INTRODUCTION

The WKCV is brought to you by Planet Time, a Hong Kong-based creative house. We are a collective of individuals from the Hong Kong community with an established collaborative background in design and conceptual development for leisure and cultural opportunities in Hong Kong.

The WKCV is our latest project and is grounded in a profound interest in the long-term development of the West Kowloon Reclamation as an Arts and Culture hub.

As a not-for-profit community project, the WKCV is organised and managed by Planet Time. The activities at the Cultural Village are offered by Planet Time and partners, with funding from sponsor organizations and members of the WKCV.

Our partners include arts groups, cultural groups, commercial organizations and dedicated individuals interested in forwarding and promoting the development of the arts and the enrichment of culture in Hong Kong.
