

Panel on Constitutional Affairs

List of outstanding items for discussion
(position as at 20 March 2007)

Proposed timing for discussion

1. Mechanism for amending the Basic Law

Discussions on this item were held by the Panel since the 1998-99 legislative session.

To be confirmed
by CAB

At the meeting on 17 July 2001 when the item was last discussed, the Administration advised that it was continuing discussion with the Central Authorities regarding the issues identified, particularly those relating to the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress (NPCSC), the State Council, the local NPC deputies and the Basic Law Committee.

Constitutional Affairs Bureau (CAB) advised on 6 October 2006 that the Administration would revert to the Panel once it was in a position to do so.

2. The question of "important bill" under Article 50 of the Basic Law

The Panel discussed the question of "important bill" under Article 50 of the Basic Law at a number of meetings since late 1999.

To be decided
by the Panel

The Panel noted the Administration's position on the following issues -

- (a) what constitutes an "important bill";
- (b) who determines whether a bill is important;
- (c) when to determine whether a bill is important; and
- (d) procedures and parties involved in the consultations under Article 50.

Given the Administration's position, the Chairman sought the views of members on the way forward at the meeting on 18 July 2005 when the item was last discussed. Hon Audrey EU suggested and members agreed that the item should remain on the outstanding list. At the meeting on 20 November 2006, members noted the background brief on the past discussions of members and developments subsequent to the meeting on 18 July 2005 prepared by the LegCo Secretariat (LC Paper No. CB(2)376/06-07(02)), and expressed no strong view on the timing for discussing the item.

3. Constitutional development

In January 2004, CE appointed a Task Force headed by the Chief Secretary for Administration with the Secretary for Justice and Secretary for Constitutional Affairs (SCA) as members, to take forward matters relating to constitutional development. The Task Force published four reports in 2004.

On-going
discussion

On 19 October 2005, the Task Force released its Fifth Report which contains a package of proposals for the method for selecting CE in 2007 and for forming LegCo in 2008 and the draft motions on the amendments to Annexes I and II to the Basic Law. On 21 December 2005, the motions moved by the Administration on the amendments to Annexes I and II regarding the two electoral methods in 2007-2008 were negatived.

The Administration has entrusted the Committee on Governance and Political Development under the Commission on Strategic Development (CSD) to discuss possible models for implementing universal suffrage for selecting CE and forming LegCo. All discussions papers of CSD are provided to Members through the LegCo Secretariat. The Administration would publish a report to draw conclusions on the discussion of CSD during the first half of 2007. The report would be made public and submitted to the Central Authorities.

The Panel discussed the Democratic Party (DP)'s proposal for implementing universal suffrage and related issues at the meetings on 20 March, 21 April and 15 May 2006. The Panel also considered a summary prepared by the Secretariat on the proposals on models for selecting CE and forming LegCo by universal suffrage received by LegCo committees at the meeting on 19 June 2006.

The Panel continues to discuss the possible models for selecting CE and forming LegCo by universal suffrage in the current session.

4. Role and development of political parties

The Panel held a discussion on the need to introduce a political party law at its meeting on 21 February 2005 and received views from deputations on the role and development of political parties at a special meeting on 26 February 2005.

To be decided
by the Panel

The Administration's position is that the introduction of a political party law will hinder the development of political parties. The Administration proposed at the Panel meeting on 21 April 2006 that the financial assistance scheme applicable to candidates in LegCo elections would be extended to candidates in the next DC elections, i.e. a subsidy of $10 per vote, as one of means to facilitate political party development.

5. Composition, functions and operation of the Electoral Affairs Commission

On 21 June 2004, the Research Report prepared by RLSD on "Operation of Electoral Regulatory Bodies in Selected Places" (RP04/03-04) was presented to the Panel.

To be decided
by the Panel

Members agreed to further explore the issues raised in the Research Report in future. The Administration advised in writing in November 2004 that it was prepared to listen to members' views at future meetings.

6. Political appointment system

As mentioned by CE in the 2005-2006 Policy Address, the Administration would consider creating a small number of new position dedicated to political affairs so as to further improve the Accountability System for Principal Officials. The main duty would be to support CE and the Principal Officials in their political work. Specifically, the Administration would examine the possibility of creating new non-civil service positions (such as assistants to Directors of Bureaux).

To be confirmed
by CAB

On 26 July 2006, the Administration issued the Consultation Document on "Further Development of the Political Appointment System" which set out, inter alia, the proposal to create within the Government a small number of positions dedicated to political affairs. The Panel was briefed on the proposal at an informal meeting held on that day. The Panel further discussed the subject at a special meeting on 31 July 2006. The consultation period will end on 30 November 2006. The Administration will analyse the views collected with a view to making public the Government's proposed way forward during the first half of 2007.

Council Business Division 2
Legislative Council Secretariat
20 March 2007