Motion on “Democratic procedures for the election of the Chief Executive by universal suffrage in 2017”
to be moved by Hon Alan LEONG
at the Council meeting of 15 May 2013

Wording of the Motion

That QIAO Xiaoyang, Chairman of the Law Committee under the National People’s Congress, made a speech on 24 March this year, indicating that regarding the election of the Chief Executive of the HKSAR by universal suffrage, ‘the issue that requires a consensus is essentially about the democratic procedures for nomination’; in this connection, this Council urges the SAR Government to ensure that, irrespective of how various sectors interpret the so-called ‘democratic procedures for nomination’, when formulating the proposals on the election of the Chief Executive in 2017, the rights to make nomination, to stand for election and to vote are universal and equal, without any ‘screening’ or ‘pre-selection’ through a nominating committee.
