

Support ivory trade ban

Alex Brown to: panel_ea@legco.gov.hk

26/05/2017 23:45

I am writing to support the ivory trade ban in Hong Kong. It's our responsibility to safeguard wildlife for future generations. If that means putting an end to unscrupulous trade, so be it. And there should definitely be more penalties including prison for those traders still selling ivory. Besides, it's not government responsibility to pay these traders off for being in the wrong business already.

Alex