discussion

20. Review of the Well-off Tenants Policies

To be confirmed

Arising from the discussion at the Panel meeting on 1 November 2010 on "Stepped-up checking of household income and assets of public rental housing tenants", members considered that the Administration should review the policy on Safeguarding Rational Allocation of Public Housing Resources lest this might force grown-up children to move out from their parents' public rental housing units.

At the Panel meeting on 10 October 2013, members expressed the view that the income and asset limits under the Well-off Tenants Policies should be reviewed to ensure that they were in step with current situation in the market and society, and to safeguard the rational allocation of public housing resources.

21. Policy on the redevelopment of old public rental housing estates

To be confirmed

At the work plan meeting on 25 October 2012, members requested the Administration to consider formulating a policy on redeveloping old public rental housing estates.

22. Role and positioning of the Hong Kong Housing Society in the Government's housing policy

To be confirmed

Further to the discussion at the Panel meeting on 4 March 2013 and the subsequent correspondence exchange between the Chairman and the Administration on issues relating to the Shau Kei Wan Mixed Scheme Project developed by the Hong Kong Housing Society ("HKHS"), the Administration was requested to review the role and positioning of HKHS in the Government's housing policy (the letter from the Chairman dated 7 March 2013 and the reply from the Administration dated 5 April 2013 were circulated under LC Paper Nos. CB(1)680/12-13(01) and CB(1)818/12-13(01) respectively).

23. Provision of transitional housing

To be confirmed

Raised by members at the Panel meeting on 10 October 2013. Members would like to discuss the suggestion that the Administration should consider constructing transitional housing in the urban area for public housing applicants and those in need.

24. Progress report on the phasing out programme of Housing for Senior Citizens and public housing for the elderly

At the work plan meeting held on 28 October 2013, the Administration was requested to provide a paper on the latest development of this item.

The vacancy rate of Housing for Senior Citizens Type 1 ("HS1") design has been high since late 1990s in view of the increasing applicants' preference for self-contained public housing units. A phasing-out programme to convert some vacant HS1 units into normal public housing flats has been implemented since 2006, and subsequently been extended to all HS1 units in March 2011. The Administration has reported the progress of the programme to the Hong Kong Housing Authority in March 2012 and a review was conducted in February 2013.

A related submission on public housing for the elderly from the Society for Community Organization and a referral from Duty Roster Members were circulated vide LC Paper Nos. CB(1)1867/08-09(03) and CB(1)709/09-10(01) respectively.

- * As agreed at the work plan meeting held on 28 October 2013, the Panel would consider how to follow up these items after the public consultation exercise and review on the Long Term Housing Strategy have completed.
