Division 1—Preliminary

112A. Interpretation of Part IVA

In this Part—

OFC rules (《開放式基金型公司規則》) means rules made under section 112ZK, 112ZL or 112ZM;

open-ended fund company (開放式基金型公司) means a collective investment scheme constituted as a corporation that holds a certificate of incorporation issued by the Registrar of Companies under section 112C;

proposed company (擬成立公司) means a company intended to be incorporated under this Part;

scheme property (計劃財產), in relation to an open-ended fund company, means the property under the collective investment scheme that is constituted as the company;

sub-custodian (次保管人), in relation to an open-ended fund company, means a person to whom any scheme property of the company is entrusted for safe keeping, other than the custodian of the company;

sub-fund (子基金)—see section 112R.

112B. Prohibition against carrying on business as open-ended fund company without registration etc.

- (1) A person, not being an open-ended fund company that is registered under section 112D, must not—

- (a) carry on business as an open-ended fund company; or
 - (b) hold out as an open-ended fund company.
- (2) A person must not manage any property on behalf of another person who, not being an open-ended fund company that is registered under section 112D—
- (a) carries on business as an open-ended fund company; or
 - (b) holds out as an open-ended fund company.
- (3) A person must not hold out as acting on behalf of another person who, not being an open-ended fund company that is registered under section 112D—
- (a) carries on business as an open-ended fund company; or
 - (b) holds out as an open-ended fund company.
- (4) A person who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable—
- (a) on conviction on indictment to a fine of $5,000,000 and to imprisonment for 7 years and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine of $100,000 for each day during which the offence continues; or
 - (b) on summary conviction to a fine of $500,000 and to imprisonment for 2 years and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine of $10,000 for each day during which the offence continues.

- (5) A person who, without reasonable excuse, contravenes subsection (2) or (3) commits an offence and is liable—
- (a) on conviction on indictment to a fine of $1,000,000 and to imprisonment for 2 years and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine of $20,000 for each day during which the offence continues; or
 - (b) on summary conviction to a fine at level 6 and to imprisonment for 6 months and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine of $2,000 for each day during which the offence continues.

Division 2—Incorporation, Registration, Name and Registered Office

112C. Incorporation of open-ended fund company

- (1) Any person may incorporate a company under this Part by delivering to the Registrar of Companies for registration—
- (a) an incorporation form prescribed by the OFC rules; and
 - (b) a copy of the instrument of incorporation of the proposed company that has been signed in accordance with the OFC rules.
- (2) The documents specified in subsection (1)—
- (a) must be delivered in the manner prescribed by the OFC rules; and
 - (b) must be accompanied by any document or information prescribed by the OFC rules.

- (3) Subject to subsection (4), if the Registrar of Companies is satisfied that the requirements for incorporation prescribed by the OFC rules are met with respect to the proposed company, the Registrar—
 - (a) must register the documents delivered under subsection (1); and
 - (b) must issue a certificate of incorporation in respect of the proposed company certifying that it is a company incorporated under this Part.
- (4) The Registrar of Companies must not register the relevant documents or issue a certificate of incorporation under subsection (3) unless the Registrar has been notified of the registration of the proposed company under section 112D(7).

112D. Application for registration with Commission before incorporation

- (1) On an application by a person, the Commission may register a proposed company for the purposes of this Part.
- (2) An application for the purposes of subsection (1)—
 - (a) must be made in the manner specified by the Commission; and
 - (b) must be accompanied by any document or information that the Commission requires.
- (3) The registration of a proposed company takes effect on the day on which a certificate of incorporation is issued by the Registrar of Companies under section 112C(3)(b) in respect of it.

- (4) The Commission must refuse to register a proposed company unless it is satisfied that the requirements for registration specified in section 112E will, on the day on which the registration takes effect, be met with respect to the company.
- (5) Without limiting any other ground on which the Commission may refuse to register a proposed company, the Commission may refuse to do so if it is not satisfied that the registration is in the interest of the investing public.
- (6) On registering a proposed company, the Commission may impose any condition that it considers appropriate.
- (7) The Commission must, as soon as reasonably practicable after registering a proposed company under subsection (1), notify the Registrar of Companies in writing of the registration.
- (8) The Commission must, as soon as reasonably practicable after refusing to register a proposed company under subsection (1), notify the applicant in writing of the refusal and the reasons for it.

112E. Requirements for registration

The requirements for registration specified for the purposes of section 112D(4) are—

- (a) the requirements relating to the name of an open-ended fund company as set out in section 112H(2), (3), (4) and (5);
- (b) the requirement relating to the registered office of an open-ended fund company as set out in section 112I;

- (c) the requirements relating to directors of an open-ended fund company as set out in sections 112U(1), 112V(1), 112W(1) and 112X(1);
- (d) the requirements relating to an investment manager of an open-ended fund company as set out in section 112Z;
- (e) the requirement relating to a custodian of an open-ended fund company as set out in section 112ZA(1); and
- (f) any other requirements for registration prescribed by the OFC rules.

112F. Commission may amend conditions of registration

The Commission may, by notice in writing served on an open-ended fund company, amend or revoke any of the conditions imposed, or impose new conditions, in respect of its registration.

112G. Publication of particulars of open-ended fund company

- (1) The Commission may publish, in any manner it considers appropriate, particulars of an open-ended fund company.
- (2) Particulars published under subsection (1) are not subsidiary legislation.

112H. Name of open-ended fund company

- (1) The name of an open-ended fund company is—
 - (a) the name stated in its certificate of incorporation; or
 - (b) if a change of name has effect under the OFC rules, its new name.

- (2) The name of an open-ended fund company must not—
 - (a) in the opinion of the Commission, be misleading or otherwise undesirable; or
 - (b) be the same as the name of another existing open-ended fund company.
- (3) For an open-ended fund company that has an English name only, the name must end with “Open-ended Fund Company” or “OFC”.
- (4) For an open-ended fund company that has a Chinese name only, the name must end with “開放式基金型公司”.
- (5) For an open-ended fund company that has both an English name and a Chinese name—
 - (a) the English name must end with “Open-ended Fund Company” or “OFC”; and
 - (b) the Chinese name must end with “開放式基金型公司”.

112I. Registered office of open-ended fund company

An open-ended fund company must have a registered office in Hong Kong to which all communications and notices may be addressed.

Division 3—Capacity and Powers

112J. Capacity of open-ended fund company

An open-ended fund company has the capacity, rights, powers and privileges as are prescribed by the OFC rules.

112K. Instrument of incorporation of open-ended fund company

- (1) An open-ended fund company must have an instrument of incorporation prescribing regulations for the company.
- (2) The instrument of incorporation of an open-ended fund company must contain—
 - (a) the name of the company;
 - (b) a statement that the registered office of the company is situated in Hong Kong;
 - (c) the objects of the company;
 - (d) provision as to the kinds of property in which the company is to invest;
 - (e) a statement that the company is an open-ended fund company with variable share capital;
 - (f) a statement that the amount of the paid-up share capital of the company is at all times equal to the net asset value of the company;
 - (g) a statement that the company's shareholders are not liable for the debts of the company;
 - (h) a statement that the company's scheme property is entrusted to a custodian of the company for safe keeping in compliance with the law; and
 - (i) any other matters prescribed by the OFC rules.
- (3) For an open-ended fund company with sub-funds, its instrument of incorporation must also contain a statement that the assets of a sub-fund of the company belong exclusively to the sub-fund and are not to be used to discharge the liabilities of, or the claims against, any other person, including the company and any other sub-fund of the company.

112L. Effect of instrument of incorporation

- (1) Subject to this Ordinance, the instrument of incorporation of an open-ended fund company, once registered under this Ordinance—
 - (a) has effect as a contract under seal—
 - (i) between the company and each shareholder; and
 - (ii) between a shareholder and each other shareholder; and
 - (b) is to be regarded as containing covenants on the part of the company and of each shareholder to observe all the provisions of the instrument.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the instrument of incorporation of an open-ended fund company is enforceable—
 - (a) by the company against each shareholder;
 - (b) by a shareholder against the company; and
 - (c) by a shareholder against each other shareholder.
- (3) Money payable by a shareholder to an open-ended fund company under its instrument of incorporation—
 - (a) is a debt due from the shareholder to the company; and
 - (b) is of the nature of a specialty debt.

Division 4—Contracts112M. Contracts made by or on behalf of open-ended fund company

- (1) This section applies to—

- (a) a contract that would be required by law to be in writing and under seal if made between natural persons;
 - (b) a contract that would be required by law to be in writing, and to be signed by the parties to the contract, if made between natural persons; and
 - (c) a contract that, though made orally and not in writing, would by law be valid if made between natural persons.
 - (2) A contract specified in subsection (1)(a) may be made by an open-ended fund company—
 - (a) in writing under the company's common seal (if any); or
 - (b) in writing executed in accordance with the OFC rules and expressed (in whatever words) to be executed by the company.
 - (3) A contract specified in subsection (1)(b) may be made on behalf of an open-ended fund company in writing signed by any person acting with the company's authority (whether express or implied).
 - (4) A contract specified in subsection (1)(c) may be made on behalf of an open-ended fund company orally by any person acting with the company's authority (whether express or implied).
 - (5) A contract made by or on behalf of an open-ended fund company in accordance with this section—
 - (a) is effective in law; and
 - (b) binds the company and its successors and all other parties to the contract.

- (6) A contract made in accordance with this section may be varied or discharged in the same manner in which it is authorized by this section to be made.

112N. Contracts made before open-ended fund company's incorporation

- (1) This section applies if a contract purports to have been made in the name or on behalf of an open-ended fund company before the company was incorporated.
- (2) Subject to any express agreement to the contrary—
 - (a) the contract has effect as a contract made by the person purporting to act for the company or as an agent for the company; and
 - (b) the person is personally liable on the contract and is entitled to enforce the contract.
- (3) After incorporation, the company may ratify the contract to the same extent as if—
 - (a) the company had already been incorporated when the contract was made; and
 - (b) the contract had been made on the company's behalf by an agent acting without the company's authority.
- (4) Despite subsection (2)(b), if the contract is ratified by the company, then on and after the ratification, the liability of the person mentioned in that subsection is not greater than the liability that the person would have incurred if the person had made the contract after the company's incorporation as an agent acting without the company's authority.

112O. Contracts made after cancellation of registration

If—

- (a) an open-ended fund company makes a contract after its registration has been cancelled under section 112ZH or 112ZI; and
- (b) the company fails to comply with any obligation under the contract within 21 days of being called on to do so by the other party to the contract, the person who has authorized the contract is liable, and if the contract was authorized by 2 or more persons, they are jointly and severally liable, to indemnify that other party in respect of any loss or damage suffered by that other party by reason of the company's failure to comply with the obligation.

Division 5—Share Capital and Shareholders' Liability112P. Share capital of open-ended fund company

- (1) An open-ended fund company may issue shares.
- (2) Shares in an open-ended fund company have no nominal value.
- (3) The amount of the paid-up share capital of an open-ended fund company is at all times equal to the net asset value of the company.
- (4) In this section—

net asset value (淨資產值), in relation to an open-ended fund company, means the balance after deducting the total liabilities of the company from its total assets.

112Q. Shareholders' liability

The liability of the shareholders of an open-ended fund company is limited to any amount unpaid on the shares held by the shareholders.

Division 6—Sub-funds112R. Sub-funds of open-ended fund company

- (1) The instrument of incorporation of an open-ended fund company may provide for the division of its scheme property into separate parts.
- (2) Each separate part of the scheme property of an open-ended fund company is a sub-fund of the company.

112S. Segregated liability of sub-funds

- (1) The assets of a sub-fund of an open-ended fund company belong exclusively to the sub-fund and must not be used to discharge the liabilities of, or the claims against, any other person, including the company and any other sub-fund of the company.
- (2) Any liability incurred on behalf of, or attributable to, a sub-fund of an open-ended fund company may only be discharged out of the assets of the sub-fund.
- (3) A provision contained in the instrument of incorporation of an open-ended fund company, or in a contract or any other instrument made or executed by an open-ended fund company, is void to the extent that it is inconsistent with subsection (1) or (2).
- (4) An application of, or agreement to apply, assets of a sub-fund of an open-ended fund company in contravention of subsection (1) or (2) is void.

- (5) An open-ended fund company with sub-funds may allocate any assets or liabilities that—
- (a) it receives or incurs—
 - (i) on behalf of its sub-funds; or
 - (ii) in order to enable the operation of its sub-funds; and
 - (b) are not attributable to any particular sub-fund, between its sub-funds in a manner that it considers is fair to its shareholders.
- (6) A sub-fund of an open-ended fund company is not a legal person separate from the company but the assets of the sub-fund may be subject to orders of the court as if it were a separate legal person.
- (7) Without affecting subsections (1) and (2) and except as provided by the OFC rules, an open-ended fund company may sue and be sued in respect of any sub-fund of the company and may exercise the same rights of set-off in relation to the sub-fund as apply in respect of companies.

Division 7—Directors, Investment Manager, Custodian, Sub-custodian and Auditor

112T. Interpretation of Division 7 of Part IVA

In this Division—

misconduct (失當行為)—

- (a) in relation to a director of an open-ended fund company, means negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust on the part of the director occurring in the course of performing duties as a director in relation to the company;

- (b) in relation to an investment manager of an open-ended fund company, means negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust on the part of the investment manager occurring in the course of performing duties as an investment manager in relation to the company;
 - (c) in relation to a custodian of an open-ended fund company, means negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust on the part of the custodian occurring in the course of performing duties as a custodian in relation to the company;
 - (d) in relation to a sub-custodian of an open-ended fund company, means negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust on the part of the sub-custodian occurring in the course of performing duties as a sub-custodian in relation to the company; and
 - (e) in relation to an auditor of an open-ended fund company, means negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust on the part of the auditor occurring in the course of performing duties as an auditor in relation to the company;
- specified officer (指明人員), in relation to an open-ended fund company, means—
- (a) a director of the company;
 - (b) an investment manager of the company;
 - (c) a custodian of the company;
 - (d) a sub-custodian of the company; or
 - (e) an auditor of the company.

112U. Directors

- (1) An open-ended fund company must have at least 2 directors.
- (2) The first directors of an open-ended fund company are the persons named as directors in the incorporation form delivered to the Registrar of Companies under section 112C(1)(a).
- (3) A director of an open-ended fund company owes the open-ended fund company—
 - (a) the same fiduciary duties that are owed by a director of an ordinary company to the ordinary company; and
 - (b) the duty to exercise reasonable care, skill and diligence that is owed by a director of an ordinary company to the ordinary company under section 465 of the Companies Ordinance (Cap. 622).
- (4) In the case of a breach or threatened breach by a director of an open-ended fund company of any of the director's duties referred to in subsection (3), the director is liable to the same consequences as would apply if the director were a director of an ordinary company.
- (5) In this section—

ordinary company (普通公司) means a company formed and registered under the Companies Ordinance (Cap. 622).

112V. Restrictions on body corporate being director

- (1) A body corporate must not be appointed a director of an open-ended fund company.

- (2) An appointment made in contravention of subsection (1) is void.
- (3) However, this section does not affect any liability of a body corporate under this Ordinance for—
 - (a) purporting to act as a director of an open-ended fund company; or
 - (b) acting as a shadow director of an open-ended fund company.

112W. Minimum age for appointment as director

- (1) A person must not be appointed a director of an open-ended fund company unless at the time of appointment the person has attained the age of 18 years.
- (2) An appointment made in contravention of subsection (1) is void.
- (3) However, this section does not affect any liability of a person below the age of 18 years under this Ordinance for—
 - (a) purporting to act as a director of an open-ended fund company; or
 - (b) acting as a shadow director of an open-ended fund company.

112X. Provisions as to undischarged bankrupt acting as director

- (1) A person who is an undischarged bankrupt must not, except with the leave of the Court of First Instance by which the person was adjudged bankrupt—
 - (a) act as a director of an open-ended fund company; or

- (b) directly or indirectly, be concerned, or take part, in the management of an open-ended fund company.
- (2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable—
 - (a) on conviction on indictment to a fine of $700,000 and to imprisonment for 2 years; or
 - (b) on summary conviction to a fine of $150,000 and to imprisonment for 1 year.
- (3) The Court of First Instance must not give leave for the purposes of this section unless a notice of the intention to apply for it has been served on the Official Receiver.
- (4) If the Official Receiver is of opinion that it is contrary to the public interest that an application for leave should be granted, the Official Receiver must attend the hearing of, and oppose the granting of, the application.

112Y. Validity of acts of director

- (1) The acts of a person acting as a director of an open-ended fund company are valid even though it is afterwards discovered—
 - (a) that there was a defect in the appointment of the person as a director;
 - (b) that the person was not qualified to hold office as a director or was disqualified from holding office as a director;
 - (c) that the person had ceased to hold office as a director; or

- (d) that the person was not entitled to vote on the matter in question.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies even if the appointment of the person as a director is void under section 112V or 112W.

112Z. Investment manager

- (1) An open-ended fund company must have an investment manager who is responsible for managing the scheme property of the company.
- (2) An investment manager of an open-ended fund company must be an intermediary licensed or registered for Type 9 regulated activity.

112ZA. Custodian

- (1) An open-ended fund company must have a custodian.
- (2) All the scheme property of an open-ended fund company must be entrusted to a custodian of the company for safe keeping.
- (3) Despite subsection (2), any scheme property of a class or description specified by the Commission for the purposes of this subsection is not required to be entrusted to a custodian.
- (4) A custodian of an open-ended fund company must take reasonable care, skill and diligence to ensure the safe keeping of the scheme property of the company that is entrusted to the custodian under subsection (2).
- (5) This section does not prohibit either of the following persons from entrusting, by an agreement in writing, to another person for safe keeping any or all of the scheme property of an open-ended fund company that is entrusted to the first-mentioned person—

- (a) a custodian of the company;
- (b) a person to whom any scheme property of the company is entrusted for safe keeping under an agreement in writing, other than the custodian of the company.

112ZB. Auditor

An open-ended fund company must appoint an auditor for each financial year of the company.

112ZC. Provision protecting specified officer from liability void

- (1) This section applies to a provision contained in—
 - (a) the instrument of incorporation of an open-ended fund company; or
 - (b) a contract, or any other instrument, made or executed by an open-ended fund company.
- (2) If a provision purports to exempt a specified officer of the company from any liability that would otherwise attach to the officer in connection with the officer's misconduct, the provision is void.
- (3) If, by a provision, the company directly or indirectly provides an indemnity for a specified officer of the company against any liability attaching to the officer in connection with the officer's misconduct, the provision is void.

112ZD. Court of First Instance may grant specified officer relief in proceedings for misconduct

- (1) This section applies if, in any proceedings for any misconduct against a specified officer of an open-ended fund company, it appears to the Court of First Instance that the officer—

- (a) is or may be liable for the misconduct;
 - (b) has acted honestly and reasonably; and
 - (c) ought fairly to be excused for the misconduct, having regard to all the circumstances of the case (including those connected with the officer's appointment).
- (2) The Court of First Instance may relieve the specified officer, either wholly or partly, from the liability on any terms that the Court thinks fit.
- (3) If the case is tried by a judge with a jury, the judge may—
 - (a) withdraw the case in whole or in part from the jury; and
 - (b) direct judgment to be entered for the specified officer on any terms as to costs or otherwise that the judge thinks fit.
- (4) To avoid doubt, this section does not apply in relation to criminal proceedings.

112ZE. Court of First Instance may grant specified officer relief for misconduct on specified officer's application

- (1) A specified officer of an open-ended fund company may apply to the Court of First Instance for relief if the officer has reason to apprehend that a claim will or might be made against the officer for any misconduct.
- (2) On an application by a specified officer of an open-ended fund company, the Court of First Instance may relieve the officer, either wholly or partly, from the liability on any terms that the Court thinks fit if it appears to the Court that the officer—

- (a) is or may be liable for the misconduct;
- (b) has acted honestly and reasonably; and
- (c) ought fairly to be excused for the misconduct, having regard to all the circumstances of the case (including those connected with the officer's appointment).

Division 8—Supervision by Commission

112ZF. Commission's power to give directions

- (1) The Commission may, by notice in writing, give any of the directions specified in subsection (2) if it appears to the Commission that—
 - (a) with respect to an open-ended fund company, any of the requirements for registration specified in section 112E is no longer met;
 - (b) an open-ended fund company or a director, an investment manager, a custodian or a sub-custodian of an open-ended fund company has contravened—
 - (i) any of the relevant provisions;
 - (ii) any notice or requirement given or made by the Commission under or pursuant to this Ordinance; or
 - (iii) any of the conditions imposed in respect of the registration of the company;
 - (c) an open-ended fund company or a director, an investment manager, a custodian or a sub-custodian of an open-ended fund company has, in purported compliance with—
 - (i) any of the relevant provisions;

- (ii) any notice or requirement given or made by the Commission under or pursuant to this Ordinance; or
 - (iii) any of the conditions imposed in respect of the registration of the company, knowingly or recklessly provided to the Commission any information that is false or misleading in a material particular;
 - (d) an investment manager of an open-ended fund company has contravened any of the terms and conditions of its licence or registration under this Ordinance;
 - (e) an investment manager of an open-ended fund company has, in purported compliance with any of the terms and conditions of its licence or registration under this Ordinance, knowingly or recklessly provided to the Commission any information that is false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (f) it is desirable to do so in order to protect the interest of the investing public.
- (2) The directions are—
- (a) a direction to the company or its investment manager that the company is to cease to issue or redeem, or cease to issue and redeem, shares or any class of shares in the company; and
 - (b) a direction to a director of the company that the director is to cease to transfer shares or any class of shares in the company to or from, or to and from, the director's own holding of shares.

- (3) The Commission may, by notice in writing served on the person to whom a direction is given under this section, amend or revoke the direction.
- (4) A direction given under subsection (1), or an amendment or revocation of such a direction under subsection (3), takes effect—
 - (a) at the time of the service of the notice in respect of the direction, amendment or revocation; or
 - (b) if a later time is specified in the notice, at that time.
- (5) Subject to subsection (6), if the registration of an open-ended fund company is cancelled under section 112ZH or 112ZI while a direction given under this section in relation to the company is in force—
 - (a) the direction is not to be affected in any respect by the cancellation; and
 - (b) this section continues to apply to the company as if its registration had not been cancelled.
- (6) If an order for the winding up of an open-ended fund company is made by the court under section 212 or the OFC rules, a direction given under this section in relation to the company ceases to have effect on the making of the order.

112ZG. Application to Court of First Instance in respect of failure to comply with direction

- (1) If a person fails to comply with a direction given under section 112ZF, the Commission may apply to the Court of First Instance in respect of the failure and the Court may—

- (a) if satisfied that there is no reasonable excuse for the person not to comply with the direction, order the person to comply with the direction within the period specified by the Court; and
 - (b) if satisfied that the failure was without reasonable excuse, punish the person, and any other person knowingly involved in the failure, in the same manner as if the person and, if applicable, that other person had been guilty of contempt of court.
- (2) If there is a reasonable likelihood that a person will fail to comply with a direction given under section 112ZF, the Commission may apply to the Court of First Instance for an order that—
 - (a) the person; and
 - (b) any other person whom the Court is satisfied is able to procure the person to comply with the direction,take any action or refrain from taking any action that the Court directs.
- (3) An application under this section must be made by originating summons in Form No. 10 in Appendix A to the Rules of the High Court (Cap. 4 sub. leg. A).

112ZH. Commission's power to cancel registration on open-ended fund company's application

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Commission must cancel the registration under section 112D of an open-ended fund company on an application made by the company in accordance with the OFC rules.

- (2) The Commission may refuse to cancel the registration of an open-ended fund company if it considers that—
 - (a) it is in the public interest that any matter concerning the company should be investigated before its registration is so cancelled; or
 - (b) the cancellation would not be in the interest of the investing public.
 - (3) On cancelling the registration of an open-ended fund company, the Commission may impose any condition that it considers appropriate.
 - (4) The Commission may, by notice in writing served on an open-ended fund company the registration of which is cancelled, amend or revoke any of the conditions imposed, or impose new conditions, in respect of the cancellation.
 - (5) The Commission must not exercise a power under subsection (2), (3) or (4) in relation to an open-ended fund company without first giving the company a reasonable opportunity to be heard.
 - (6) If the Commission cancels the registration of an open-ended fund company, it must notify the company in writing of the cancellation.
 - (7) If the Commission exercises a power under subsection (2), (3) or (4) in relation to an open-ended fund company, it must notify the company in writing of the exercise and the reasons for it.
 - (8) If the Commission cancels the registration of an open-ended fund company, it—

- (a) must, as soon as reasonably practicable after cancelling the registration, notify the Registrar of Companies in writing of the cancellation; and
- (b) may publish notice of the cancellation and the reason for the cancellation in any manner that it considers appropriate.

112ZI. Commission's power to cancel registration otherwise than on open-ended fund company's application

- (1) The Commission may cancel the registration under section 112D of an open-ended fund company if—
 - (a) it appears to the Commission that, with respect to the company, any of the requirements for registration specified in section 112E is no longer met;
 - (b) it appears to the Commission that the company or a director, an investment manager, a custodian or a sub-custodian of the company has contravened—
 - (i) any of the relevant provisions;
 - (ii) any notice or requirement given or made by the Commission under or pursuant to this Ordinance; or
 - (iii) any of the conditions imposed in respect of the registration of the company;
 - (c) it appears to the Commission that the company or a director, an investment manager, a custodian or a sub-custodian of the company has, in purported compliance with—
 - (i) any of the relevant provisions;

- (ii) any notice or requirement given or made by the Commission under or pursuant to this Ordinance; or
 - (iii) any of the conditions imposed in respect of the registration of the company, knowingly or recklessly provided to the Commission any information that is false or misleading in a material particular;
 - (d) the Commission is not satisfied that the continued registration of the company is in the interest of the investing public; or
 - (e) an order for the winding up of the company has been made by the court under the OFC rules.
- (2) On cancelling the registration of an open-ended fund company, the Commission may impose any condition that it considers appropriate.
- (3) The Commission may, by notice in writing served on an open-ended fund company the registration of which is cancelled, amend or revoke any of the conditions imposed, or impose new conditions, in respect of the cancellation.
- (4) The Commission must not exercise a power under subsection (1), (2) or (3) in relation to an open-ended fund company without first giving the company a reasonable opportunity to be heard.
- (5) If the Commission exercises a power under subsection (1), (2) or (3) in relation to an open-ended fund company, it must notify the company in writing of the exercise and the reasons for it.
- (6) If the Commission cancels the registration of an open-ended fund company, it—

- (a) must, as soon as reasonably practicable after cancelling the registration, notify the Registrar of Companies in writing of the cancellation; and
- (b) may publish notice of the cancellation and the reasons for the cancellation in any manner that it considers appropriate.

112ZJ. Permission to carry on essential business operations on cancellation of registration

- (1) The Commission may, by notice in writing served on an open-ended fund company the registration of which has been cancelled under section 112ZH or 112ZI, permit the company to carry on essential business operations.
- (2) The registration of an open-ended fund company to which permission is given is, while it carries on essential business operations in accordance with the permission, deemed not to be cancelled for the purposes of this Ordinance.
- (3) On giving permission to an open-ended fund company, the Commission may impose any condition that it considers appropriate.
- (4) A condition imposed under subsection (3) must be specified in the notice in respect of the permission.
- (5) A permission given or a condition imposed in respect of it under subsection (3) takes effect—
 - (a) at the time of the service of the notice in respect of the permission; or
 - (b) if a later time is specified in the notice, at that time.

- (6) The Commission may, by notice in writing served on an open-ended fund company to which permission is given, amend or revoke any of the conditions imposed, or impose new conditions, in respect of the permission.
- (7) An amendment or revocation of a condition, or a new condition imposed, under subsection (6) takes effect—
 - (a) at the time of the service of the notice in respect of the amendment or revocation of the condition or the imposition of the new condition; or
 - (b) if a later time is specified in the notice, at that time.
- (8) In this section—

essential business operations (必要的業務運作), in relation to an open-ended fund company, means business operations that are essential for closing down its business.

Division 9—Rules made by Commission

112ZK. Commission's power to make rules

 - (j) the effect of a discrepancy between a document delivered to the Registrar that is in a language other than English and Chinese and the certified translation of the document;

- (k) inquiry by the Registrar into acts that would constitute offences relating to the giving of any misleading, false or deceptive information or statement to the Registrar and the delegation of the Registrar's powers to inquire into such acts;
 - (l) calculation of the daily fine imposed under rules made under this section or section 112ZK or 112ZM that make it an offence for failing to comply with a requirement to deliver a document or information to the Registrar under those rules and that impose a fine for each day during which the offence continues;
 - (m) the issue of guidelines by the Registrar and the effect of such guidelines; and
 - (n) the protection and immunity of the Registrar, other public officers and other persons.
- (3) Rules made under this section may provide that a person is not excused from complying with a requirement to produce a document or information imposed on the person under those rules only on the ground that to do so might tend to incriminate the person.
- (4) In this section—
- OFC register (《開放式基金型公司登記冊》) means the register of open-ended fund companies maintained by the Registrar of Companies under rules made under this section.

112ZM. Rules made with consent of Official Receiver

The Commission may, with the consent of the Official Receiver, make rules to provide for the functions of the Official Receiver in relation to—

- (a) the winding up and dissolution of open-ended fund companies; and
- (b) the winding up and dissolution of sub-funds of open-ended fund companies.

112ZN. OFC rules may prescribe offences

- (1) The OFC rules may—
 - (a) make it an offence for a person to do, or omit to do, any specified act; and
 - (b) provide that the offence is punishable by a fine, imprisonment or both.
- (2) The OFC rules may provide for defences to any offence prescribed by those rules.
- (3) For an offence punishable on conviction on indictment, the maximum fine that may be prescribed is $1,000,000 and the maximum imprisonment that may be prescribed is 7 years. In addition, in the case of a continuing offence, a further fine not exceeding level 6 for each day during which the offence continues may be prescribed.
- (4) For an offence punishable on summary conviction, the maximum fine that may be prescribed is $500,000 and the maximum imprisonment that may be prescribed is 2 years. In addition, in the case of a continuing offence, a further fine not exceeding level 3 for each day during which the offence continues may be prescribed.

112ZO. Modification or waiver of requirements of OFC rules by notice

- (1) The Commission may, on an application by a person specified in subsection (2), grant a modification or waiver in relation to the person in respect of any of the requirements of the OFC rules.
- (2) The person is—
 - (a) an open-ended fund company;
 - (b) a director of an open-ended fund company;
 - (c) an investment manager of an open-ended fund company;
 - (d) a custodian of an open-ended fund company;
 - (e) a sub-custodian of an open-ended fund company; or
 - (f) an auditor of an open-ended fund company.
- (3) An application for the purposes of subsection (1)—
 - (a) must be made in the manner prescribed by the OFC rules; and
 - (b) must be accompanied by the fee prescribed by regulations made under section 112ZQ for the purposes of this section.
- (4) The Commission may only grant a modification or waiver if it is satisfied that the modification or waiver will not prejudice the interest of the investing public.
- (5) The grant of a modification or waiver in relation to a person is to be effected by a notice in writing served on the person specifying the period (if any) for which the modification or waiver is in force.

- (6) On granting a modification or waiver, the Commission may impose any condition that it considers appropriate.
- (7) The Commission may, by notice in writing served on a person in relation to whom a modification or waiver is granted, amend or revoke the modification or waiver.
- (8) The Commission may, by notice in writing served on a person in relation to whom a modification or waiver is granted, amend or revoke any of the conditions imposed, or impose new conditions, in respect of the modification or waiver.
- (9) A person who contravenes a condition imposed under subsection (6) or (8), or as amended under subsection (8), commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine at level 6.

112ZP. Modification or waiver of requirements of OFC rules by rules

- (1) The Commission may by rules grant a modification or waiver, in relation to a class of open-ended fund companies, or a class of directors, investment managers, custodians, sub-custodians or auditors of open-ended fund companies, in respect of any of the requirements of the OFC rules.
- (2) The Commission may only grant a modification or waiver if it is satisfied that the modification or waiver will not prejudice the interest of the investing public.
- (3) The Commission may specify in the rules the conditions subject to which a modification or waiver is granted.
- (4) The rules may—

- (a) make it an offence for a person to contravene any of the conditions specified in respect of a modification or waiver; and
- (b) provide that the offence is punishable by a fine not exceeding level 6.

Division 10—Miscellaneous

112ZQ. Financial Secretary may make regulations relating to fees

- (1) Despite section 395, the Financial Secretary may make regulations to provide for—
 - (a) the charging or collecting of fees by the Commission—
 - (i) in respect of any things done, or services provided, by the Commission in performing the Commission's functions under this Part or the OFC rules; or
 - (ii) in respect of any things done, or services provided, by the Commission in connection with any other matters specified in the OFC rules;
 - (b) the charging or collecting of fees by the Registrar of Companies—
 - (i) in respect of any things done, or services provided, by the Registrar in performing the Registrar's functions under this Part or the OFC rules; or
 - (ii) in respect of any things done, or services provided, by the Registrar in connection with any other matters specified in the OFC rules; and

- (c) the charging or collecting of fees by the Official Receiver—
 - (i) in respect of any things done, or services provided, by the Official Receiver in performing the Official Receiver's functions under this Part or the OFC rules; or
 - (ii) in respect of any things done, or services provided, by the Official Receiver in connection with any other matters specified in the OFC rules.
 - (2) The regulations may—
 - (a) provide for the amount of the fees to be fixed by or determined under the regulations;
 - (b) provide for different fees to be payable in respect of the same matter in different circumstances;
 - (c) specify when and how fees are to be paid; and
 - (d) provide for the waiver of payment of any fee prescribed by the regulations, either generally or in a particular case.
 - (3) The Registrar of Companies—
 - (a) may, subject to the approval of the Financial Secretary, determine what fees are chargeable in respect of the things done, or services provided—
 - (i) for which fees are not provided for by the regulations; or
 - (ii) in circumstances other than those for which fees are provided by the regulations; and
 - (b) may charge such fees.

112ZR. Commission may publish codes and guidelines

- (1) The Commission may publish, in the Gazette and in any other manner it considers appropriate, any code or guideline to provide guidance in respect of any matter relating to—
 - (a) the incorporation, registration, management and operation of open-ended fund companies, including their administration and procedure; or
 - (b) the business of open-ended fund companies.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), a code or guideline published under that subsection may refer to obligations to observe any other codes or guidelines issued, or requirements imposed, otherwise than by the Commission.
- (3) The Commission may amend any code or guideline published under subsection (1).
- (4) Any amendments made to a code or guideline published under subsection (1) must be published in the Gazette and in any other manner the Commission considers appropriate.
- (5) A code or guideline published under subsection (1)—
 - (a) may be of general or special application and, in particular, may be made so as to apply, or so as not to apply—
 - (i) to a specified extent in relation to a specified person or to members of a specified class of persons; or
 - (ii) in specified circumstances; and
 - (b) may make different provisions for different circumstances and provide for different cases or classes of cases.

- (6) A code or guideline published under subsection (1) and all amendments made to it are not subsidiary legislation.

112ZS. Effect of codes and guidelines

- (1) A failure by a person to comply with a provision in a code or guideline does not itself make the person liable to any judicial or other proceedings.
- (2) However, a failure on the part of an intermediary acting as an investment manager of an open-ended fund company, or a representative of such an intermediary, to comply with a provision in a code or guideline may be taken into account in considering, for the purposes of any provision of this Ordinance—
- (a) in the case of an intermediary, whether it is a fit and proper person to be or to remain licensed or registered;
- (b) in the case of a representative of an intermediary that is a licensed corporation, whether he or she is a fit and proper person to be or to remain licensed as a representative; or
- (c) in the case of a representative of an intermediary that is a registered institution, whether he or she is a fit and proper person to be or to remain a person whose name is entered in the register maintained by the Monetary Authority under section 20 of the Banking Ordinance (Cap. 155) as that of a person engaged by a registered institution in respect of a regulated activity.
- (3) Despite subsection (1), in any proceedings under this Ordinance before a court—

- (a) a code or guideline is admissible in evidence; and
 - (b) if any provision in a code or guideline appears to the court to be relevant to a question arising in the proceedings, the provision is to be taken into account in determining the question.
- (4) In this section—

code or guideline (守則或指引) means a code or guideline published under section 112ZR.

112ZT. Offence of fraudulent trading

- (1) If any business of an open-ended fund company is carried on—
- (a) with intent to defraud creditors of the company or creditors of any other person; or
 - (b) for any fraudulent purpose,
- every person who is knowingly a party to the carrying on of the business with that intent or for that purpose commits an offence.
- (2) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable—
- (a) on conviction on indictment to a fine of $10,000,000 and to imprisonment for 10 years; or
 - (b) on summary conviction to a fine of $1,000,000 and to imprisonment for 3 years.
- (3) This section applies whether or not the open-ended fund company has been, or is in the course of being, wound up.”.

“214A. Remedies in cases of unfair prejudice etc. to interests of shareholders of open-ended fund companies

- (1) The Commission may by petition apply to the Court of First Instance for an order under this section if it appears to the Commission that at any time since the incorporation of an open-ended fund company, the business or affairs of the company have been conducted in a manner—
 - (a) oppressive to its shareholders or any part of its shareholders;
 - (b) involving defalcation, fraud, misfeasance or other misconduct towards it or its shareholders or any part of its shareholders;
 - (c) resulting in its shareholders or any part of its shareholders not having been given all the information with respect to its business or affairs that they might reasonably expect; or
 - (d) unfairly prejudicial to its shareholders or any part of its shareholders.
- (2) If, on an application under subsection (1), the Court of First Instance is of the opinion that the business or affairs of an open-ended fund company have been conducted in a manner described in subsection (1)(a), (b), (c) or (d), whether through conduct consisting of an isolated act or a series of acts or a failure to act, the Court may—

- (a) make an order restraining the carrying out, or requiring the carrying out, of an act;
 - (b) make an order requiring the company to bring in its name any proceedings that the Court considers appropriate against any persons, and on any terms, specified in the order;
 - (c) make an order appointing a receiver or manager of the whole or any part of the property or business of the company, specifying the powers and duties of the receiver or manager and fixing his or her remuneration;
 - (d) make an order that a person wholly or partly responsible for the business or affairs of the company having been so conducted must not, without the leave of the Court—
 - (i) be, or continue to be, a director, an investment manager, a liquidator, or a receiver or manager of the property or business, of the company or any other corporation; or
 - (ii) in any way, whether directly or indirectly, be concerned, or take part, in the management of the company or any other corporation; or
 - (e) make any other order the Court considers appropriate, whether for regulating the conduct of the business or affairs of the company in the future, or for the purchase of the shares of any shareholders of the company by other shareholders of the company or by the company, or otherwise.

- (3) If the order to be applied for under subsection (1) is an order against—
- (a) an authorized financial institution; or
 - (b) a corporation that, to the knowledge of the Commission—
 - (i) is a controller of an authorized financial institution;
 - (ii) has as its controller an authorized financial institution; or
 - (iii) has a controller that is also a controller of an authorized financial institution, the Commission must not make the application unless it has first consulted the Monetary Authority.

- (4) An order under subsection (2)(d) must specify the period for which it is to have effect and such a period must not exceed 15 years.
- (5) The Court of First Instance must, as soon as reasonably practicable after making an order under subsection (2)(d), file the order with the Registrar of Companies.
- (6) In this section—

controller (控制人) means an indirect controller, or a majority shareholder controller, as defined by section 2(1) of the Banking Ordinance (Cap. 155).

214B. Order under section 214A altering open-ended fund company's instrument of incorporation

- (1) If an order made under section 214A alters the instrument of incorporation of an open-ended fund company, despite any other provisions of this Ordinance but subject to the provisions of the order, the company does not have the power, without the leave of the Court of First Instance, to make any further alteration to the instrument that is inconsistent with the order.

- (2) If the instrument of incorporation of an open-ended fund company is altered by an order made under section 214A—
 - (a) the alteration has the same effect as if duly made by a resolution of the company; and
 - (b) this Ordinance applies to the instrument as altered accordingly.
- (3) An open-ended fund company must, within 14 days after an order altering its instrument of incorporation is made under section 214A, deliver an office copy of the order to the Registrar of Companies for registration under this Ordinance.
- (4) An open-ended fund company must, within 14 days after the leave of the Court of First Instance to alter its instrument of incorporation is given, deliver an office copy of the leave to the Registrar of Companies for registration under this Ordinance.
- (5) An open-ended fund company that contravenes subsection (3) or (4) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine at level 3 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine of $300 for each day during which the offence continues.
- (6) In this section—
