HON. TREASURER

Dr. Dexter Y. L. LEUNG
梁裕龍醫生

Thank you for your invitation dated 7th November 2012. On behalf of The Hong Kong Ophthalmological Society (HKOS), I am pleased to attend the special panel meeting on 'Regulation of medical beauty treatment/procedures'.

COUNCIL MEMBERS

Dr. Nafees B. BAIG
碧納菲醫生

HKOS believes that there is a need to have a more comprehensive regulatory framework to regulate medical beauty treatment/ procedures.

Dr. Andy C. O. CHENG
鄭智安醫生

HKOS agrees that the 'List A aesthetic practices' in document IN02/12-13 <http://www.legco.gov.hk/yr12-13/english/sec/library/1213in02-e.pdf> should only be performed by registered medical practitioners. The procedures in 'List A aesthetic practices' should be considered as medical procedures.

Dr. Aaron T. K. CHU
朱東麒醫生

Dr. Jeffrey C. F. PONG
龐朝輝醫生

All the medical procedures including beauty treatment/ procedures involving the use of class 3b and/or class 4 lasers should only be performed by registered medical practitioners

Dr. Ian Y. H. WONG
王逸軒醫生

The regulatory and disciplinary powers for the medical professions should be done by The Medical Council of Hong Kong. Therefore, medical beauty treatment/ procedures should be under the governance of The Medical Council of Hong Kong.

Dr. Terri P. P. YIP
葉佩珮醫生

Dr. Derek K. H. YU
於劍鏗醫生

Training of ophthalmologists involved management of ocular and peri-ocular conditions. Ophthalmologists have been performing some of the non invasive, minimally invasive and invasive procedures in the 'List A aesthetic practices' in document IN02/12-13

EX-OFFICIO MEMBER

Dr. Alvin K. H. KWOK
郭坤豪醫生
