To whom it may concern,

My name is Roxanne Colaw and I'm from the U.S. I'm writing to express my concerns about the extinction crisis threatening the world's elephants due to the demand for ivory. This is a chance to save the species and set a precedence to the rest of the world that poaching and killing elephants will no longer be tolerated. Please ban ivory so humanity and future generations can experience the majesty of these intelligent, family oriented, animals.

This is an important decision that will reflect heroically through history's eyes. The alternative is too grim to imagine. We are their stewards and Hong Kong has the chance to be the savior of the species. Please help save them and support the ivory ban.

Thank you, for hearing my plea.

Sincerely,
Roxanne Colaw
