

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL BRIEF

United Nations Sanctions Ordinance (Chapter 537)

UNITED NATIONS SANCTIONS (YEMEN) REGULATION 2015 (AMENDMENT) REGULATION 2016

INTRODUCTION

A At the meeting of the Executive Council on 24 May 2016, the Council advised and the Chief Executive (“the CE”) ordered that the United Nations Sanctions (Yemen) Regulation 2015 (Amendment) Regulation 2016 (“the Amendment Regulation”), at Annex A, should be made under section 3 of the United Nations Sanctions Ordinance (Cap. 537) (“the Ordinance”). The Amendment Regulation was gazetted on 27 May 2016 and came into operation on the same day.

BACKGROUND

Obligation and Authority

B 2. Under section 3(1) of the Ordinance, the CE is required to make regulations to give effect to an instruction from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the People's Republic of China (“MFA”) to implement sanctions decided by the Security Council of the United Nations (UNSC). In March 2016, the CE received an instruction from the MFA to implement UNSC Resolution (“UNSCR”) 2266 in respect of Yemen in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (“HKSAR”). The Amendment Regulation was made pursuant to the instruction. A document issued by the Chief Secretary for Administration confirming the MFA’s instruction is at Annex B.

Sanctions against Yemen

UNSCR 2140

3. Determining that the situation in Yemen constituted a threat to international peace and security in the region, the UNSC adopted UNSCR 2140 on 26 February 2014, imposing sanctions against Yemen. The UNSC, inter alia, decided that –

- (a) for an initial period of one year from the date of the adoption of UNSCR 2140, all Member States shall freeze without delay all funds, other financial assets and economic resources which are on their territories, which are owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by the individuals or entities designated by the Committee established pursuant to paragraph 19 of UNSCR 2140 (the Committee), or by individuals or entities acting on their behalf or at their direction, or by entities owned or controlled by them; and ensure that any funds, financial assets or economic resources are prevented from being made available by their nationals or by any individuals or entities within their territories, to or for the benefit of the individuals or entities designated by the Committee, subject to exceptions (paragraphs 11, 12, 13 and 14 of UNSCR 2140 refer); and
- (b) for an initial period of one year from the date of the adoption of UNSCR 2140, all Member States shall take the necessary measures to prevent the entry into or transit through their territories of individuals designated by the Committee, provided that nothing in paragraph 15 of UNSCR 2140 shall oblige a State to refuse its own nationals entry into its territory, subject to exceptions (paragraphs 15 and 16 of UNSCR 2140 refer).

4. The above targeted sanction measures were renewed for one year until 26 February 2016 by UNSCR 2204 on 24 February 2015. On 14 April 2015, the UNSC further adopted UNSCR 2216 to extend the above targeted sanction measures to those listed in the annex to that Resolution and impose arms embargo measures against targeted individuals and entities.

5. Pursuant to the instruction of MFA, the CE made the United Nations Sanctions (Yemen) Regulation 2015 (Cap. 537BP) (“the 2015 Regulation”) in July 2015. The provisions on financial sanctions and travel ban of the 2015 Regulation expired at midnight on 26 February 2016.

C

6. On 24 February 2016, the UNSC adopted UNSCR 2266 (at Annex C), which decided, inter alia, to renew until 26 February 2017 the measures imposed by paragraphs 11 and 15 of UNSCR 2140, and reaffirmed the provisions of paragraphs 12, 13, 14 and 16 of UNSCR 2140 and that the provisions of paragraphs 11 and 15 of UNSCR 2140 and paragraph 14 of UNSCR 2216 shall apply to the individuals or entities designated by the Committee or listed in the annex to UNSCR 2216 (paragraphs 2 and 3 of UNSCR 2266 refer).

7. The implementation of UNSCR 2266 is also relevant to HKSAR's compliance with the relevant recommendation promulgated by the Financial Action Task Force on combating the financing of terrorism.

THE AMENDMENT REGULATION

8. The Amendment Regulation, at Annex A, seeks to implement the sanctions against Yemen as per UNSCR 2266. The main provisions of the Amendment Regulation include -

- (a) section 5, which adds the new section 5A to the 2015 Regulation to provide for prohibition against making available to certain persons or entities funds or other financial assets or economic resources, or dealing with funds or other financial assets or economic resources of certain persons or entities;
- (b) section 7, which adds the new sections 7A and 7B to the 2015 Regulation to provide for prohibition against the entry into or transit through the HKSAR by certain persons and the relevant exceptions;
- (c) section 9, which adds the new section 9A to the 2015 Regulation to provide for the grant of licence for making available to certain persons or entities funds or other financial assets or economic resources, or dealing with funds or other financial assets or economic resources of certain persons or entities;

- (d) section 11, which adds the new section 30A to the 2015 Regulation to provide that the Chief Executive may by notice published in the Gazette specify as a relevant person or a relevant entity a person or an entity designated by the Committee for the purposes of the financial sanctions under the 2015 Regulation, or a person listed in the annex to UNSCR 2216; and
- (e) section 14, which adds the new section 34 to the 2015 Regulation to provide that all newly added sections would expire at midnight on 26 February 2017.

D A marked-up version showing the changes when compared against the 2015 Regulation is at Annex D for easy reference by Members.

IMPLICATIONS OF THE PROPOSAL

9. The proposal is in conformity with the Basic Law, including the provisions concerning human rights. The Amendment Regulation will not affect the current binding effect of the Ordinance. It has no financial, civil service, economic, productivity, environmental, sustainability, family or gender implications. Additional work arising from the enforcement of the Amendment Regulation, if any, will be absorbed by the relevant departments with existing resources.

PUBLICITY

10. A press release was issued on 27 May 2016 when the Amendment Regulation was published in the Gazette.

INFORMATION ON YEMEN AND RELATION WITH HKSAR

E 11. For information on Yemen, background of the sanction regime against the country as well as its bilateral trade relation with the HKSAR, please refer to Annex E.

ADVICE SOUGHT

12. Members are invited to note the implementation of the UNSCR 2266 in the HKSAR by the Amendment Regulation.

Part 3A

Licence

9A. Licence for making available funds, etc. to certain persons or entities or dealing with funds, etc. of certain persons or entities

- (1) If on application the Chief Executive determines that any of the requirements in subsection (2) is met, the Chief Executive must, subject to subsection (3), grant, as appropriate, a licence for—
  - (a) making available funds or other financial assets or economic resources to, or for the benefit of, a relevant person or a relevant entity; or
  - (b) dealing with funds or other financial assets or economic resources belonging to, or owned or controlled by, a relevant person or a relevant entity.
- (2) The requirements are as follows—
  - (a) the funds or other financial assets or economic resources are—
    - (i) necessary for basic expenses, including payment for foodstuffs, rents, mortgages, medicines, medical treatments, taxes, insurance premiums and public utility charges;
    - (ii) exclusively for the payment of reasonable professional fees or reimbursement of incurred expenses associated with the provision of legal services under the law of the HKSAR; or
    - (iii) fees or service charges, under the law of the HKSAR, for the routine holding or maintenance of funds or other financial assets or economic

- resources belonging to, or owned or controlled by, a relevant person or a relevant entity;
  - (b) the funds or other financial assets or economic resources are necessary for extraordinary expenses;
  - (c) the funds or other financial assets or economic resources—
    - (i) are the subject of a judicial, administrative or arbitral lien or judgment that was entered before 26 February 2014 and is not for the benefit of a relevant person or a relevant entity; and
    - (ii) are to be used to satisfy the lien or judgment;
  - (d) the funds or other financial assets or economic resources are to be used for making payment due under a contract entered into by a person or entity before the date on which the person or entity became a relevant person or a relevant entity, and the payment is not received, directly or indirectly, by a relevant person or a relevant entity.
- (3) If the Chief Executive determines that—
- (a) the requirement in subsection (2)(a) is met, the Chief Executive—
    - (i) must cause the Committee to be notified of the intention to grant a licence under subsection (1); and
    - (ii) must grant the licence in the absence of a negative decision by the Committee within 5 working days of the notification;
  - (b) the requirement in subsection (2)(b) is met, the Chief Executive—
    - (i) must cause the Committee to be notified of the determination; and

- (ii) must not grant the licence unless the Committee approves the determination;
- (c) the requirement in subsection (2)(c) is met, before granting the licence, the Chief Executive must cause the Committee to be notified of the determination;
- (d) the requirement in subsection (2)(d) is met, the Chief Executive must cause the Committee to be notified of the determination 10 working days before granting the licence.

9B. Provision of false information or documents for purpose of obtaining licences

- (1) A person who, for the purpose of obtaining a licence, makes any statement or provides or produces any information or document that the person knows to be false in a material particular commits an offence and is liable—
    - (a) on conviction on indictment to a fine and to imprisonment for 2 years; or
    - (b) on summary conviction to a fine at level 6 and to imprisonment for 6 months.
  - (2) A person who, for the purpose of obtaining a licence, recklessly makes any statement or provides or produces any information or document that is false in a material particular commits an offence and is liable—
    - (a) on conviction on indictment to a fine and to imprisonment for 2 years; or
    - (b) on summary conviction to a fine at level 6 and to imprisonment for 6 months.

Part 4

Things Done outside HKSAR

10. Licence or permission granted by authorities of places outside HKSAR

- (1) If the circumstances described in subsection (2) apply, a provision of this Regulation that prohibits the doing of a thing by a person except under the authority of a licence does not have effect in relation to any such thing done in a place outside the HKSAR by the person.
  - (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the circumstances are that the thing is done by the person under the authority of a licence or with permission granted, in accordance with any law in force in that place outside the HKSAR (being a law substantially corresponding to the relevant provision of this Regulation), by the authority competent in that behalf under that law.

Part 5

Enforcement of Regulation

Division 1—Investigation, etc. of Suspected Ships

11. Investigation of suspected ships

- (1) If an authorized officer has reason to suspect that a ship to which section 3 applies has been, is being or is about to be used in contravention of section 3(2), the officer may—
  - (a) either alone or accompanied and assisted by any person acting under the officer's authority, board the ship and search it and, for that purpose, use or authorize the use of reasonable force; and
  - (b) request the charterer, operator or master of the ship to provide any information relating to the ship or its cargo, or produce for inspection any of its cargo or any document relating to the ship or its cargo, that the officer may specify.
- (2) If an authorized officer has reason to suspect that a ship to which section 3 applies is being or is about to be used in contravention of section 3(2), the officer may, for the purpose of stopping or preventing the use of the ship in contravention of section 3(2) or to pursue enquiries, either there and then or on consideration of any information provided or cargo or document produced in response to a request made under subsection (1)(b), do one or more of the following—
  - (a) direct the charterer, operator or master of the ship to refrain, except with the consent of an authorized officer, from landing, at any port specified by the authorized officer, any part of the ship's cargo that is so specified;

- (b) request the charterer, operator or master of the ship to take any of the following steps—
  - (i) to cause the ship and any of its cargo not to proceed with the voyage on which the ship is then engaged or about to be engaged until the charterer, operator or master is notified by an authorized officer that the ship and its cargo may so proceed;
  - (ii) if the ship is in the HKSAR, to cause the ship and any of its cargo to remain in the HKSAR until the charterer, operator or master is notified by an authorized officer that the ship and its cargo may depart;
  - (iii) if the ship is in any other place, to take the ship and any of its cargo to a port specified by an authorized officer, and to cause the ship and its cargo to remain in that place until the charterer, operator or master is notified by an authorized officer that the ship and its cargo may depart;
  - (iv) to take the ship and any of its cargo to another destination specified by an authorized officer in agreement with the charterer, operator or master.
- (3) A power conferred by this section to request a person to provide any information or produce any cargo or document for inspection includes a power to—
  - (a) specify whether the information should be provided orally or in writing and in what form; and
  - (b) specify the time by which, and the place in which, the information should be provided or the cargo or document should be produced for inspection.

12. Offences by charterer, operator or master of ship

- (1) A charterer, operator or master of a ship who disobeys any direction given under section 11(2)(a), or, without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails to comply with a request made under section 11(1)(b) or (2)(b) within the time specified by an authorized officer or, if no time is specified, within a reasonable time, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine at level 6 and to imprisonment for 6 months.
- (2) A charterer, operator or master of a ship who, in response to a request made under section 11(1)(b) or (2)(b), provides or produces to an authorized officer any information or document that the charterer, operator or master knows to be false in a material particular, or recklessly provides or produces to an authorized officer any information or document that is false in a material particular, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine at level 6 and to imprisonment for 6 months.

13. Power of authorized officers to enter and detain ships

- (1) Without limiting section 12, if an authorized officer has reason to suspect that a request that has been made under section 11(2)(b) may not be complied with, the officer may take any steps that appear to the officer to be necessary to secure compliance with that request including, in particular, any of the following steps—
  - (a) enter or authorize the entry on any land or the ship concerned;
  - (b) detain or authorize the detention of that ship or any of its cargo;
  - (c) use or authorize the use of reasonable force.

- (2) Subject to subsection (3), subsection (1) does not authorize the detention of a ship for more than 12 hours.
- (3) The Chief Secretary for Administration may, by order in writing, authorize the detention of a ship for further periods of not more than 12 hours each, and the order must state the time from which, and period for which, the order is effective.

Division 2—Investigation, etc. of Suspected Aircraft

14. Investigation of suspected aircraft

- (1) If an authorized officer has reason to suspect that an aircraft to which section 3 applies has been, is being or is about to be used in contravention of section 3(2), the officer may—
  - (a) either alone or accompanied and assisted by any person acting under the officer's authority, board the aircraft and search it and, for that purpose, use or authorize the use of reasonable force; and
  - (b) request the charterer, operator or pilot in command of the aircraft to provide any information relating to the aircraft or its cargo, or produce for inspection any of its cargo or any document relating to the aircraft or its cargo, that the officer may specify.
- (2) If the aircraft referred to in subsection (1) is in the HKSAR, an authorized officer may, either there and then or on consideration of any information provided or cargo or document produced in response to a request made under subsection (1)(b), further request the charterer, operator or pilot in command of the aircraft to cause the aircraft and any of its cargo to remain in the HKSAR until the charterer, operator or pilot in command is notified by an authorized officer that the aircraft and its cargo may depart.

- (3) A power conferred by this section to request a person to provide any information or produce any cargo or document for inspection includes a power to—
  - (a) specify whether the information should be provided orally or in writing and in what form; and
  - (b) specify the time by which, and the place in which, the information should be provided or the cargo or document should be produced for inspection.

15. Offences by charterer, operator or pilot in command of aircraft

- (1) A charterer, operator or pilot in command of an aircraft who, without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails to comply with a request made under section 14(1)(b) or (2) within the time specified by an authorized officer or, if no time is specified, within a reasonable time, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine at level 6 and to imprisonment for 6 months.
- (2) A charterer, operator or pilot in command of an aircraft who, in response to a request made under section 14(1)(b) or (2), provides or produces to an authorized officer any information or document that the charterer, operator or pilot in command knows to be false in a material particular, or recklessly provides or produces to an authorized officer any information or document that is false in a material particular, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine at level 6 and to imprisonment for 6 months.

16. Power of authorized officers to enter and detain aircraft

- (1) Without limiting section 15, if an authorized officer has reason to suspect that a request that has been made under section 14(2) may not be complied with, the officer may take any steps that appear to the officer to be necessary to secure compliance with that request including, in particular, any of the following steps—

- (a) enter or authorize the entry on any land or the aircraft concerned;
  - (b) detain or authorize the detention of that aircraft or any of its cargo;
  - (c) use or authorize the use of reasonable force.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), subsection (1) does not authorize the detention of an aircraft for more than 6 hours.
- (3) The Chief Secretary for Administration may, by order in writing, authorize the detention of an aircraft for further periods of not more than 6 hours each, and the order must state the time from which, and period for which, the order is effective.

Division 3—Investigation, etc. of Suspected Vehicles

17. Investigation of suspected vehicles

- (1) If an authorized officer has reason to suspect that a vehicle in the HKSAR has been, is being or is about to be used in contravention of section 3(2), the officer may—
- (a) either alone or accompanied and assisted by any person acting under the officer's authority, board the vehicle and search it and, for that purpose, use or authorize the use of reasonable force;
  - (b) request the operator or driver of the vehicle to provide any information relating to the vehicle or any article carried on it, or produce for inspection any article carried on it or any document relating to the vehicle or any article carried on it, that the officer may specify; and

- (c) further request, either there and then or on consideration of any information provided or article or document produced in response to a request made under paragraph (b), the operator or driver to take the vehicle and any article carried on it to a place specified by an authorized officer, and to cause the vehicle and the article to remain in that place until the operator or driver is notified by an authorized officer that the vehicle and the article may depart.
- (2) A power conferred by this section to request a person to provide any information or produce any article or document for inspection includes a power to—
  - (a) specify whether the information should be provided orally or in writing and in what form; and
  - (b) specify the time by which, and the place in which, the information should be provided or the article or document should be produced for inspection.

18. Offences by operator or driver of vehicle

- (1) An operator or driver of a vehicle who, without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails to comply with a request made under section 17(1)(b) or (c) within the time specified by an authorized officer or, if no time is specified, within a reasonable time, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine at level 6 and to imprisonment for 6 months.
- (2) An operator or driver of a vehicle who, in response to a request made under section 17(1)(b) or (c), provides or produces to an authorized officer any information or document that the operator or driver knows to be false in a material particular, or recklessly provides or produces to an authorized officer any information or document that is false in a material particular, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine at level 6 and to imprisonment for 6 months.

19. Power of authorized officers to enter and detain vehicles

- (1) Without limiting section 18, if an authorized officer has reason to suspect that a request that has been made under section 17(1)(c) may not be complied with, the officer may take any steps that appear to the officer to be necessary to secure compliance with that request including, in particular, any of the following steps—
  - (a) enter or authorize the entry on any land or enter or authorize the entry into the vehicle concerned;
  - (b) detain or authorize the detention of that vehicle or any article carried on it;
  - (c) use or authorize the use of reasonable force.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), subsection (1) does not authorize the detention of a vehicle for more than 12 hours.
- (3) The Commissioner may, by order in writing, authorize the detention of a vehicle for further periods of not more than 12 hours each, and the order must state the time from which, and period for which, the order is effective.

Division 4—Proof of Identity

20. Production of proof of identity

Before or on exercising a power conferred by section 11, 13, 14, 16, 17 or 19, an authorized officer must, if requested by any person so to do, produce proof of the officer's identity to the person for inspection.

Part 6

Evidence

21. Power of magistrate or judge to grant warrant

- (1) A magistrate or judge may grant a warrant if satisfied by information on oath given by an authorized officer that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that—
  - (a) an offence under this Regulation has been committed or is being committed; and
  - (b) there is on any premises specified in the information, or on any ship, aircraft or vehicle so specified, evidence in relation to the commission of the offence.
- (2) A warrant granted under subsection (1) may authorize any authorized officer, together with any other person named in the warrant, to enter the premises, ship, aircraft or vehicle specified in the information or any premises on which the ship, aircraft or vehicle so specified may be, at any time within one month from the date of the warrant, and to search the premises, ship, aircraft or vehicle.
- (3) A person authorized by a warrant to search any premises, ship, aircraft or vehicle may exercise any or all of the following powers—
  - (a) search any person who is found on, or whom the authorized person has reasonable grounds to believe to have recently left or to be about to enter, the premises, ship, aircraft or vehicle;
  - (b) seize and detain any document, cargo or article found on the premises, ship, aircraft or vehicle or on any person referred to in paragraph (a) that the authorized person has reasonable grounds to believe to be evidence in relation to the commission of an offence under this Regulation;

- (c) take in relation to any document, cargo or article seized under paragraph (b) any other steps that may appear necessary for preserving the document, cargo or article and preventing interference with it.
- (4) A person may only be searched under this section by a person who is of the same sex.
- (5) If a person is empowered under this section to enter any premises, ship, aircraft or vehicle, the person may use any force that is reasonably necessary for that purpose.

22. Seized articles, etc. liable to forfeiture

- (1) If an authorized officer intends to apply to a magistrate or judge under section 23 for an order for forfeiture of any document, cargo or article seized under section 21(3), the officer must, within 30 days from the date of the seizure, serve notice of that intention on every person who was, to the knowledge of the officer at the time of, or immediately after, the seizure, an owner of the document, cargo or article.
- (2) A notice under subsection (1) is to be regarded as having been duly served on a person if—
  - (a) it is delivered personally to the person;
  - (b) it is sent by registered post addressed to the person at any place of residence or business of the person known to the authorized officer; or
  - (c) where the notice cannot be served in accordance with paragraph (a) or (b), the notice is exhibited at the offices of the Customs and Excise Department, in a place to which the public have access, for a period of not less than 7 days commencing within 30 days from the date of the seizure of the document, cargo or article.

- (3) An owner, or the authorized agent of an owner, of the document, cargo or article referred to in a notice served under subsection (1), or a person who was in possession of the document, cargo or article at the time of seizure, or a person who has a legal or equitable interest in the document, cargo or article, may object to the proposed forfeiture by serving a notice in writing on the Commissioner.
- (4) A notice of objection under subsection (3)—
  - (a) must be served on the Commissioner by a person referred to in subsection (3) (claimant) within 30 days from—
    - (i) if the notice under subsection (1) is delivered personally to the person named in the notice, the date of delivery;
    - (ii) if the notice under subsection (1) is sent by registered post, 2 days after the date of posting; or
    - (iii) if the notice under subsection (1) is exhibited as described in subsection (2)(c), the first day it is so exhibited;
  - (b) must state the claimant's full name and address for service in Hong Kong; and
  - (c) if the claimant does not have a permanent address in Hong Kong, must state the name and address of a solicitor who is qualified to practise under the Legal Practitioners Ordinance (Cap. 159) and is authorized to accept service on behalf of the claimant in relation to any forfeiture proceedings.
- (5) An authorized officer may apply to a magistrate or judge for an order for forfeiture of any seized document, cargo or article in respect of which a notice has been served under subsection (1)—

- (a) after the expiration of the appropriate period of time specified in subsection (4)(a) for the serving of a notice of objection; or
- (b) if a notice of objection is served in accordance with subsections (3) and (4), after the receipt of the notice.

23. Power of magistrate or judge to make order for forfeiture and disposal

- (1) If an application is made to a magistrate or judge for an order for forfeiture of any seized document, cargo or article, the magistrate or judge may, if satisfied that the seized document is a document relating to the provision, maintenance or use of any prohibited goods, or that the seized cargo or article is prohibited goods, make such order as the magistrate or judge thinks fit for the forfeiture of the document, cargo or article and its subsequent destruction or disposal.
- (2) An order under subsection (1) may be made in respect of any seized document, cargo or article whether or not any person has been convicted of any offence in connection with the document, cargo or article.
- (3) Before making an order for forfeiture of any seized document, cargo or article, a magistrate or judge must issue a summons to any person who serves a notice of objection in accordance with section 22(3) and (4) to appear on a day specified in the summons to show cause why the document, cargo or article should not be forfeited.
- (4) If any summons issued under subsection (3) has not for any reason been served and the magistrate or judge is satisfied that all reasonable efforts have been made to serve the summons on the person named in the summons, the magistrate or judge may make an order for forfeiture under this section despite the fact that the summons has not been served on that person.

24. Detention of documents, cargoes or articles seized

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), any document, cargo or article seized under section 21(3) may not be detained for more than 3 months.
  - (2) If the document, cargo or article is relevant to an offence under this Regulation, and proceedings for the offence have begun, the document, cargo or article may be detained until the completion of those proceedings.

Part 7

Disclosure of Information or Documents

25. Disclosure of information or documents

- (1) Any information or document provided, produced or seized under this Regulation may be disclosed only if—
  - (a) the person who provided or produced the information or document or from whom the document was seized has given consent to the disclosure;
  - (b) the information or document is disclosed to a person who would have been empowered under this Regulation to request that it be provided or produced;
  - (c) the information or document is disclosed on the authority of the Chief Executive, subject to the information or document being transmitted through and with the approval of the instructing authority, to—
    - (i) any organ of the United Nations;
    - (ii) any person in the service of the United Nations; or
    - (iii) the Government of any place outside the People's Republic of China, for the purpose of assisting the United Nations or that Government in securing compliance with, or detecting evasion of, measures in relation to Yemen decided on by the Security Council; or
  - (d) the information or document is disclosed with a view to the institution of, or otherwise for the purposes of, any proceedings for an offence under this Regulation.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a)—

- (a) a person may not give consent to the disclosure if the person has obtained the information or possessed the document only in the person's capacity as servant or agent of another person; and
  - (b) a person may give consent to the disclosure if the person is entitled to the information or to the possession of the document in the person's own right.

Part 8

Other Offences and Miscellaneous Matters

26. Liability of persons other than principal offenders

- (1) If the person convicted of an offence under this Regulation is a body corporate and it is proved that the offence was committed with the consent or connivance of, or was attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, the director, manager, secretary or other similar officer is guilty of the like offence.
- (2) If the person convicted of an offence under this Regulation is a firm and it is proved that the offence was committed with the consent or connivance of, or was attributable to any neglect on the part of, any partner in the firm or any person concerned in the management of the firm, the partner or the person concerned in the management of the firm is guilty of the like offence.

27. Offences in relation to obstruction of authorized persons, etc.

A person who obstructs another person (including a person acting under the authority of an authorized officer) in the exercise of the powers of that other person under this Regulation commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine at level 6 and to imprisonment for 6 months.

28. Offences in relation to evasion of this Regulation

A person who destroys, mutilates, defaces, secretes or removes any document, cargo or article with intent to evade any of the provisions of this Regulation commits an offence and is liable—

- (a) on conviction on indictment to a fine and to imprisonment for 2 years; or
- (b) on summary conviction to a fine at level 6 and to imprisonment for 6 months.

29. Consent and time limit for proceedings

- (1) Proceedings for an offence under this Regulation may only be instituted by or with the consent of the Secretary for Justice.
- (2) Summary proceedings for an offence under this Regulation that is alleged to have been committed outside the HKSAR may be commenced at any time not later than 12 months from the date on which the person charged first enters the HKSAR after the alleged commission of the offence.

United Nations Sanctions (Yemen) Regulation 2015
(Amendment) Regulation 2016

Information on Yemen

Country Background

Yemen is an Arab country in Western Asia. It is bordered by Saudi Arabia to the north, the Red Sea to the west, the Gulf of Aden and Arabian Sea to the south, and Oman to the east. With its capital in Sana'a, Yemen has a total area of 527,968 sq. km. <sup>Note 1</sup> and an estimated population of around 24.969 million in 2013. It had a GDP of US$34.71 billion (or HK$269.24 billion) in 2013. Merchandise imports and exports of Yemen in 2014 amounted to US$12.9 billion (or HK$100 billion) and US$8 billion (or HK$62 billion) respectively. <sup>Note 2</sup>

United Nations Sanctions against Yemen

2. The United Nations (UN) has been facilitating Yemen's political transition since 2011, when the country was on the brink of civil war, and fighting killed and wounded hundreds. In April 2011, President Ali Abdullah Saleh refused to sign a Gulf Cooperation Council initiative, leading to continued political deadlock. In November 2011, face-to-face negotiations between the ruling party and the opposition, facilitated by the UN's Special Advisor on Yemen, led to the signing of a Transition Agreement in Riyadh on 23 November 2011. A milestone was marked on 21 February 2012, when presidential elections transferred power to the then Vice-President Abed Rabbu Mansour Hadi in a largely peaceful environment. A National Unity Government was formed under the leadership of Prime Minister Mohamed Basendwa. 18 March 2013 saw the successful launching of Yemen's National Dialogue Conference, representing all Yemeni constituencies.

3. Challenges persist, however, in spite of the relative stability in Yemen. They range from longstanding conflicts in the North and South to Al-Qaida-linked terrorism and armed groups, and from targeted killings of military and government officials to the legacy of past human rights violations. The humanitarian situation thus remains extremely grave. <sup>Note 3</sup>

4. Unanimously adopting resolution 2140 on 26 February 2014, the Security Council of the United Nations (UNSC) encouraged all Yemeni constituencies to continue their active and constructive engagement in the country's political transition. The UNSC also condemned the growing number of attacks carried out or sponsored by Al-Qaida in the Arabian peninsula, and expressed concern over reported serious human rights abuses and violence against civilians. Determining that the situation in Yemen constitutes a threat to international peace and security in the region, the UNSC decided to impose a year-long travel ban and financial sanctions against Yemen.<sup>Note 4</sup> On 14 April 2015, the UNSC adopted UNSCR 2216 to impose a targeted arms embargo against some designated individuals or entities. On 26 February 2016, the UNSC further adopted resolution 2266 to renew until 26 February 2017 the travel ban and financial sanction measures imposed by resolution 2140.

Trade Relation between Hong Kong and Yemen

5. In 2015, Yemen ranked 144th among Hong Kong's trading partners in the world, with a total trade of HK$110 million. Of these, HK$11 million worth of trade were exports to Yemen, and HK$99 million imports. Hong Kong's trade with Yemen are summarised as follows –

Hong Kong's Trade with Yemen [Value in HK$ (in million)]
Item	2014	2015
(a) Total Exports to Yemen	55	10.9
(i) Domestic exports	2 <sup>Note 5</sup>	– <sup>Note 6</sup>
(ii) Re-exports	53 <sup>Note 7</sup>	10.9 <sup>Note 8</sup>
(b) Imports from Yemen	116 <sup>Note 9</sup>	98.9 <sup>Note 10</sup>
Total Trade [(a) + (b)]	171	109.8

Note 5 In 2014, domestic exports to Yemen included plastics in non-primary forms (82.7%); and general industrial machinery and equipment, and machine parts (17.3%).

Note 6 In 2015, there was no domestic export to Yemen.

Note 7 In 2014, re-exports to Yemen included telecommunications and sound recording and reproducing apparatus and equipment (54.1%); office machines and automatic data processing machines (14.1%); and electrical machinery, apparatus and appliances, and electrical parts thereof (6.0%).

Note 8 In 2015, re-exports to Yemen included electrical machinery, apparatus and appliances, and electrical parts thereof (27.7%); telecommunications and sound recording and reproducing apparatus and equipment (25.4%); and office machines and automatic data processing machines (14.1%). The decrease in re-exports to Yemen in 2015 was mainly due to the decrease in re-exports of "telecommunications and sound recording and reproducing apparatus and equipment" by 90% in 2015. This product item accounted for 54% of re-exports to Yemen in 2014.

Note 9 In 2014, imports from Yemen included fish, crustaceans, molluscs and aquatic invertebrates, and preparations thereof (81.9%); road vehicles (including air-cushion vehicles) (9.7%); and hides, skins and furskins, raw (3.5%).

Note 10 In 2015, imports from Yemen included fish, crustaceans, molluscs and aquatic invertebrates, and preparations thereof (80.2%); telecommunications and sound recording and reproducing apparatus and equipment (17.5%); and hides, skins and furskins, raw (1.4%).

In 2015, HK$11.5 million worth of goods, or 0.1%<sup>Note 11</sup> of the total trade between Yemen and the Mainland, were routed through Hong Kong. Of these, HK$1 million worth of goods were re-exports from Yemen to the Mainland. The remaining HK$11 million were re-exports of Mainland origin to Yemen via Hong Kong.

6. The sanctions against Yemen imposed by UNSC, including travel ban and financial sanctions, would unlikely affect the trade between Hong Kong and Yemen notably. In addition, given the rather small trade volume between the two places, the United Nations sanctions against Yemen would unlikely have any significant effect on the Hong Kong economy.
