Explanatory Note

The main object of this Regulation is to amend the Electoral Affairs Commission (Registration) (Electors for Legislative Council Functional Constituencies) (Voters for Election Committee Subsectors) (Members of Election Committee) Regulation (Cap. 541 sub. leg. B) (“the principal Regulation”) to provide for matters relating—

- (a) to registration of persons serving a sentence of imprisonment or otherwise detained under any lawful authority as electors and voters for Legislative Council functional constituencies and Election Committee subsectors; and
- (b) to registration of such persons in the Election Committee register.

Under section 1, this Regulation comes into operation on a day to be appointed by the Chairman of the Electoral Affairs Commission.

2. Section 2 makes a minor amendment to the definition of “principal residential address” in section 2(1) of the principal Regulation. The amendment is consequential upon a recent amendment to section 28 of the Legislative Council Ordinance (Cap. 542).

3. Section 25 of the principal Regulation requires the Electoral Registration Officer to publish a notice concerning an omissions list containing the personal particulars of persons who are no longer eligible to have their names included in the relevant registers. Section 3 amends that section to provide for public inspection of a copy of a specific part of the relevant omissions lists.

4. Section 30 of the principal Regulation allows a person to make, under certain circumstances, an objection to another person’s registration in the relevant final register by means of lodging a notice of objection in person. Section 4 amends that section to provide that an imprisoned person or a person detained under any lawful authority may send a notice of objection by post.

5. Section 31 of the principal Regulation allows a person to object to certain decisions of the Electoral Registration Officer by making a claim by means of lodging a notice of claim in person. Section 5 amends that section to provide that an imprisoned person or a person detained under any lawful authority may send a notice of claim by post.
