

“Two new Integrated Rehabilitation Services Centres”
FCR(2009-10)20

Supplementary Information

When inviting proposals from non-governmental organisations (NGOs) for operating these two new Integrated Rehabilitation Services Centres (IRSCs) for persons with disabilities, the Social Welfare Department (SWD) will stipulate in the Service Specifications that the selected operator is required to comply with the relevant statutory requirements and Technical Schedules standards imposed by SWD when carrying out fitting-out works for the centre. Specifically, the project works are required to comply with environmental protection requirements in the areas of electricity installation, lighting, air-conditioning and provision of building materials; and the universal accessibility requirements as laid down in the “Design Manual - Barrier-free Access 2008”.
