Dear Ms Yau,

Panel on Economic Development
Follow-up to meeting on 14 December 2010

At the meeting on 14 December 2010, a Member requested the Administration to provide information on whether the introduction of a new power supplier before 2018 would be considered in breach of the current Scheme of Control Agreements (SCAs) signed between the Government and the two power companies. The SCAs, being agreements of economic regulation between the Government and the power companies, do not grant any exclusivity to the power companies to supply electricity in Hong Kong.

Yours sincerely,

(Ms Vyora Yau)
for Secretary for the Environment
