24 November 2005

An Ordinance to amend the Marriage Ordinance to—

- (a) provide for appointment of civil celebrants of marriages;
- (b) enable marriages to be celebrated by civil celebrants;
- (c) regulate the practice of civil celebrants;
- (d) transfer the power of the Chief Executive to make subsidiary legislation under that Ordinance to the Secretary for Security;
- (e) transfer the power of the Chief Executive to amend two Schedules to that Ordinance to the Secretary for Security;
- (f) modernize the drafting style of certain provisions of that Ordinance, and to make related and consequential amendments to the Marriage Ordinance and other Ordinances.

Enacted by the Legislative Council.

PART 1

PRELIMINARY

1. Short title

This Ordinance may be cited as the Marriage (Introduction of Civil Celebrants of Marriages and General Amendments) Ordinance.

2. Commencement

This Ordinance shall come into operation on a day to be appointed by the Secretary for Security by notice published in the Gazette.

PART 2

APPOINTMENT OF CIVIL CELEBRANTS, REGULATION OF CIVIL CELEBRANTS, CELEBRATION OF MARRIAGE BY CIVIL CELEBRANT AND TRANSFER OF POWERS TO AMEND SCHEDULES AND MAKE SUBSIDIARY LEGISLATION

Amendments to the Marriage Ordinance

3. Interpretation

- Section 2 of the Marriage Ordinance (Cap. 181) is amended by adding—
- ““Appeal Board” (上訴委員會) means the Civil Celebrant of Marriages Appointment Appeal Board established under section 5J;
 - “civil celebrant” (婚姻監禮人) means a civil celebrant of marriages appointed under section 5A whose appointment is for the time being valid;
 - “code of practice” (實務守則) means a code of practice issued under section 5C(1);
 - “prescribed fee” (訂明費用) means, in relation to any matter provided for in this Ordinance, the fee specified in Schedule 2 in respect of the matter;
 - “proposed date of marriage” (預定結婚日期) means the date on which an intended marriage is proposed to be contracted;
 - “Secretary” (局長) means the Secretary for Security;”.

4. Section added

The following is added—

“2A. Certain notices are not subsidiary legislation

A notice under section 5, 5A(4)(c), 5C(3), 5D(8)(a), 5E(9) or 5J(5) is not subsidiary legislation.”.

5. Parts 3 and 4 added

The following are added after section 5—

“PART 3

CIVIL CELEBRANTS OF MARRIAGES

5A. Appointment of civil celebrant and renewal of appointment

(1) The Registrar may, upon application, appoint any person who meets all criteria prescribed for the time being in Schedule 4 as a civil celebrant of marriages.

(2) The Registrar may, upon application of a civil celebrant, renew his appointment as a civil celebrant if he meets all criteria prescribed for the time being in Schedule 4.

(3) An appointment—

- (a) made under subsection (1); or
- (b) renewed under subsection (2), is valid for 5 years. This period of 5 years shall not be affected by any suspension under section 5E.

(4) The Registrar shall—

- (a) effect an appointment by giving the applicant concerned a written notice;
- (b) effect a renewal of appointment by giving the civil celebrant concerned a written notice; and
- (c) publish an appointment or a renewal of appointment by notice in the Gazette.

5B. Application for appointment as civil celebrant or renewal of appointment

(1) An application for appointment or renewal of appointment under section 5A shall be—

- (a) in such form as the Registrar may specify;
- (b) submitted in such manner as the Registrar may specify;
- (c) accompanied by such information or documents as the Registrar may specify or as he may reasonably require;
- (d) accompanied by the prescribed fee for application processing; and
- (e) accompanied by the prescribed fee for—

- (i) appointment as civil celebrant; or
 - (ii) renewal of appointment as civil celebrant,
as may be appropriate.
- (2) The Registrar may refuse to process an application if subsection (1) is not complied with in relation to it.
- (3) The Registrar shall refuse an application if—
 - (a) the applicant does not meet any criterion prescribed in Schedule 4; or
 - (b) a notice given under section 5D(9) is in force in relation to the applicant.
- (4) If an application is refused by the Registrar—
 - (a) he shall give the applicant a written notice of—
 - (i) the refusal; and
 - (ii) the reason for the refusal; and
 - (b) the prescribed fee for—
 - (i) appointment as civil celebrant; or
 - (ii) renewal of appointment as civil celebrant,
as may be appropriate, shall be refunded to the applicant.
- (5) Where—
 - (a) a person applies for appointment or renewal of appointment by virtue of a professional qualification prescribed in Schedule 4; and
 - (b) he is a member of a professional body which has statutory authority to regulate the relevant profession,the Registrar may consult the body on whether the applicant meets any criterion prescribed in Schedule 4.

5C. Code of practice for civil celebrants

- (1) The Registrar may issue such code of practice as he considers appropriate for the purpose of providing practical guidance in respect of the professional conduct of civil celebrants.
- (2) The Registrar may from time to time revise a code of practice.
- (3) The Registrar shall publish by notice in the Gazette—
 - (a) a code of practice and its commencement date; and
 - (b) the particulars of any revision under subsection (2) and its commencement date.

5D. Cancellation of appointment of civil celebrant

- (1) The Registrar may cancel the appointment of a civil celebrant—
 - (a) if the civil celebrant ceases to meet any criterion prescribed in Schedule 4 as in force—

- (i) at the time of the appointment; or
 - (ii) at the time of the latest renewal of the appointment, as may be appropriate;
 - (b) if he is satisfied that at the time of the appointment or renewal of appointment, as may be appropriate, the civil celebrant did not meet any criterion so prescribed;
 - (c) if the civil celebrant contravenes a code of practice;
 - (d) if the civil celebrant is convicted of an offence under this Ordinance;
 - (e) upon a written request of the civil celebrant; or
 - (f) if the civil celebrant dies.
- (2) The Registrar may cancel the appointment of a civil celebrant under subsection (1) notwithstanding that the appointment has already been suspended under section 5E.
- (3) Where a civil celebrant is a member of a professional body, the Registrar may consult the body on whether—
- (a) the civil celebrant ceases to meet any criterion prescribed in Schedule 4 as in force—
 - (i) at the time of his appointment; or
 - (ii) at the time of the latest renewal of his appointment, as may be appropriate; or
 - (b) the civil celebrant met any criterion so prescribed when—
 - (i) he was appointed a civil celebrant; or
 - (ii) his appointment was renewed, as may be appropriate.
- (4) Except where subsection (7) applies, if the Registrar intends to cancel the appointment of a person under subsection (1)(a), (b), (c) or (d), the Registrar shall give the person a written notice of the intention and the reason for the proposed cancellation.
- (5) If the Registrar gives a notice to a person under subsection (4), the person may, within 14 days after the date of the notice or such longer period as the Registrar may allow, make representation to the Registrar in the manner specified in the notice.
- (6) The Registrar shall not cancel the appointment of a person until—
- (a) the 14-day period or longer period (if any) referred to in subsection (5) has expired and the person has not made any representation; or
 - (b) the person has made representation and the Registrar has considered the representation.
- (7) If—
- (a) a civil celebrant—

- (i) was appointed by virtue of meeting the criterion prescribed in paragraph 1(a) of Schedule 4; and
 - (ii) has his name struck off from the roll of the solicitors of the High Court; or
- (b) a civil celebrant—
- (i) was appointed by virtue of meeting the criterion prescribed in paragraph 1(b) of Schedule 4; and
 - (ii) has his name struck off from the register of notaries public, his appointment as a civil celebrant is deemed to be cancelled under subsection (1).

- (8) If the Registrar cancels the appointment of a person, he shall—
- (a) publish the cancellation by notice in the Gazette; and
 - (b) give the person a written notice of the cancellation.

(9) If the Registrar cancels the appointment of a person under subsection (1)(c) or (d), he may, by giving the person a written notice, prohibit the person from applying for appointment under section 5B in such period as he may specify in the notice.

(10) A period specified under subsection (9) shall not be longer than 3 years.

(11) If an appointment is cancelled, no fee paid in accordance with section 5B(1)(e) in respect of the appointment or the renewal of it shall be refunded.

5E. Suspension of appointment

(1) If a civil celebrant contravenes a code of practice, the Registrar may, by giving the person a written notice, suspend the appointment of the civil celebrant for such period as the Registrar may specify in the notice.

(2) Subsection (1) is without prejudice to section 5D(1)(c).

(3) If the Registrar intends to suspend the appointment of a person under subsection (1), the Registrar shall give the person a written notice of—

- (a) the intention;
- (b) the reason for the proposed suspension; and
- (c) the length of the proposed suspension period.

(4) If the Registrar gives a notice to a person under subsection (3), the person may, within 14 days after the date of the notice or such longer period as the Registrar may allow, make representation to the Registrar in the manner specified in the notice.

(5) The Registrar shall not suspend the appointment of a person until—

- (a) the 14-day period or longer period (if any) referred to in subsection (4) has expired and the person has not made any representation; or
 - (b) the person has made representation and the Registrar has considered the representation.
- (6) A period specified under subsection (1)—
- (a) may be longer or shorter than the proposed suspension period referred to in subsection (3)(c); and
 - (b) shall not be longer than 18 months.
- (7) If—
- (a) a person—
 - (i) is appointed as a civil celebrant by virtue of meeting the criterion prescribed in paragraph 1(a) of Schedule 4; and
 - (ii) is subsequently suspended from practice as a solicitor for any period by a Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal under section 10 of the Legal Practitioners Ordinance (Cap. 159); or
 - (b) a person—
 - (i) is appointed as a civil celebrant by virtue of meeting the criterion prescribed in paragraph 1(b) of Schedule 4; and
 - (ii) is subsequently suspended from practice as a notary public for any period by a Notaries Public Disciplinary Tribunal under section 40J of the Legal Practitioners Ordinance (Cap. 159), his appointment as a civil celebrant shall be suspended during that period.

(8) An appointment suspended under this section shall not, during the suspension period, be regarded as valid for the purposes of the definition of “civil celebrant” in section 2.

(9) If the appointment of a civil celebrant is suspended, the Registrar shall publish the suspension by notice in the Gazette.

(10) If an appointment is suspended, no fee paid in accordance with section 5B(1)(e) in respect of the appointment or the renewal of it shall be refunded.

5F. Marriage not affected by defect in civil celebrant’s appointment

Without prejudice to the generality of section 27(3), the validity of a marriage celebrated by a civil celebrant shall not be affected by—

- (a) any irregularity in the appointment of the civil celebrant by the Registrar;

- (b) the fact that the civil celebrant was not—
 - (i) eligible for appointment at the time of his appointment; or
 - (ii) eligible for having his appointment renewed at the time of renewal of his appointment, as may be appropriate; or
- (c) the fact that the appointment of the civil celebrant was, at the time of the celebration, liable to be cancelled or suspended.

5G. Return documents to Registrar in case of cancellation or suspension

(1) A civil celebrant whose appointment is cancelled under section 5D(1) or suspended under section 5E shall deliver—

- (a) the notice of appointment or renewal of appointment given to him by the Registrar;
- (b) all notices of intended marriage supplied to him under section 8 (including those which have been cancelled); and
- (c) all marriage certificates supplied to him under section 20A that have not been issued (including those which have been cancelled), to the Registrar within 14 days after such cancellation or suspension.

(2) Where—

- (a) the appointment of a civil celebrant is suspended for a period; and
- (b) the civil celebrant delivers any notice of appointment or renewal of appointment to the Registrar in accordance with subsection (1)(a), the Registrar shall return such notice to the civil celebrant as soon as practicable after the expiry of that period.

5H. Civil celebrant shall provide information

(1) For the purpose of investigating and obtaining evidence of any suspected offence under this Ordinance or of any suspected contravention of a code of practice, the Registrar may request a civil celebrant to provide information in relation to the practice of the civil celebrant. The civil celebrant shall provide such information as soon as practicable upon receiving the request of the Registrar.

(2) If a civil celebrant ceases to meet any criterion prescribed in Schedule 4 as in force—

- (a) at the time of his appointment; or

(b) at the time of the latest renewal of his appointment, as may be appropriate, he shall, within 14 days of such cessation, notify the Registrar in writing of such cessation.

5I. Manner of giving notice

A written notice that may be given or is required to be given under this Part to a person shall be sent by post to the person's last address known to the Registrar.

PART 4

APPEALS RELATING TO APPOINTMENT OF CIVIL CELEBRANTS

5J. Civil Celebrant of Marriages Appointment Appeal Board

(1) There shall be a Civil Celebrant of Marriages Appointment Appeal Board.

(2) The Appeal Board comprises—

(a) a Chairperson;

(b) such number of Deputy Chairpersons as the Secretary considers necessary; and

(c) such number of members as the Secretary considers necessary.

(3) The Chairperson, Deputy Chairpersons and members of the Appeal Board shall be appointed by the Secretary for a term specified in the instrument of appointment.

(4) A public officer shall not be appointed under subsection (3).

(5) The Secretary shall give notice of all appointments made under subsection (3) in the Gazette.

(6) The function of the Appeal Board is to hear and determine appeals lodged under section 5K.

(7) The Chairperson, Deputy Chairpersons and members of the Appeal Board shall be paid such remuneration as the Secretary may determine.

5K. Registrar's decisions subject to appeal

(1) An applicant who is aggrieved by the refusal of his application under section 5B(3) may appeal to the Appeal Board against the decision of the Registrar.

(2) A civil celebrant who is aggrieved by the cancellation of his appointment under section 5D(1) (except by virtue of section 5D(7)) may appeal to the Appeal Board against the decision of the Registrar.

(3) A person who is aggrieved by a notice given to him under section 5D(9) may appeal to the Appeal Board against the decision of the Registrar.

(4) A civil celebrant who is aggrieved by a suspension of his appointment under section 5E(1) may appeal to the Appeal Board against the decision of the Registrar.

(5) An appeal under subsection (2), (3) or (4) does not suspend the decision of the Registrar appealed against.

5L. Decisions of Appeal Board

(1) The Appeal Board may, on an appeal lodged under section 5K against a decision of the Registrar—

- (a) confirm the decision appealed against and dismiss the appeal accordingly;
- (b) revoke the decision appealed against and substitute any decision that the Registrar could have made for the decision appealed against; or
- (c) revoke the decision appealed against.

(2) An appointment cancelled under subsection (1)(b) shall, for the purposes of other provisions of this Ordinance (except section 5K), be regarded as being cancelled under section 5D(1).

(3) If the Appeal Board gives under subsection (1)(b) a notice that the Registrar could have given under section 5D(9), the notice shall, for the purposes of other provisions of this Ordinance (except section 5K), be regarded as a notice given under section 5D(9).

(4) An appointment suspended under subsection (1)(b) shall, for the purposes of other provisions of this Ordinance (except section 5K), be regarded as being suspended under section 5E(1).

5M. Decision of Appeal Board is final

The decision of the Appeal Board on an appeal shall be final.”.

6. Giving of notice of intended marriage

(1) Section 6(1) is amended by repealing “the prescribed form” and substituting “Form 1 in Schedule 1 either directly or through a civil celebrant”.

(2) Section 6 is amended by adding—

“(3) A notice of intended marriage given through a civil celebrant shall—

- (a) be accompanied by the prescribed fee for filing and exhibition of the notice; and
- (b) subject to section 6A(c), be given within the period of 3 months preceding the proposed date of marriage.”.

7. Section added

The following is added—

“6A. Provisions applicable where notice of intended marriage is given through civil celebrant

Where a civil celebrant agrees to be a civil celebrant through whom a notice of intended marriage is given to the Registrar, the civil celebrant shall, as soon as practicable—

- (a) accept the notice if it is duly completed and accompanied by the prescribed fee for filing and exhibition of the notice;
- (b) collect the prescribed fee on behalf of the Registrar; and
- (c) transmit—
 - (i) the notice;
 - (ii) the prescribed fee;
 - (iii) the affidavit taken under section 12 in respect of the intended marriage; and
 - (iv) (where applicable) the written consent produced to him under section 14(1A), to the Registrar.”.

8. Issue of certificate of the Registrar

Section 9 is amended by adding—

“(1A) The Registrar may refuse to issue a certificate of the Registrar in relation to an intended marriage if—

- (a) any prescribed fee that is due is not paid; or
- (b) the affidavit taken under section 12 in respect of the intended marriage or (where applicable) the written consent produced to him under section 14(1A) is not in order.

(1B) If the issue of a certificate of the Registrar is forbidden under section 16(1), it shall not be issued.

(1C) If the intended marriage is to be contracted before a minister, the certificate of the Registrar shall be issued to either of the proposed parties.

(1D) If the intended marriage is to be contracted before a civil celebrant, the certificate of the Registrar shall be issued to either of the proposed parties through a civil celebrant nominated by either of the proposed parties.

(1E) A civil celebrant through whom a certificate of the Registrar is issued under subsection (1D) shall forward it as soon as practicable to either of the proposed parties.”.

9. Section substituted

Section 12 is repealed and the following substituted—

“12. Affidavit prior to issue of certificate of the Registrar or grant of special licence

(1) After a notice of intended marriage is given but before a certificate of the Registrar is issued or a special licence is granted in respect of an intended marriage, one of the proposed parties to the intended marriage shall—

- (a) appear personally before the Registrar or a civil celebrant; and
- (b) make before the Registrar or the civil celebrant, as the case may be, an affidavit—
 - (i) that the party believes that there is no impediment of kindred or affinity as provided in section 27(1) or any other lawful hindrance to the marriage; and
 - (ii) that—
 - (A) the consent to the marriage required by section 14 has been obtained; or
 - (B) the marriage does not require any consent under section 14.

(2) The Registrar and any civil celebrant shall have power to take an affidavit referred to in subsection (1)(b).”.

10. Production of written consent

Section 14(1) is repealed and the following substituted—

“(1) This section applies in relation to an intended marriage if any proposed party to the intended marriage—

- (a) is of or over 16 and under 21 years of age as at the date of marriage; and
- (b) is not a widower or widow.

(1A) The written consent of the relevant person specified in Schedule 3 to the intended marriage—

- (a) shall be produced to the Registrar or a civil celebrant before a certificate of the Registrar may be issued; or
- (b) shall be produced to the Registrar before a special licence may be granted.”.

11. Section added

The following is added—

“20A. Certificates of marriage to be supplied to civil celebrant

The Registrar shall cause to be prepared and supplied upon request to any civil celebrant books of marriage certificates in Form 7 in Schedule 1 in duplicate and with butts in such form as may be specified by the Registrar.”.

12. Marriage before Registrar or civil celebrant

(1) Section 21(1) is amended by repealing everything after “of a certificate” and substituting “of the Registrar or the grant of a special licence, the parties may, subject to subsection (1A), contract a marriage before the Registrar or a civil celebrant.”.

(2) Section 21 is amended by adding—

“(1A) Before a marriage is—

- (a) celebrated by the Registrar, each of the parties shall sign a written declaration in the presence of the Registrar;
- (b) celebrated by a civil celebrant, each of the parties shall sign a written declaration in the presence of the civil celebrant.

(1B) If a declaration is signed before the Registrar or a civil celebrant, he shall witness the signature.

(1C) A declaration referred to in subsection (1A) shall be in Form 5 in Schedule 1.”.

(3) Section 21(2) is amended by repealing “Such declaration” and substituting “A declaration referred to in subsection (1A)”.

(4) Section 21(2) is amended by adding “or a civil celebrant, as the case may be” after “the Registrar”.

(5) Section 21(3) is amended by repealing “The marriage shall take place in the office of the Registrar” and substituting “A marriage celebrated by the Registrar shall take place in his office”.

(6) Section 21 is amended by adding—

“(3A) A marriage celebrated by a civil celebrant—

(a) may take place at any hour; and

(b) shall take place at any place which is a place in Hong Kong other than the office of the Registrar and a licensed place of worship.”.

(7) Section 21(4)(a) is amended by repealing “The marriage” and substituting “A marriage celebrated by the Registrar or a civil celebrant”.

(8) Section 21(4)(a)(i) is amended by adding “or the civil celebrant, as the case may be,” after “the Registrar”.

(9) Section 21(4)(a)(i) is amended by repealing “in this Registry (or place)” and substituting “contracted under the Marriage Ordinance”.

(10) Section 21(4)(a)(i) is amended by repealing “A.B., and C.D.” and substituting “[name of the male party], and [name of the female party]”.

(11) Section 21(4)(a)(ii) is repealed and the following substituted—

“(ii) the male party shall then say to the female party either—

(A) in Chinese—

“我請在場各人見證：我 [男方姓名] 願以妳 [女方姓名] 為我合法妻子。”; or

(B) in English—

“I call upon all persons here present to witness that I, [name of the male party], do take thee, [name of the female party], to be my lawful wedded wife.”; and

(iii) the female party shall then say to the male party either—

(A) in Chinese—

“我請在場各人見證：我 [女方姓名] 願以你 [男方姓名] 為我合法丈夫。”; or

(B) in English—

“I call upon all persons here present to witness that I, [name of the female party], do take thee, [name of the male party], to be my lawful wedded husband.”.”.

(12) Section 21(4)(b) is amended by repealing everything after “the Registrar” and substituting—

“or the civil celebrant, as the case may be—

(i) is satisfied that the parties and witnesses all understand the Chinese language, the marriage may be celebrated in the Chinese language; or
