
立法會秘書處
Legislative Council Secretariat

新聞稿 Press Release

Legislative Council Commission hosts a lunch for guests and artists

The Legislative Council (LegCo) Commission hosted a lunch today (February 17) in the Dining Hall of the LegCo Complex to thank the individuals who have offered valuable assistance and advice to the LegCo Commission in the planning and development of the various facilities of the LegCo complex, and the artists who produced artworks for display in the Complex.

Hon Jasper TSANG Yok-sing, President of LegCo, presents a commemorative book entitled "Legislative Council Then and Now: A Journey to the New Complex" to the guests. The commemorative book gives an overview of the development of Hong Kong's legislature and introduces the Complex's development and construction.

Hon Jasper TSANG Yok-sing (second from right), President of LegCo, and Ms Pauline NG (first from right), Secretary General of the LegCo Secretariat, take a photo with two artists Ms KOO Mei (first from left) and Ms MAN Fung-ye.

Dr Joseph TING Sun-pao (left), former Chief Curator of the Hong Kong Museum of History, Mr WONG Lam (centre), former Member of LegCo and Mr CHENG Po-hung, Honorary Consultant of University Museum and Art Gallery at the University of Hong Kong offered great assistance in the course of producing the "Memory Lane". They pose in front of the "Memory Lane".

Ends/Friday, February 17, 2012

NNNN