

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL BRIEF

Child Abduction and Custody Ordinance (Chapter 512)

CHILD ABDUCTION AND CUSTODY (PARTIES TO CONVENTION) (AMENDMENT) ORDER 2008

INTRODUCTION

At the meeting of the Executive Council on 6 May 2008, the Council ADVISED and the Chief Executive ORDERED that the Child Abduction and Custody (Parties to Convention) (Amendment) Order 2008 (the Amendment Order) at Annex should be made under section 4 of the Child Abduction and Custody Ordinance (Chapter 512) (the Ordinance) to add Ukraine to the list of Contracting States to the Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction. The Amendment Order is to update the Child Abduction and Custody (Parties to Convention) Order (the Order) in order to implement the Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction (the Convention) between the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) and Ukraine, whose accession to the Convention has recently been accepted by the Central People's Government (CPG).

JUSTIFICATIONS

2. Section 4 of the Ordinance provides that the Chief Executive shall make and publish in the Gazette an order specifying, among other things, certain States as the Contracting States to the Convention. The list is updated from time to time by amendment orders.

3. Ukraine acceded to the Convention in June 2006. Since Ukraine met our criteria for inclusion in the Order, with the consent of the CPG, the Administration considered it necessary to add Ukraine to the Order.

EFFECTIVE DATE

4. According to Article 38 of the Convention, the Convention will enter into force between an acceding State and a Contracting State that has declared its acceptance of the accession on the first day of the third calendar month after the deposit of the declaration of acceptance.

5. The CPG had deposited with the depository of the Convention (the Government of the Netherlands) its acceptance on behalf of the HKSAR of the accession of Ukraine on 10 March 2008.

6. In accordance with Article 38 of the Convention, the Convention will enter into force between the HKSAR and Ukraine on 1 June 2008. The Amendment Order shall take effect on 1 June 2008, before the expiry of the standard negative vetting period of 28 days (or 28 plus 21 days of extended negative vetting period). This is to ensure our full compliance with the requirements under the Convention from 1 June 2008.

LEGISLATIVE TIMETABLE

7. The legislative timetable will be –

Publication in the Gazette	9 May 2008
Tabling at the Legislative Council	14 May 2008

IMPLICATIONS OF THE PROPOSAL

8. The Amendment Order is in conformity with the Basic Law, including the provisions concerning human rights. It has no environmental or sustainability implications.

9. The Amendment Order is also consistent with Article 11 of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child which provides that State Parties shall take measures to combat the illicit transfer and non-return of children abroad and, to this end, shall promote the conclusion of bilateral or multilateral agreements or accession to existing agreements.

10. There may be some additional workload for the Department of Justice, Judiciary, Legal Aid Department, Social Welfare Department, Immigration Department and the Police. However, the number of cases is likely to be very few and the additional workload can be absorbed within existing resources.

11. The legislative amendments, which aim at updating the list of Contracting States to the Convention, would provide a broader and more up-to-date framework in combating international child abduction. There should be no economic implications.

12. The Amendment Order will not affect the current binding effect of the Ordinance.

PUBLIC CONSULTATION

13. Since this is a routine updating exercise, public consultation on the Amendment Order is considered not necessary.

PUBLICITY

14. A press release will be issued on 7 May 2008. A spokesman from the Labour and Welfare Bureau will be available to answer media enquiries.

BACKGROUND

15. The Convention, which was signed at the Hague in 1980 and is now in force in 80 States, provides an effective mechanism for the swift return of children wrongfully removed from their place of habitual residence to another Contracting State in violation of custodial rights.

16. An agreement was reached at the Sino-British Joint Liaison Group in September 1996 on the extension of the Convention to Hong Kong by the United Kingdom and its continued application to the HKSAR after 30 June 1997. The Convention does not apply to the Mainland, but the declaration of acceptance of new accessions is made by the CPG on behalf of the HKSAR.

17. Any state may accede to the Convention in accordance with Article 38. Article 38 also provides that the accession will have effect only as regards the relations between the acceding state and such Contracting States as will have declared their acceptance of the accession.
