Motion debate on “Seeking the invalidation of the decision of the Standing Committee of the National People’s Congress and reactivating the constitutional reform process” to be held at the Council meeting of 4 February 2015

1. Hon Cyd HO’s original motion

That, as some members of the public are of the view that the decision made by the Standing Committee of the National People’s Congress (‘NPCSC’) on 31 August last year on Hong Kong’s constitutional development (‘the 31 August Decision’) throttles the room for implementing genuine universal suffrage and allows the nominating committee to screen persons seeking nomination as Chief Executive candidates in accordance with the will of Beijing, thereby rendering the election unable to precisely reflect people’s genuine preference and reducing all voters in Hong Kong to voting tools, this Council will definitely veto the constitutional reform package constrained by the 31 August Decision of NPCSC; in this connection, this Council urges the Chief Executive to request the Central Government to seek the invalidation of the aforesaid decision of NPCSC by the National People’s Congress, and to reactivate the statutory process for constitutional reform, with a view to expeditiously implementing the selection of the Chief Executive and the election of all Legislative Council Members by universal suffrage.

2. Motion as amended by Hon Alan LEONG

That, as some members of the public are of the view that the decision made by the Standing Committee of the National People’s Congress (‘NPCSC’) on 31 August last year on Hong Kong’s constitutional development (‘the 31 August Decision’) throttles the room for implementing genuine universal suffrage and allows the nominating committee to screen persons seeking nomination as Chief Executive candidates in accordance with the will of Beijing, thereby rendering the election unable to precisely reflect people’s genuine preference and reducing all voters in Hong Kong to voting tools; Hong Kong people have, through the Umbrella Movement, clearly expressed their objection to the constitutional reform package formulated within the framework of the 31 August Decision, but the Chief Executive LEUNG Chun-ying has turned a deaf ear to the people’s objection and shifted his fault and responsibility for failing to strive for genuine universal suffrage for Hong Kong people onto the pan-democratic camp; this Council will definitely veto the constitutional reform package constrained by the 31 August Decision of NPCSC; ~~in this connection, this Council,~~ and urges the Chief Executive not to re-attempt to pass off 'fake universal suffrage' as the genuine; to request the Central Government to seek the invalidation of the aforesaid decision of NPCSC by the National People's Congress, ~~and~~; to reactivate the statutory process for constitutional reform; and to pursue with the Central Government for the fair right to vote and the fair right to stand for election by universal suffrage, with a view to expeditiously implementing the selection of the Chief Executive and the election of all Legislative Council Members by universal suffrage in Hong Kong.

Note: Hon Alan LEONG's amendment is marked in bold and italic type or with deletion line.
