Barristers (Qualification for Admission and Pupillage) Rules

11. Interpretation

Section 2 of the Barristers (Qualification for Admission and Pupillage) Rules (Cap. 159 sub. leg. AC) is amended by repealing the definition of “common law jurisdiction”.

Explanatory Memorandum

The purpose of this Bill is to amend the Legal Practitioners Ordinance (Cap. 159), in order to implement the scheme proposed by the Working Party on Solicitors’ Rights of Audience, a working party established by the Chief Justice with members appointed by him. Under the proposed scheme, solicitors having at least 5 years’ post-qualification experience and satisfying further eligibility requirements may apply to an assessment board for higher rights of audience before the High Court and the Court of Final Appeal.

Preliminary provisions

2. Clause 1 sets out the short title of the Bill when enacted, and clause 2 provides for the commencement of the Bill further to its enactment.

3. Clause 3 adds to the principal Ordinance new definitions for expressions to be used in the Bill, including the “Assessment Board” (being the assessment board to be established under the Bill under the name of Higher Rights Assessment Board); “higher rights of audience” (being the higher rights of audience exercisable before the High Court and the Court of Final Appeal); “higher rights of audience certificate” (being a certificate issued to a person having higher rights of audience); and “solicitor advocate” (being a person having higher rights of audience).

New Part IIIB

4. Clause 4 adds a new Part IIIB, which consists of the proposed sections 39E to 39R, to the principal Ordinance.

5. The proposed section 39E establishes the Assessment Board, and provides for its functions and membership. The Assessment Board is to comprise members appointed by the Chief Justice from serving or former judges (see the definition of “eligible person” in the proposed section 39E), members of the legal profession and officers of the Department of Justice, as well as a lay member also appointed by him. The proposed sections 39F and 39G further provide for the terms of office, and resignation or removal of a member of the Assessment Board, and also for the proceedings of the Assessment Board.

6. The proposed section 39H provides that a solicitor satisfying the eligibility requirements may apply to the Assessment Board for higher rights of audience, whether in respect of civil proceedings, criminal proceedings or both civil and criminal proceedings. The proposed section 39I sets out the eligibility requirements. Among other requirements, the applicant has to have at least 5 years’ post-qualification experience (see the requirements concerning “requisite experience” in the proposed section 39I). Further, the applicant has to comply with the requirements prescribed by rules to be made by the Assessment Board (“Assessment Board Rules”), or alternatively apply on the basis of an exemption from those requirements.

7. The proposed section 39J sets out further requirements applicable to the application. In particular, the application has to be supported by the information prescribed by the Assessment Board Rules and accompanied by the fee prescribed by those Rules.

8. The proposed section 39K provides for the determination by the Assessment Board of the application, and requires the Assessment Board to notify the applicant and the Council of the Law Society (“Council”) of its decision as soon as practicable after the decision is made. The proposed section 39L sets out further conditions applicable to the determination. It provides that if the applicant has sought exemption from the requirements prescribed by the Assessment Board Rules (as described in paragraph 6 above), the Assessment Board will have to be satisfied that the applicant has complied with the alternative requirements also prescribed by the Assessment Board Rules. In addition, the Assessment Board has to be satisfied that the applicant has acquired recent litigation experience and is in all respects a suitable person to have the higher rights of audience for which the application is made.

9. The proposed section 39M contains further provisions applicable to the determination of the application by the Assessment Board. Among other matters, the provision empowers the Assessment Board to make enquiries with the Council to ascertain whether the applicant satisfies the eligibility requirements under the proposed section 39I and the further requirements described in the proposed section 39L, and also to require the applicant to provide it with further information relating to the application, whether at an interview before it or otherwise.

10. The proposed section 39N makes it clear that on the granting of the application by the Assessment Board, the applicant has the higher rights of audience sought under the application, and those rights would then be exercisable by the applicant as a solicitor.

11. The proposed section 39O provides that a person who has higher rights of audience ceases to have those rights on the person being adjudged bankrupt, or on the person’s name ceasing to be on the roll of solicitors, or on the person being suspended from practice as a solicitor. The provision further provides for reacquisition of the rights in specified circumstances.

12. The proposed sections 39P and 39Q set out provisions relating to the issue by the Council of higher rights of audience certificates, and require the Council to keep, and make available for public inspection, a list of all persons who have acquired higher rights of audience, whether or not they have subsequently ceased to have those rights.

The proposed section 45A provides that where a person who does not have higher rights of audience in respect of certain proceedings under the proposed Part IIIB purports to exercise those rights as a solicitor, the person is guilty of contempt of court and also commits an offence punishable by a fine of $500,000. Also, any costs in respect of anything done by the person in purported exercise of those rights as a solicitor are not recoverable by any person. In addition, clause 7 amends section 51 of the principal Ordinance to provide that the general penal provision for bodies corporate under that section applies also to the proposed section 45A.

15. Clause 8 amends section 73 of the principal Ordinance, which provides for the power of the Council to make rules, in order to deal with the issue of and other matters concerning higher rights of audience certificates.

16. Clause 9 adds the proposed sections 73CA and 73CB to the principal Ordinance. The proposed section 73CA empowers the Assessment Board to make the Assessment Board Rules. It further provides that the rules may deal with matters relating to any courses or training or assessments or examinations required to be completed or passed by an applicant for higher rights of audience. The proposed section 73CB further empowers the Assessment Board to delegate to its committees its powers and duties in relation to any interview required to be attended by an applicant for higher rights of audience under the proposed section 39M.
