Orientation Seminar for Members-elect of the Fifth
Legislative Council Concluded Successfully (with photos)

The five-day orientation seminar organized by the Legislative Council ("LegCo") Secretariat for Members-elect of the Fifth LegCo concluded successfully today (September 27). The orientation seminar, which started last Friday (September 21), included a tour of the LegCo Complex and briefings on different subjects such as the services provided by the LegCo Secretariat, role and functions of the LegCo, law making process, redress system, declaration and registration of interests, and claiming of operating expenses reimbursement, etc. Moreover, the Law Draftsman of the Department of Justice and the Director of Administration were invited to introduce respectively to Members-elect the work of the Law Drafting Division and the structure of the Government and communication between the executive and the legislature. Two experience-sharing sessions attended by some Members of the current term on how to monitor Government policies and scrutinize legislative proposals were also arranged.

At the end of today's seminar, a demonstration of the swearing-in ceremony for Members-elect was held in the Chamber of the LegCo Complex. A total of 22 Members-elect attended the event. Picture below shows a senior staff member of the LegCo Secretariat briefs Members-elect on the arrangement for the conduct of the swearing-in ceremony.
