

Saving Elephants

Carol Ann Jackson to: panel_ea

01/06/2017 03:40

Attn: Chairman of LegCo Environmental Affairs Panel

As long as Ivory traders are compensated; as long as Ivory has a monetary value, elephants will die.

Let there be no doubt, ivory is a misnomer. It is simply the tusk of another dead elephant.

If we lose this priceless, ancient species on our watch, we can be sure that history will treat us all harshly for our collective and individual greed and neglect.

Please consider all voices from around the globe asking for your support and, yes, bravery in choosing to save the elephants. It won't go unnoticed.

Sincere thanks,
Carol- Ann Jackson
West Vancouver
Canada

Sent from my iPad