Ref : CB3/HS/1

Subcommittee on Preparatory Work in relation to the Establishment of an Investigation Committee under Rule 49B(2A) (Disqualification of Member from Office)
of the Rules of Procedure

Meeting on 23 October 2009

Proposed Terms of Reference

Purpose

This paper invites members to consider the proposed terms of reference of the Subcommittee on Preparatory Work in relation to the Establishment of an Investigation Committee under Rule 49B(2A) (Disqualification of Member from Office) of the Rules of Procedure ("the Subcommittee").

Background

2. At the House Committee meeting on 16 October 2009, members agreed that the Subcommittee should not undertake the drafting of the wording of the censure motion to be moved under Rule 49B(1A) of the Rules of Procedure, which should be left to the mover of the motion and the three other Members who would jointly sign the notice of the motion, and that the Subcommittee should assist the House Committee in considering other preparatory work, including making proposal on the election procedure for the membership of the investigation committee.

Proposed Terms of Reference

3. Members are invited to consider the proposed terms of reference of the Subcommittee as follows:

- (a) to consider and propose to the House Committee the procedure for the election of Members for appointment by the President to the investigation committee ; and
- (b) to undertake other preparatory work as deemed necessary.

Advice sought

4. Members are invited to consider the proposed terms of reference of the Subcommittee in paragraph 3 above.
