
立法會秘書處

Legislative Council Secretariat

新聞稿 Press Release

LegCo Panel on Transport continues its duty visit to Singapore
(with photos)

The Legislative Council ("LegCo") Panel on Transport continued its duty visit to Singapore today (24 September) to study the country's experience in development and provision of public transport facilities and traffic management measures.

The delegation visited Marina Bay Cruise Centre and its connecting transport facilities in the morning. Delegation members then met with the representatives of the Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office in Singapore and received a briefing on the latest developments of Singapore and other member countries of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations.

The delegation met with the Minister for Transport, Mr LUI Tuck-yew, in the afternoon. Views were exchanged on the experience in the planning of public transport system and implementation of traffic management measures.

Members of the delegation will meet with the Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Government Parliamentary Committee for Transport and visit the SBS Transit, a leading bus and rail operator in Singapore tomorrow (25 September).

Ends/Wednesday, 24 September 2014

NNNN

The delegation takes a group photo after visiting the Marina Bay Cruise Centre and its connecting transport facilities.

Members of the delegation receive a briefing from Mr FONG Ngai (left), Director of the Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office in Singapore on the latest developments of Singapore and other member countries of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations.

The delegation exchanges views with Mr LUI Tuck-yew (centre left), Minister for Transport, on the planning of public transport system and implementation of traffic management measures.

Hon CHAN Kam-lam (centre), delegation leader, presents a souvenir to Mr LUI Tuck-yew, Minister for Transport.