

Panel on Manpower

List of outstanding items for discussion

(position as at 8 March 2016)

Proposed timing for discussion

1. Review of the Employment Ordinance - the requirement of "continuous contract"

At the meeting on 17 November 2011, members noted that the Administration would review the continuous contract requirement (the so-called "4-18" requirement) under the Employment Ordinance (Cap. 57) ("EO").

To be confirmed

The Panel received views from deputations on the review of the continuous contract requirement at the meeting on 19 March 2013. After consulting the Labour Advisory Board ("LAB") on the results of the review in May and July 2013, the Administration briefed members on five possible approaches to deal with the continuous contract requirement at the meeting on 31 July 2013. The Panel passed a motion proposing the Administration to abolish the 4-18 requirement.

Hon CHAN Yuen-han and Hon TANG Ka-piu proposed vide their joint letter dated 17 October 2014 (LC Paper No. CB(2)152/14-15(01)) that the Panel should follow up on the subject. The Administration's response was circulated to members vide LC Paper No. CB(2)383/14-15(01) on 3 December 2014. The Administration advised that it would revert to the Panel once it was in a position to do so.

2. Establishment of a central compensation insurance fund

On 19 May 2005, the Panel was briefed on the proposed measures to improve the employees' compensation insurance ("ECI") system in Hong Kong. The Administration presented its research findings on the operation of the ECI schemes in some overseas countries and the views received from the insurance industry. As replacing a private market by a central ECI scheme would have significant impact on insurers, LAB agreed to test run a "residual scheme" proposed by the Hong Kong Federation of Insurers. The scheme sought to act as a market of last resort to assist employers who had difficulties finding ECI cover. At the meeting, the Panel urged the Administration that, while introducing the residual scheme, it should also consider pursuing a central ECI scheme in the long run.

To be confirmed

At the meeting on 15 March 2007, the Panel was briefed on the structure and mode of operation of the Employees' Compensation Insurance Residual Scheme scheduled to be launched by the insurance industry on 1 May 2007. The Panel was advised that a mid-term review of the progress of the Scheme would be conducted one year after implementation and an overall review after operating the Scheme for two years.

The outcome of the review of the Scheme was circulated to members vide LC Paper No. CB(2)2509/08-09 on 22 September 2009.

At the Panel meeting on 19 February 2009, Hon LEE Cheuk-yan proposed that the employee compensation for injury/death caused by accidents en route to work be discussed by the Panel.

3. Progress of establishment of a Qualifications Framework ("QF")

Hon CHAN Yuen-han, Hon WONG Kwok-hing and Hon KWONG Chi-kin suggested in their letter dated 16 December 2004 that the progress of the establishment of QF proposed by the Administration should be discussed by the Panel.

To be confirmed

The Accreditation of Academic and Vocational Qualifications ("AAVQ") Bill was introduced into LegCo on 6 July 2005. The Bills Committee formed to scrutinize the Bill completed its scrutiny of the Bill on 27 March 2007. The Bill, with amendments, was enacted on 2 May 2007. The AAVQ Ordinance commenced full operation on 5 May 2008.

The Administration reported to the Panel the development of QF at the meetings on 23 October 2008, 16 July 2009, 22 October 2009, 17 June 2010, 21 October 2010, 17 June 2011, 20 October 2011, 25 January 2013, 27 January 2014, 20 January 2015 and 19 January 2016.

[Note : The Administration has advised that the Education Bureau will continue to make a report to the Panel, on a yearly basis, on the latest progress of QF implementation in the policy briefing by the Secretary for Education on the Chief Executive's Policy Address.

4. Review of whether medical certificates issued by chiropractors should be recognised under labour legislation

At the Panel meeting on 17 June 2011, the Administration briefed members on the findings of the Inter-bureaux/departmental Working Group on its study of recognition of medical certificates issued by registered chiropractors as valid sick leave certificates under labour-related legislation. While agreeing with the recommendation made by the Working Group not to recognise medical certificates issued by chiropractors under labour-related legislation at that juncture, the Administration informed members that the Labour Department ("LD") would commission the Census and Statistics Department ("C&SD") to conduct a comprehensive survey to gain a more updated and thorough understanding of the community's knowledge and utilisation of chiropractic treatment and to gauge the prevalence of chiropractic treatment in Hong Kong.

To be confirmed

At the Panel meeting on 18 February 2014, the Administration briefed members on the survey findings on chiropractor consultation by the public published by C&SD on 8 November 2013; the latest development of chiropractic in Hong Kong and other places; and the Administration's review findings on whether medical certificates issued by chiropractors should be recognised under labour legislation. Members were advised that at the meeting of LAB held on 3 December 2013, no consensus was reached on the subject. Noting that the Chiropractors Council of Hong Kong ("CCHK") had set up a "Committee on Issue of Sick Leave Certificates" and a "Committee on Review of the Code of Practice" to study the formulation and drafting of guidelines for the issuance of sick leave certificates and to consider including provisions on handling medical records in their Code of Practice respectively, members agreed that pending the work progress of the two committees concerned, the Panel would revisit the issue and receive views from deputations including CCHK at a future meeting.

5. Mental impairment arising from occupational injury

In his letter dated 10 May 2010 (LC Paper No. CB(2)1589/09-10(01)), Dr Hon PAN Pey-chyou expressed concern about the definition of occupational injury under the Employees' Compensation Ordinance (Cap. 282) ("ECO"), and whether the Ordinance would cover mental impairment arising from occupational injury. He proposed that mental impairment caused by work incidents and mental impairment and illnesses arising out of employment should be discussed by the Panel.

To be confirmed

6. Implementation of the Protection of Wages on Insolvency (Amendment) Ordinance 2012

During the deliberations of the Bills Committee on Protection of Wages on Insolvency (Amendment) Bill 2011, the Administration informed the Bills Committee that the Protection of Wages on Insolvency Fund ("PWIF") Board had agreed to conduct a review one year after the implementation of the Bill on the coverage of PWIF in respect of pay for untaken annual leave, pay for untaken statutory holidays and the payment ceiling of $10,500. In response to members' suggestions at the Panel meeting on 19 February 2013, the PWIF Board undertook to review the other existing items, viz wages, wages in lieu of notice and severance payment, in the same review which commenced in the second half of 2013. The outcome of the review will be reported to the Panel at an appropriate time.

To be confirmed

The Administration advised that it would report to the Panel on the outcome of the review on the coverage of existing ex gratia payment items under PWIF after the Fund Board and LAB had completed deliberation on the subject.

7. Rehabilitation services for injured employees

When the Panel was briefed on the situation of occupational diseases in Hong Kong in 2011 and the Administration's proposal to further increase the compensation levels of 15 items under ECO, the Pneumoconiosis and Mesothelioma (Compensation) Ordinance (Cap. 360) and the Occupational Deafness (Compensation) Ordinance (Cap. 469) at its meetings respectively on 12 April and 23 May 2012, a proposal was raised that insurers should consider providing financial assistance to the Hospital Authority for strengthening its rehabilitation services for injured employees, so as to avoid any possible conflict of interest of the rehabilitation service providers appointed by insurers. Hon LEE Cheuk-yan suggested that the Panel should follow up the matter in future. At the Panel meeting on 10 October 2013, Dr Hon KWOK Ka-ki suggested that the scope of the discussion should be extended to cover making the provision of rehabilitation services mandatory.

To be confirmed

8. Government policy relating to the outsourcing of service contracts

When the Panel discussed the Government policy relating to the outsourcing of service contracts relying heavily on the deployment of non-skilled workers at its meeting on 23 May 2012, there was a suggestion that the Panel should continue to follow up on the Government's policy on outsourcing of such service contracts.

To be confirmed

When discussing the subject at the Panel meeting on 21 April 2015, it was suggested that the Administration should conduct a comprehensive review of the Government policy relating to the outsourcing of service contracts and revert to the Panel on the outcome in due course.

At the Panel meeting on 19 January 2016, Hon LEE Cheuk-yan suggested that the subject should be discussed at a Panel meeting as soon as practicable and that in addition to the Labour and Welfare Bureau and the Financial Services and the Treasury Bureau, representatives of the four major procuring departments in the Government, including the Leisure and Cultural Services Department, the Food and Environmental Hygiene Department, the Housing Department and the Government Property Agency, be invited to join the discussion.
