

Department of Justice: Bilingual Laws Information System

Chapter:	595	Title:	HAZARDOUS CHEMICALS CONTROL ORDINANCE	Gazette Number:	L.N. 7 of 2008
Section:	4	Heading:	Ordinance binds Government	Version Date:	01/04/2008

- (1) Subject to this section, this Ordinance binds the Government.
 - (2) Neither the Government nor any public officer in the officer's capacity as such is liable to be prosecuted for an offence against this Ordinance.
 - (3) No prescribed fee is payable by the Government.
-

Chapter:	595	Title:	HAZARDOUS CHEMICALS CONTROL ORDINANCE	Gazette Number:	L.N. 7 of 2008
Section:	51	Heading:	Protection of public officers	Version Date:	01/04/2008

- (1) A public officer is not personally liable for any civil liability or claim whatever in respect of any act done or omitted to be done by the officer if the officer did or omitted to do the act in the honest belief that the act or omission was required or authorized by or under this Ordinance.
 - (2) The protection conferred by subsection (1) does not in any way affect the liability of the Government for the act or omission of the public officer.
-