

Support for Amendments to Health Warnings on Tobacco Product Packets and Retail Containers

I strongly supports the captioned amendments of increasing the coverage of health warnings to 85% of the largest two sides of tobacco packaging, and inclusion of Quitline number, etc.

The current six pictorial warnings covering 50% of the main area of tobacco packaging have been used since 2007. Therefore, there is a need for Hong Kong to change.

Submitted by,
MOK Hoi Yan, MPH
PhD candidate
School of Public Health
University of Hong Kong

17 May 2017