Dear Sir/ Madam,

My name is Vathani Navasothy - a UK resident and a long standing British national .
I am very passionate about the plight of our precious worldly wild elephants - my main reason for writing this total ban request .

Our planet cannot sustain the drastic loss of a wild elephant every 15minutes - extinction will be inevitable at this rate!

I am very much in favour of Hong Kong making a Total Ban on Ivory- so I urge you the Hong Kong Legislative Council to not collude with any action that compensates ivory traders.

Please kindly do this, while there is still the time and chance of saving this species from vanishing from this earth - so our children and their generations of children to come may enjoy what we once enjoyed -karma free !

After all it is their birth right.

I thank you for your compassionate interest and trust that you will action the plea from all of that care deeply about this matter.

Thank you

Your's sincerely
Vathani
