for discussion

7. Review of the "Well-off Tenants Policies"

See Note (2)

Arising from the discussion at the Panel meeting on 1 November 2010 on "Stepped-up checking of household income and assets of public rental housing tenants", members considered that the Administration should review the policy on Safeguarding Rational Allocation of Public Housing Resources lest this might force grown-up children to move out from their parents' public rental housing units.

At the Panel meeting on 10 October 2013, members expressed the view that the income and asset limits under the "Well-off Tenants Policies" should be reviewed to ensure that they were in step with current situation in the market and society, and to safeguard the rational allocation of public housing resources.

The Hong Kong Housing Authority's Subsidised Housing Committee endorsed measures to refine the "Well-off Tenants Policies" on 9 December 2016, and the Panel has held a special meeting on 24 January 2017 to discuss with the Administration and receive public views on the matter.
