

I, Stephen Gardner, am against the Peng Chau boat company's proposal. I am against the conversion of slow boats to fast boats and against the rise in boat fare. Because it will make life very difficult for grass root residents of Peng Chau. And the fast boat has less room for cargo and for passengers. The service of the ferry company has never been improved. The boats are so dirty and dangerous.