Dear Ms Ji,

United Nations Sanctions (Libya) Regulation 2011
(Amendment) Regulation 2014 (L.N. 143)

I refer to the captioned Regulation, which was published in the Gazette on 28 November 2014.

The captioned Regulation seeks to implement United Nations Security Council Resolution 2146 by, among other things, introducing the newly added section 3B to the United Nations Sanctions (Libya) Regulation 2011 (Cap. 537AW). Section 3B(1) refers to "focal point appointed under paragraph 3 of Resolution 2146". I note that "focal point" is adopted from the Resolution itself but it is not defined in Cap. 537AW. While I appreciate that its Chinese rendition (協調人) is relatively clear, its English meaning is vague. Please consider whether such expressions adopted from the relevant Resolution should be defined within the relevant Regulation in the future.

Yours sincerely,

(Kelvin Ka-yun LEE)
