Pearl River Delta region.

According to ICAC, it had agreed with GDPP and CCAC in July 2010 to set up a standing working group to jointly map out long-term strategies and objectives to strengthen tripartite cooperation on corruption prevention and education. The working group has agreed that a conference for small and medium size enterprises ("SMEs") in the Pearl River Delta region be held in Hong Kong in September 2011 and a practical guide be published in 2012.

ICAC advised that the conference with the theme of "Integrity and Professionalism - Key to Business Success" was held on 22 September 2011 in Hong Kong. It was attended by some 200 participants from major chambers of commerce, trade associations, as well as entrepreneurs from Hong Kong, Macao and Guangdong. Speakers included government officials, professionals and entrepreneurs from the three places, sharing with participants anti-corruption strategies, corruption prevention measures and business ethics related to SME operation. The conference helped gauge the needs of cross-boundary SME entrepreneurs and shed light on the framework and contents of the corruption prevention guide. Production of the guide, a joint publication of ICAC, GDPP and CCAC, had been completed. The guide, covering respective anti-corruption legislation of Hong Kong, the Mainland and Macao as well as corruption prevention measures for cross-boundary SMEs entrepreneurs, was launched and promoted to businessmen in Hong Kong through related chambers of commerce and trade associations in early October 2012.
