Panel on Economic Development

Motion passed under agenda item I on "Briefing by the Secretary for Commerce and Economic Development on the Chief Executive's 2017 Policy Address" at the policy briefing on 30 October 2017

This Panel urges the Administration to create new tourism attractions through inter-departmental cooperation, including but not limited to exploring the development of multi-purpose venues for holding road events and cultural and creative parks, so as to enhance Hong Kong's international appeal and competitiveness in tourism, open up new visitor sources, boost the development of new industries, create business prospects for small and medium enterprises, as well as provide more diversified job and development opportunities to Hong Kong people, in particular young people with vocational and professional education.
