Commission Standing Orders (Part I)

Chapter: 09

Title: Conduct and Discipline

Internal Reference: 09-03

Section: 03

Heading: Acceptance of Advantages

Version Date: 30/06/2010

Definition of 'advantage'

- 1. 'Advantage' is defined in section 2 of the Prevention of Bribery Ordinance (POBO) (Cap. 201) to mean almost anything which is of value, except entertainment which will be covered under CSO (I) 09-04. Common examples include any gift (both of money and in kind), loan, fee, reward, commission, sponsorship, office, employment, contract, service, favour, etc.
- 2. It may constitute an offence under section 3 of the POBO (Cap. 201) if an officer solicits or accepts any advantage not in accordance with the general or special permission given under the Acceptance of Advantages Notice (AAN).

Restricted advantages

- 3. The AAN lists the advantages that a government officer may solicit or accept without committing an offence under section 3 of the POBO (Cap. 201). Under this Notice, the Chief Executive has given general permission to an officer to solicit or accept advantages without restrictions (including favours and loans of objects) except for four types specified as 'restricted advantages' which may only be solicited or accepted under certain circumstances having regard to the relationship with the offeror, the occasion the advantage is offered and the value of the advantage. The 'restricted advantages' under the AAN are
 - (a) gifts (both of money and in kind);
 - (b) discounts;

Section 03, Chapter 09, Commission Standing Orders (Part I) (Page 2)

- (c) loans of money; and
- (d) air, sea and overland passages.
- 4. An officer should read Annex 9-A2 'Circumstances for Accepting Restricted Advantages' to familiarise himself with the limited circumstances under which general permission is given under the AAN for him to solicit or accept any 'restricted advantage'. In case of doubt, he should seek clarification from his supervising officer at the SCACO level or above.

Special permission

5. In circumstances not covered by the general permission under the AAN, an officer should apply to his Head of Department for special permission (using the sample form at Annex 9-A3 'Application for Special Permission to Accept Restricted Advantages' prior to or as soon as reasonably possible after accepting any 'restricted advantage' in accordance with paragraphs 8 and 9 of the AAN.

Conflict of interest

6. An officer may be prosecuted for an offence if he solicits or accepts any advantage (even one otherwise permitted under the AAN) if the solicitation or acceptance relates to this official duties or the business or affairs of the Commission in circumstances prohibited by section 4 or section 9 of the POBO (Cap. 201). If an officer misuses his public office to further his private interests, he may also be prosecuted for the common law offence of misconduct in public office. If the Department of Justice considers that the circumstances of such conduct do not warrant prosecution, either under the POBO (Cap. 201) or the common law, the officer may nevertheless be liable to disciplinary action. (See also CSO (I) 09-05.)

Acceptance of advantages presented in one's official capacity

7. An officer is discouraged from accepting advantages presented to him in his official capacity.

Acceptance of gifts

The policy of the Commission is to limit to the minimum the exchange 8. of gifts on official occasions. Where an exchange of gifts is unavoidable on a particular occasion, the exchange should be made from organisation to organisation. Although it may be difficult formally to ask visitors not to offer any gift, it would be desirable to disclose the Commission's policy on this matter to other organisations wherever possible in advance. Where gifts are presented to an officer in his official capacity, including prizes won through free lucky draws or free raffle tickets during official functions, they are to be regarded as gifts to the Commission, which the officer receives on its behalf. Where it can be done without causing offence or embarrassment, the gift should be returned to the donor with a carefully worded explanation that Commission policy restricts the acceptance of gifts and a polite word of gratitude for the thought behind the gifts. A gift should only be accepted in circumstances where it is considered that its acceptance cannot be declined. Special attention should be paid to avoid conflict of interest and other situations which may constitute an offence under section 4 of the POBO (Cap. 201).

Report of acceptance of gifts

9. As soon as possible after gifts are presented and accepted, an officer should make a report to his Head of Department in the format shown in Annex 9-A4 'Report on Acceptance of Gift Presented to an Officer in His Official Capacity'. Staff are not required to seek permission for accepting gifts which are of no commercial or resale value, e.g. plaques, banners, pennants, printed calendars, laisee envelopes, which are marked with inscriptions and names of organisations. However, they are required to make reports to their supervisors at SCACO level or above who will decide on how these gifts should be disposed of. Where an officer wishes to retain the gift personally, he should seek prior approval from his Head of Department or the designated directorate officer.

Guidelines for disposal of official gifts

- 10. The Commission's guidelines for the disposal of official gifts are set out at Annex 9-A5 'Guidelines for the Disposal of Gifts Presented to an Officer in his Official Capacity'. Directorate officers wishing to retain gifts received on official occasions must seek permission from the Commissioner.
- 11. If an officer has any doubt about the disposal of gifts he has received on an official occasion, he should consult his Head of Department.

Acceptance of honorarium

12. Notwithstanding Civil Service Regulation 550(j), ICAC officers are not allowed to receive honorarium for talks delivered on behalf of the Commission. Should it be considered offensive or difficult to reject a fee, the officer should make a report to the AD/A who will arrange for the fee to be paid to the General Revenue via the Treasury.

Flight awards from duty travel, overseas posting and training

13. Air passages for duty travel, overseas posting and training are normally booked through the Supplies Office of the Administration Branch. Any mileage awards will be credited to the Commission's corporate accounts, if applicable.

Section 03, Chapter 09, Commission Standing Orders (Part I) (Page 5)

- 14. Where the airline offers awards to personal accounts only, an officer may claim and accept the flight awards (see also paragraph 16). However, the first call on the use of such awards must be for official purposes. This may include upgrading of passages or providing a passage for a spouse to travel with the officer where there is justification but where normal rules or funding would not permit public funds to be used.
- 15. If an award is not expected to be used for subsequent official travel before the expiry date of the award, prior approval must be sought from AD/A in the case of a non-directorate or Commissioner for a directorate officer via S/MA2 who will check among other things, whether the award has been duly reported and whether it is expected to be used for official purposes before its expiry date.
- 16. The Commission does not oblige officers on duty travel to claim flight awards from such passages. However, if and when such awards are claimed and credited to an officer's personal mileage account, the officer should report the awards to his Head of Department and S/MA2 using the forms, 'Statement of Account for Overseas Duty for *Investigation/Non-investigation Purpose' or 'Statement of Account for Training Outside Hong Kong' to facilitate planning for the possible use of the awards for subsequent official travel. The officer must report to his Head of Department should there be a conflict of interest between the acceptance of the travel award and the officer's official duties.

Flight awards from other government passages

17. Officers may accept flight awards earned from other government passages, including leave and leave-cum-duty passages. General permission has already been given under paragraph 4 of the AAN for them to accept such awards. Approval is also given under Civil Service Bureau Circular No. 4/2007 for officers to accept flight awards earned from government passages mentioned in paragraph 13 above, subject to the conditions stipulated in paragraphs 13 to 16 above.

18. An officer should report to his Head of Department if there is a conflict of interest between the acceptance of the flight award and his official duties.

Courier passages

19. All officers are NOT allowed to undertake courier duties and to accept the free or discounted passages offered.

Acceptance of free service

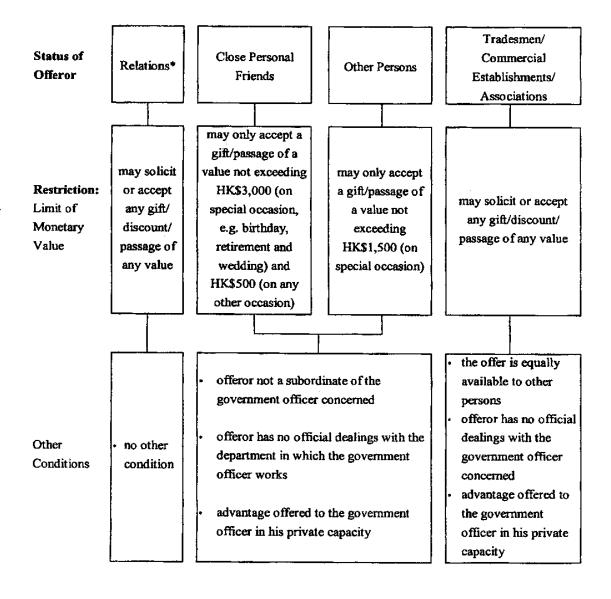

- 20. Although free service is regarded as an 'unrestricted advantage' under the AAN for the purpose of section 3 of the POBO (Cap. 201), an officer should ensure that he has no official dealings with the service providers before accepting the service so that he will not be obligated to arbitrarily favour the service providers in their official dealings with the Commission. In case of doubt, an officer should consult his supervisor.
- 21. If an official relationship between the officer and the service provider arises after acceptance of the service, the officer should report the acceptance to his Head of Department so as to avoid a perceived conflict of interest.

Chapter: 09 Section: A5 Title: Conduct and Discipline

Internal Reference: 09-A5 Version Date: 20/07/2010

Heading: Annex 5 - Guidelines for the Disposal of Gifts

Presented to an Officer in his Official Capacity

Annex 9-A5

Guidelines for the disposal of gifts presented to an officer in his official capacity

- 1. If the gift is of perishable food or drink, it should be shared among the office or section where the recipient works.
- 2. If the gift is a useful item, it should be sent to a charitable organisation, or if of historical or other interest, it should be sent to the Commission's or department's information centre, to a school, library or museum.
- 3. If the gift is suitable for display (e.g. a painting, vase, etc.) or suitable for retention as a souvenir in the office, it may be retained in the office of the officer to whom it was presented or elsewhere in the department. Such items should be included in the departmental inventory record.
- 4. If the gift is a small sum of cash given to all those attending a social function (e.g. laisee at Lunar New Year), it should be sent to the Treasury.
- 5. If the gift is of low value (not exceeding $500) and is a personal item (e.g. necktie or scarf) or is personally inscribed to a particular officer (e.g. a salver), the gift may be given back to the officer to whom it was presented for his personal retention.

Annex 9-A5, Chapter 09, Commission Standing Orders (Part I) (Page 2)

6. If the gift is of low value (not exceeding $500) and none of the above methods of disposal is appropriate, it may be donated to the Commission's social function as lucky draw prize.
