tribunal on the commencement date, and decisions of the Tribunal relating to that Part which have not been given effect to on that date, may respectively continue and be given effect to on and after the commencement date notwithstanding the repeal of certain provisions of that Part by section 8 of this Ordinance.
