Items proposed by members

1. Monitoring of anti-terrorism measures by the Administration

In the course of deliberations of the Bills Committee on United Nations (Anti-Terrorism Measures) Bill, the Administration undertook to review periodically the anti-terrorism measures set out in legislation to ensure that they were in line with the international trend. The Bills Committee agreed that the monitoring of anti-terrorism measures should be referred to the Panel for follow-up.

To be confirmed

At the suggestion of members, the subject of "Measures to combat terrorist activities in Hong Kong" was discussed at the meeting on 5 December 2002.

At the meetings on 16 January 2003 and 20 February 2003, the Panel was consulted on the proposals in the United Nations (Anti-Terrorism Measures) (Amendment) Bill 2003, which sought to implement relevant international conventions against terrorism, and to provide the means for the Secretary for Security to effectively freeze terrorist assets which are not funds. The Administration subsequently introduced the Bill on 21 May 2003. A Bills Committee formed to study the Bill had completed its work and the Bill was passed at the Council meeting on 30 June 2004. During the resumption of Second Reading debate on the Bill, the Administration stated that it would review the reporting requirements under section 12 of the Ordinance and section 25A of the Drug Trafficking (Recovery of Proceeds) Ordinance and the Organized and Serious Crimes Ordinance in the context of the exercise to put in place the Financial Action Task Force on Money Laundering's Forty Recommendations (the FATF Recommendations) which was scheduled to start in 2004-2005.

In its letter dated 27 October 2004 (LC Paper No. CB(2)110/04-05(01) issued on 28 October 2004), the Administration advised that it planned to launch the proposed review of the suspicious transaction reporting requirements in the first quarter of 2005.

Progress reports provided by the Administration were circulated to members vide LC Paper Nos. CB(2)875/04-05, CB(2)751/05-06 and CB(2)973/05-06 on 16 February 2005, 23 December 2005 and 25 January 2006 respectively.

The review of the suspicious transaction reporting requirements was launched in the first quarter of 2005 and is still underway. The Administration will inform the Panel of the result of the review in the course of the preparation of the legislation for implementing the FATF Recommendations.

At the meeting on 2 December 2008, the Administration consulted the Panel on the proposed rules of court and code of practice to be made under the United Nations (Anti-Terrorism Measures) Ordinance (Cap. 575).

2. Follow-up on issues relating to the Police's List of Recordable Offences

Issues relating to the Police's List of Recordable Offences and Certificate of No Criminal Conviction were discussed at the meeting on 2 April 2004. Members were concerned that besides some 167 recordable offences which might be recordable by the Police, offences where a heavier sentence would be imposed on conviction would also be recorded. They considered that the criteria for recording a conviction should be set out clearly and the records of convictions maintained by the Police should be separated from the system for issuing Certificate of No Criminal Conviction. The Administration stated that it would examine the issue having regard to the practice in other countries. Hon James TO proposed that the matter be followed up by the Panel.

9. Police's undercover operations against vice activities

Item discussed at the meeting on 4 April 2006. Hon James TO suggested that the subject should be discussed again at a future meeting. To be confirmed

Supplementary information provided by the Administration was circulated to members vide LC Paper No. CB(2)3021/05-06 on 13 September 2006.

At the meeting on 27 October 2008, members agreed that a subcommittee should be formed to study issues relating to the Police's practices in handling searches of detainees and enforcement in respect of vice activities impacting on sex workers. The Subcommittee on Police's Handling of Sex Workers and Searches of Detainees was formed on 15 November 2008 and has commenced its work in December 2008.

10. Police's Handling of Searches of Detainees

The Subcommittee on Police's Handling of Searches of Detainees had studied the Police's new arrangements for the handling of searches of detainees implemented from 1 July 2008. In concluding its deliberations, the Subcommittee held the view that the new arrangements as set out in the revised provisions in the Police General Orders and the Force Procedures Manual, the Custody Search Form and the Guidelines on the Searching of Detained Persons had not struck a proper balance between ensuring the safety of detainees and preventing possible abuse of power by Police officers. The Subcommittee urged the Administration to further improve the arrangements to enhance the protection of the rights of detainees and safeguard them from possible To be confirmed
