Dear Sir/Madam,

I wish to add my voice to the many others who support a ban on ivory sales in Hong Kong. I strongly believe that this is the only way to save the few remaining wild elephants. I also strongly support an increase in the penalties levied at those who commit crimes against wildlife-without them, we face extinctions of many species in our time. Finally, I oppose the Hong Kong government paying compensation to Hong Kong ivory traders, since I believe that this will encourage the continued trade of ivory.

I hope that you do everything possible to protect these beautiful creatures from the horrors of poaching, thereby stopping the killing of park rangers and the funding of other criminal activities.

Yours faithfully

Kath Adams
