To whom it may concern,

My name is Mr Allan Thomson, I am 43 years of age and live in the suburbs of Manchester, UK. I am an avid follower of natural history and am passionate about world ecology.

For Hong Kong to shut down its ivory trade would mean a positive step in the right direction to saving Africa's irreplaceable and iconic wildlife which is currently threatened with extinction. The wildlife of Africa belongs to the world, it is our duty as custodians of this planet, to ensure that these beautiful animals are here alive and well for future generations to experience and enjoy. I pray and hope that the government of Hong Kong do the right thing in shutting down its local ivory trade.

Regards

Mr Allan Thomson
