Miss Odelia Leung
Clerk to Panel on Education
Legislative Council
Jackson Road
Central, Hong Kong

By Post only

Dear Miss Leung,

Provision of Supplementary Information as Requested by Members in Panel on Education Meeting

As requested by Members of the Panel on Education in the Meeting held on 10 January 2011, we would like to provide the following supplementary information –

- (i) Incomes generated from tuition fees by the two start-up loan applicants, i.e. The Open University of Hong Kong and Hang Seng School of Commerce (the information is at Annex 1);
- (ii) Scholarship and bursary offered by the two mentioned institutions (the information is at Annex 2); and
- (iii) Undesignated site(s) zoned as G/IC which are near to the existing campuses of the two mentioned institutions (the concerned sites are highlighted on the maps at Annex 3).

Yours sincerely,

(Sylvester Wong)
for Secretary for Education

Encls.

Incomes Generated from Tuition Fees
in the 2009/2010 Academic Year by
Hang Seng School of Commerce (HSSC) and
The Open University of Hong Kong (OUHK)

	Incomes generated from tuition fees
HSSC (Note 1)	$29,244,100
OUHK (Note 2)	$237,600,000

Note

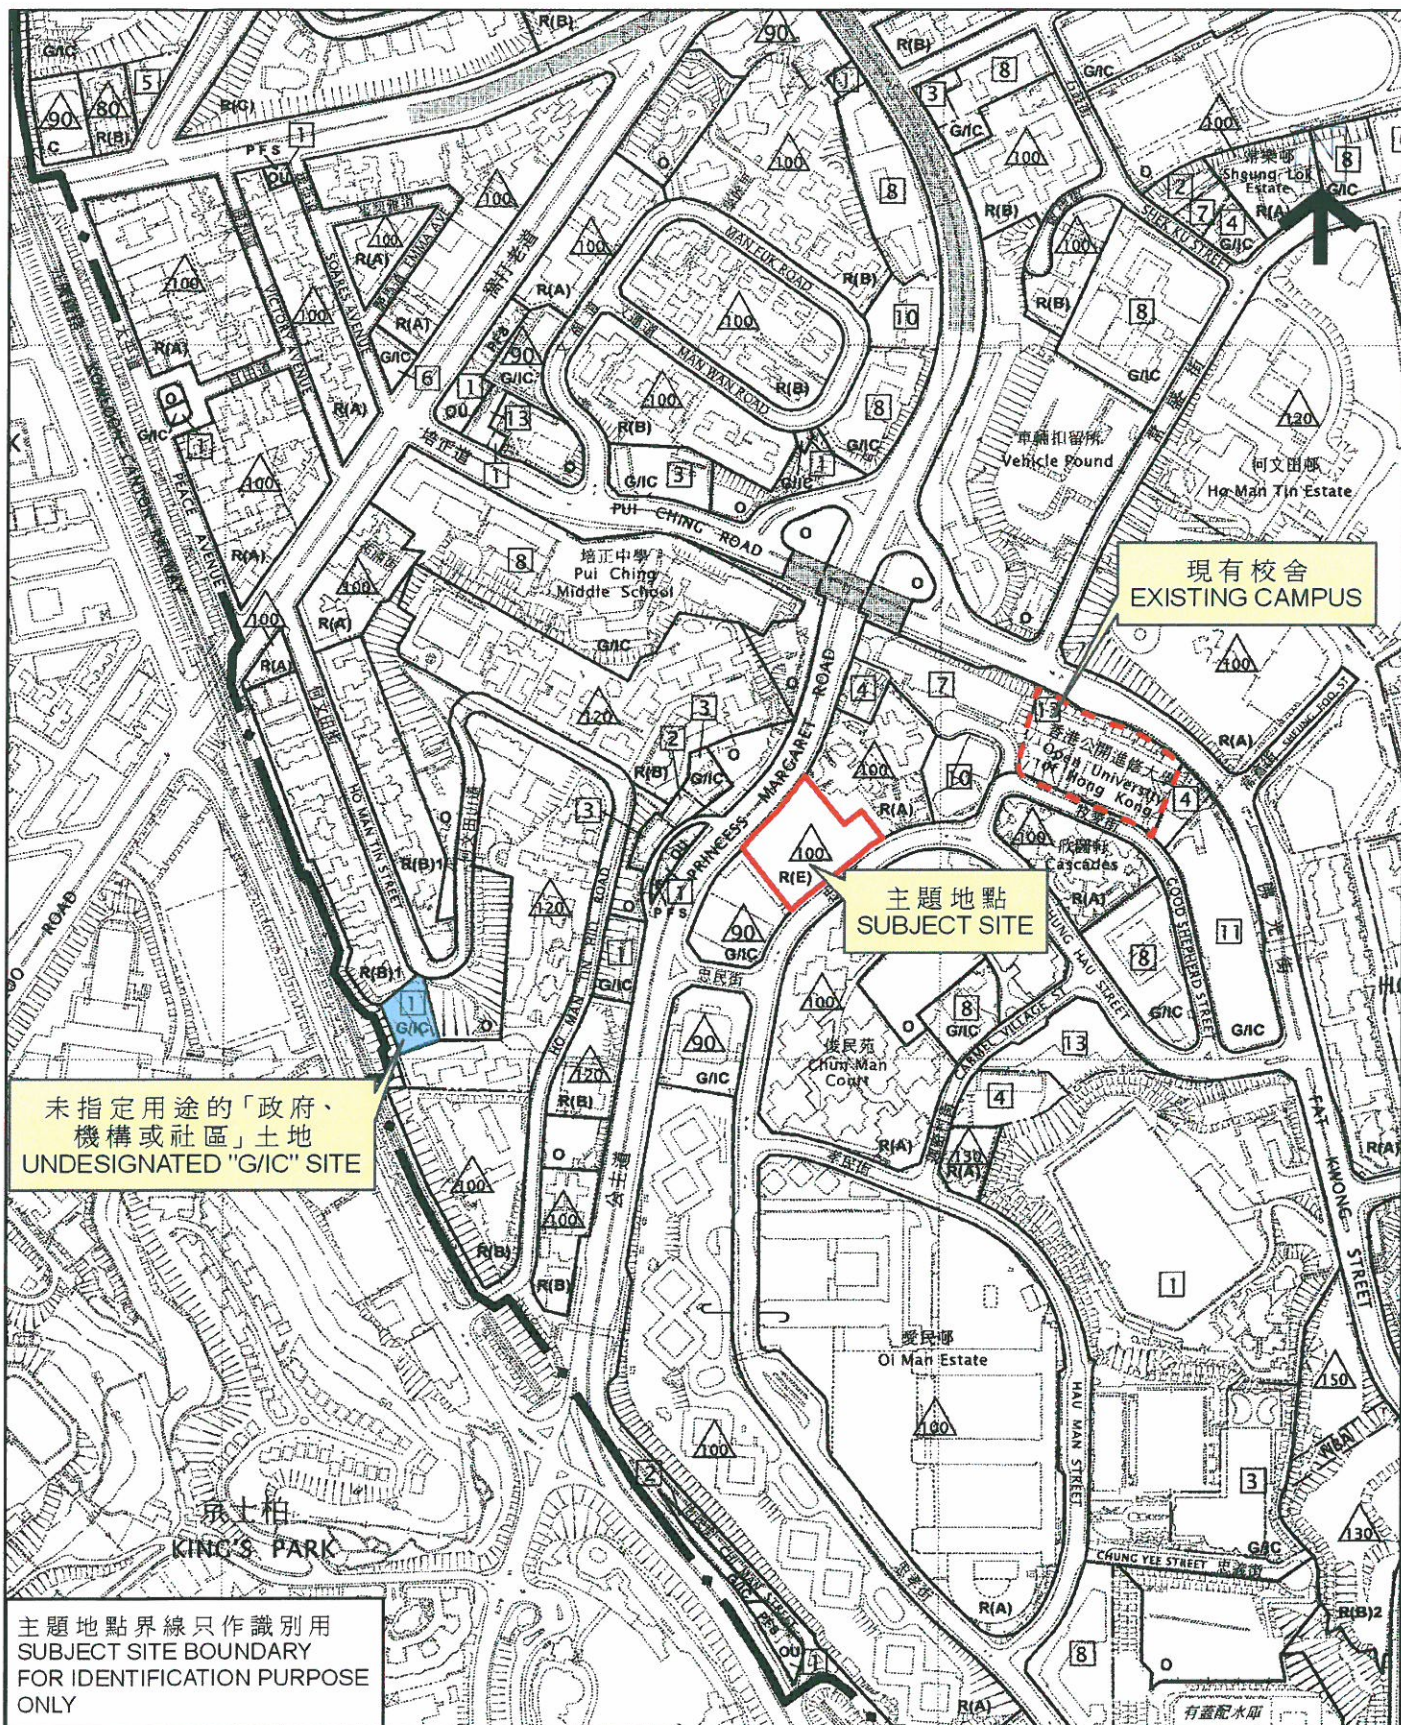

1. Including incomes generated from tuition fees received for matriculation programmes, Associate Degree (AD) and Pre-AD programmes and Top-up degree programmes.
2. Including incomes generated from tuition fees received for the full-time face-to-face programmes only.

Scholarship and Bursary Offered by
Hang Seng School of Commerce (HSSC) and
The Open University of Hong Kong (OUHK)

	SCHOLARSHIP				BURSARY
	No. of Students		Amount		No. of Students		Amount

HSSC (Note 1)	127	190	$6,277,299	$8,000,000	104	150	$769,000	$1,000,000
OUHK (Note 2)	89	101	$1,431,000	$1,580,000	N/A

Note:

1. Figures provided by HSSC for the 2010-11 academic year are estimates. According to HSSC, information on bursaries/fee remission are made available for its students via various sources – (i) course promotional materials mailed to secondary schools in December each year; (ii) HSSC's website; and (iii) same information for new students in August prior to the commencement of an academic year. On the other hand, information on scholarships will be made available to students in September each year.
2. OUHK has no bursary for full-time face-to-face students as the University considers that students aged 25 or below are eligible for student financial assistance offered by the Government. According to OUHK, information on scholarships and financial assistance are made available for its students via various sources – (i) OUHK's website; (ii) a talk on 'student finance' with printed information leaflets for new students at the beginning of an academic year; and (iii) information about the Government's financial assistance schemes will be made available for both new and current students through email, notice board and OUHK's website.
