Legislative Council Panel on Financial Affairs

Latest Developments on Application of the Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters in Hong Kong

Purpose

This paper briefs Members on the latest developments on the application of the Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters (“the Convention”) to Hong Kong.

The Convention

2. We briefed Members at the meetings of this Panel on 5 June 2017 and 8 January 2018 on the Government’s plan to extend the application of the Convention to Hong Kong vide LC Paper No. CB(1)1030/16-17(08) and LC Paper No. CB(1)402/17-18(03) respectively. The Convention will help Hong Kong effectively deliver its obligations on international tax cooperation.

3. The Convention was jointly developed by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (“OECD”) and the Council of Europe in 1988, and amended by a Protocol in 2010. It is a multi-party platform which allows participating jurisdictions to mutually agree among themselves on all possible forms of administrative cooperation in the assessment and collection of taxes, including various modes of exchange of information (“EoI”).

4. The Convention has been opened for signature by states since 1 June 2011 and the latest text is at Annex A. Upon the request of Hong Kong, the Central People’s Government (“CPG”) extended the application of the Convention to Hong Kong on 29 May 2018. As at 11 June 2018, 122 jurisdictions participated in the Convention, of which 17 jurisdictions are covered by territorial extension (Annex B).

International Tax Cooperation

5. There has been much breakthrough in international tax cooperation in recent years. The OECD promulgated the Automatic Exchange of Financial Account Information in Tax Matters (“AEOI”) in 2014 and the Base Erosion and Profit Shifting (“BEPS”) package in 2015, with a view to enhancing tax transparency and combating cross-border tax evasion respectively. Hong Kong has committed to implementing these two initiatives. EoI for tax purposes across jurisdictions forms a key part of both initiatives.

6. Given the continued expansion in the scope and network of tax information exchanges in the international community, it is no longer practical for Hong Kong to solely ride on the existing bilateral Comprehensive Avoidance of Double Taxation Agreements (“CDTAs”) and Tax Information Exchange Agreements (“TIEAs”) to exchange tax information as required by the AEOI and the BEPS initiatives. A more practical approach is to implement these initiatives through the Convention so that Hong Kong can gain access to a wide network for EoI.

Extending the Application of the Convention to Hong Kong

7. To provide a legal basis for the extension, the Inland Revenue (Amendment) Ordinance 2018 was enacted by the Legislative Council (“LegCo”) on 2 February 2018 to, among others, empower the Chief Executive in Council (“CE-in-C”) to declare by order that any tax arrangements having been made by Hong Kong with more than one government of any territories outside Hong Kong, or having been made by the CPG and applied to Hong Kong, shall have effect in Hong Kong.

8. The declaration made by the CPG for extending the application of the Convention to Hong Kong (“Declaration for Extension”) was registered at the OECD on 29 May 2018. The Declaration for Extension includes a list of reservations and declarations applicable to Hong Kong under the Convention (Annex C), pursuant to which Hong Kong will not render assistance to other jurisdictions in terms of tax recovery, tax examinations, etc. These reservations and declarations were drawn up by Hong Kong and are the same as those we informed this Panel via LC Paper No. CB(1)402/17-18(03) on 8 January 2018. The CPG will also soon deposit with the OECD a Unilateral Declaration on the effective date for exchanges of information with respect to AEOI, with a view to bringing the date of entry into effect of the Convention in line with Hong Kong’s committed timelines for the AEOI. To give effect to the Convention and the relevant declarations in Hong Kong, an order should be made by the CE-in-C under section 49(1A) of the Inland Revenue Ordinance (Cap. 112) (“IRO”). After completion of the necessary legislative and administrative procedures, Hong Kong will be able to ride on the Convention to conduct EoI (including AEOI) with other jurisdictions.

9. Hong Kong has pledged to conduct the first round of AEOI with relevant jurisdictions, including all the EU Member States, by September 2018. It is therefore necessary for Hong Kong to give effect to the Convention in Hong Kong as soon as possible so as to honour our commitment and ensure the timely implementation of AEOI. Otherwise, Hong Kong may risk being labelled as a “non-cooperative” jurisdiction by the OECD and/or the EU¹, thus tarnishing our reputation as an international financial centre.

10. The Convention will enter into force in Hong Kong on 1 September 2018. Subject to the CPG’s making of the Unilateral Declaration on behalf of Hong Kong and CE-in-C’s decision on the making of an order to give effect to the Convention and the relevant declarations in Hong Kong (“the Order”), we will table the Order at the LegCo for negative vetting when the new session of the LegCo begins in mid-October 2018. To allow the Order to commence operation on or before 1 September 2018 so that the first round of AEOI can be conducted on schedule, we will recommend that the date of gazettal be designated as the commencement date of the Order instead of following the normal practice of allowing a full 49-day negative vetting period for scrutiny before the subsidiary legislation commences operation. We would like to appeal to the Members’ understanding of the need for this special arrangement in view of the unique circumstances of this case.

First Round of Exchange under AEOI

11. Pending completion of the legislative exercise to give effect to the Convention, Hong Kong has geared up for the first round of exchange under the AEOI in September 2018. Specifically, reporting financial institutions

¹ Both the OECD and the EU attach great importance to the timely implementation of AEOI and the BEPS package. They have drawn up their respective lists of “non-cooperative” tax jurisdictions based on the compliance status of a jurisdiction with regard to the relevant requirements. A “non-cooperative” tax jurisdiction could be subject to counter-measures which would make it a less attractive place for investment and businesses. Such counter-measures may include the imposition of withholding taxes and non-deductibility of costs of transactions by other jurisdictions.

(“FIs”)² are mandated to apply due diligence procedures to identify and collect the required information in respect of the financial accounts held by tax resident of reportable jurisdictions (i.e. 75 jurisdictions with which Hong Kong is prepared to conduct AEOI, as specified in Part 1 of Schedule 17E to the IRO) for reporting to the Inland Revenue Department (“IRD”) on an annual basis. After receipt of such information, IRD will conduct exchanges with relevant AEOI partners under the Convention, CDTAs or TIEAs. Except for Japan, Korea and the United Kingdom, we have committed to conducting the first round of AEOI with other relevant jurisdictions by September 2018 in respect of the information relating to the period from 1 July 2017 to 31 December 2017³.

12. IRD has established a dedicated platform, i.e. the AEOI Portal, for reporting FIs to electronically submit notifications and furnish Financial Account Information Returns (“AEOI Returns”) for reporting the required information of reportable accounts. So far, IRD has issued notices to some 1 600 FIs requiring them to furnish AEOI Returns. As at 2 June 2018, over 1 000 FIs have furnished their AEOI Returns. In general, the AEOI Portal has been operating smoothly and FIs have no difficulty in using it. It is expected that the AEOI Returns of the remaining FIs will be received in the coming two months.

13. IRD will exchange the financial account information collected from the reporting FIs with relevant jurisdictions in September 2018 via the Common Transmission System established by the OECD.

Advice Sought

14. Members are invited to note the latest progress on the application of the Convention to Hong Kong and our legislative plan.

The Treasury Branch Financial Services and the Treasury Bureau June 2018

² Under section 50A(1) of the IRO, “financial institution” means “a custodial institution, a depository institution, an investment entity or a specified insurance company”. The term principally refers to banks, securities firms, insurance companies and investment funds. On the other hand, “reporting financial institution” is defined to mean, in general, a financial institution that is resident in Hong Kong or a Hong Kong branch of a financial institution that is not resident in Hong Kong.

³ The first exchange with Japan and the United Kingdom will cover information with respect to the period from 1 January 2017 to 31 December 2017. As for Korea, the first exchange will cover information in respect of the period from 1 January 2018 to 31 December 2018.

Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters

Text amended by the provisions of the Protocol amending the Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters, which entered into force on 1st June 2011.

Preamble

The member States of the Council of Europe and the member countries of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), signatories of this Convention,

Considering that the development of international movement of persons, capital, goods and services – although highly beneficial in itself – has increased the possibilities of tax avoidance and evasion and therefore requires increasing co-operation among tax authorities;

Welcoming the various efforts made in recent years to combat tax avoidance and tax evasion on an international level, whether bilaterally or multilaterally;

Considering that a co-ordinated effort between States is necessary in order to foster all forms of administrative assistance in matters concerning taxes of any kind whilst at the same time ensuring adequate protection of the rights of taxpayers;

Recognising that international co-operation can play an important part in facilitating the proper determination of tax liabilities and in helping the taxpayer to secure his rights;

Considering that fundamental principles entitling every person to have his rights and obligations determined in accordance with a proper legal procedure should be recognised as applying to tax matters in all States and that States should endeavour to protect the legitimate interests of taxpayers, including appropriate protection against discrimination and double taxation;

Convinced therefore that States should carry out measures or supply information, having regard to the necessity of protecting the confidentiality of information, and taking account of international instruments for the protection of privacy and flows of personal data;

Considering that a new co-operative environment has emerged and that it is desirable that a multilateral instrument is made available to allow the widest number of States to obtain the benefits of the new co-operative environment and at the same time implement the highest international standards of co-operation in the tax field;

Desiring to conclude a convention on mutual administrative assistance in tax matters,

Have agreed as follows:

- 2 Deleted.
- 3 Any Party may, by a declaration addressed to one of the Depositaries, indicate that, according to its internal legislation, its authorities may inform its resident or national before transmitting information concerning him, in conformity with Articles 5 and 7.

Article 5 – Exchange of information on request

- 1 At the request of the applicant State, the requested State shall provide the applicant State with any information referred to in Article 4 which concerns particular persons or transactions.

 - c business dealings between a person liable to tax in a Party and a person liable to tax in another Party are conducted through one or more countries in such a way that a saving in tax may result in one or the other Party or in both;
 - d a Party has grounds for supposing that a saving of tax may result from artificial transfers of profits within groups of enterprises;
 - e information forwarded to the first-mentioned Party by the other Party has enabled information to be obtained which may be relevant in assessing liability to tax in the latter Party.
- 2 Each Party shall take such measures and implement such procedures as are necessary to ensure that information described in paragraph 1 will be made available for transmission to another Party.

Article 8 – Simultaneous tax examinations

- 2 If the request is acceded to, the competent authority of the requested State shall, as soon as possible, notify the competent authority of the applicant State about the time and place of the examination, the authority or official designated to carry out the examination and the procedures and conditions required by the requested State for the conduct of the examination. All decisions with respect to the conduct of the tax examination shall be made by the requested State.

Article 10 – Conflicting information

If a Party receives from another Party information about a person's tax affairs which appears to it to conflict with information in its possession, it shall so advise the Party which has provided the information.

Section II - Assistance in recovery

Article 11 – Recovery of tax claims

- 1 At the request of the applicant State, the requested State shall, subject to the provisions of Articles 14 and 15, take the necessary steps to recover tax claims of the first-mentioned State as if they were its own tax claims.
- 2 The provision of paragraph 1 shall apply only to tax claims which form the subject of an instrument permitting their enforcement in the applicant State and, unless otherwise agreed between the Parties concerned, which are not contested.

However, where the claim is against a person who is not a resident of the applicant State, paragraph 1 shall only apply, unless otherwise agreed between the Parties concerned, where the claim may no longer be contested.

- 3 The obligation to provide assistance in the recovery of tax claims concerning a deceased person or his estate, is limited to the value of the estate or of the property acquired by each beneficiary of the estate, according to whether the claim is to be recovered from the estate or from the beneficiaries thereof.

Article 12 – Measures of conservancy

At the request of the applicant State, the requested State shall, with a view to the recovery of an amount of tax, take measures of conservancy even if the claim is contested or is not yet the subject of an instrument permitting enforcement.

Article 13 – Documents accompanying the request

- 1 The request for administrative assistance under this section shall be accompanied by:
 - a a declaration that the tax claim concerns a tax covered by the Convention and, in the case of recovery that, subject to paragraph 2 of Article 11, the tax claim is not or may not be contested,
 - b an official copy of the instrument permitting enforcement in the applicant State, and
 - c any other document required for recovery or measures of conservancy.
- 2 The instrument permitting enforcement in the applicant State shall, where appropriate and in accordance with the provisions in force in the requested State, be accepted, recognised, supplemented or replaced as soon as possible after the date of the receipt of the request for assistance, by an instrument permitting enforcement in the latter State.

Article 14 – Time limits

- 1 Questions concerning any period beyond which a tax claim cannot be enforced shall be governed by the law of the applicant State. The request for assistance shall give particulars concerning that period.
- 2 Acts of recovery carried out by the requested State in pursuance of a request for assistance, which, according to the laws of that State, would have the effect of suspending or interrupting the period mentioned in paragraph 1, shall also have this effect under the laws of the applicant State. The requested State shall inform the applicant State about such acts.
- 3 In any case, the requested State is not obliged to comply with a request for assistance which is submitted after a period of 15 years from the date of the original instrument permitting enforcement.

Article 15 – Priority

The tax claim in the recovery of which assistance is provided shall not have in the requested State any priority specially accorded to the tax claims of that State even if the recovery procedure used is the one applicable to its own tax claims.

Article 16 – Deferral of payment

The requested State may allow deferral of payment or payment by instalments if its laws or administrative practice permit it to do so in similar circumstances, but shall first inform the applicant State.

Section III – Service of documents

Article 17 – Service of documents

- 1 At the request of the applicant State, the requested State shall serve upon the addressee documents, including those relating to judicial decisions, which emanate from the applicant State and which relate to a tax covered by this Convention.
- 2 The requested State shall effect service of documents:
 - a by a method prescribed by its domestic laws for the service of documents of a substantially similar nature;
 - b to the extent possible, by a particular method requested by the applicant State or the closest to such method available under its own laws.
- 3 A Party may effect service of documents directly through the post on a person within the territory of another Party.
- 4 Nothing in the Convention shall be construed as invalidating any service of documents by a Party in accordance with its laws.
- 5 When a document is served in accordance with this article, it need not be accompanied by a translation. However, where it is satisfied that the addressee cannot understand the language of the document, the requested State shall arrange to have it translated into or a summary drafted in its or one of its official languages. Alternatively, it may ask the applicant State to have the document either translated into or accompanied by a summary in one of the official languages of the requested State, the Council of Europe or the OECD.

Chapter IV – Provisions relating to all forms of assistance

Article 18 – Information to be provided by the applicant State

- 1 A request for assistance shall indicate where appropriate:
 - a the authority or agency which initiated the request made by the competent authority;
 - b the name, address, or any other particulars assisting in the identification of the person in respect of whom the request is made;
 - c in the case of a request for information, the form in which the applicant State wishes the information to be supplied in order to meet its needs;
 - d in the case of a request for assistance in recovery or measures of conservancy, the nature of the tax claim, the components of the tax claim and the assets from which the tax claim may be recovered;

- e in the case of a request for service of documents, the nature and the subject of the document to be served;
 - f whether it is in conformity with the law and administrative practice of the applicant State and whether it is justified in the light of the requirements of Article 21.2.g.
- 2 As soon as any other information relevant to the request for assistance comes to its knowledge, the applicant State shall forward it to the requested State.

Article 19 – Deleted

Article 20 – Response to the request for assistance

- 1 If the request for assistance is complied with, the requested State shall inform the applicant State of the action taken and of the result of the assistance as soon as possible.
- 2 If the request is declined, the requested State shall inform the applicant State of that decision and the reason for it as soon as possible.
- 3 If, with respect to a request for information, the applicant State has specified the form in which it wishes the information to be supplied and the requested State is in a position to do so, the requested State shall supply it in the form requested.

Article 21 – Protection of persons and limits to the obligation to provide assistance

- 1 Nothing in this Convention shall affect the rights and safeguards secured to persons by the laws or administrative practice of the requested State.
- 2 Except in the case of Article 14, the provisions of this Convention shall not be construed so as to impose on the requested State the obligation:
- a to carry out measures at variance with its own laws or administrative practice or the laws or administrative practice of the applicant State;
 - b to carry out measures which would be contrary to public policy (ordre public);
 - c to supply information which is not obtainable under its own laws or its administrative practice or under the laws of the applicant State or its administrative practice;
 - d to supply information which would disclose any trade, business, industrial, commercial or professional secret, or trade process, or information the disclosure of which would be contrary to public policy (ordre public);
 - e to provide administrative assistance if and insofar as it considers the taxation in the applicant State to be contrary to generally accepted taxation principles or to the provisions of a convention for the avoidance of double taxation, or of any other convention which the requested State has concluded with the applicant State;

- f to provide administrative assistance for the purpose of administering or enforcing a provision of the tax law of the applicant State, or any requirement connected therewith, which discriminates against a national of the requested State as compared with a national of the applicant State in the same circumstances;
 - g to provide administrative assistance if the applicant State has not pursued all reasonable measures available under its laws or administrative practice, except where recourse to such measures would give rise to disproportionate difficulty;
 - h to provide assistance in recovery in those cases where the administrative burden for that State is clearly disproportionate to the benefit to be derived by the applicant State.
- 3 If information is requested by the applicant State in accordance with this Convention, the requested State shall use its information gathering measures to obtain the requested information, even though the requested State may not need such information for its own tax purposes. The obligation contained in the preceding sentence is subject to the limitations contained in this Convention, but in no case shall such limitations, including in particular those of paragraphs 1 and 2, be construed to permit a requested State to decline to supply information solely because it has no domestic interest in such information.
- 4 In no case shall the provisions of this Convention, including in particular those of paragraphs 1 and 2, be construed to permit a requested State to decline to supply information solely because the information is held by a bank, other financial institution, nominee or person acting in an agency or a fiduciary capacity or because it relates to ownership interests in a person.

Article 22 – Secrecy

- 1 Any information obtained by a Party under this Convention shall be treated as secret and protected in the same manner as information obtained under the domestic law of that Party and, to the extent needed to ensure the necessary level of protection of personal data, in accordance with the safeguards which may be specified by the supplying Party as required under its domestic law.
- 2 Such information shall in any case be disclosed only to persons or authorities (including courts and administrative or supervisory bodies) concerned with the assessment, collection or recovery of, the enforcement or prosecution in respect of, or the determination of appeals in relation to, taxes of that Party, or the oversight of the above. Only the persons or authorities mentioned above may use the information and then only for such purposes. They may, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1, disclose it in public court proceedings or in judicial decisions relating to such taxes.

- 3 If a Party has made a reservation provided for in sub-paragraph a. of paragraph 1 of Article 30, any other Party obtaining information from that Party shall not use it for the purpose of a tax in a category subject to the reservation. Similarly, the Party making such a reservation shall not use information obtained under this Convention for the purpose of a tax in a category subject to the reservation.
- 4 Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs 1, 2 and 3, information received by a Party may be used for other purposes when such information may be used for such other purposes under the laws of the supplying Party and the competent authority of that Party authorises such use. Information provided by a Party to another Party may be transmitted by the latter to a third Party, subject to prior authorisation by the competent authority of the first-mentioned Party.

Article 23 – Proceedings

- 1 Proceedings relating to measures taken under this Convention by the requested State shall be brought only before the appropriate body of that State.
- 2 Proceedings relating to measures taken under this Convention by the applicant State, in particular those which, in the field of recovery, concern the existence or the amount of the tax claim or the instrument permitting its enforcement, shall be brought only before the appropriate body of that State. If such proceedings are brought, the applicant State shall inform the requested State which shall suspend the procedure pending the decision of the body in question. However, the requested State shall, if asked by the applicant State, take measures of conservancy to safeguard recovery. The requested State can also be informed of such proceedings by any interested person. Upon receipt of such information the requested State shall consult on the matter, if necessary, with the applicant State.
- 3 As soon as a final decision in the proceedings has been given, the requested State or the applicant State, as the case may be, shall notify the other State of the decision and the implications which it has for the request for assistance.

Chapter V – Special provisions

Article 24 – Implementation of the Convention

- 1 The Parties shall communicate with each other for the implementation of this Convention through their respective competent authorities. The competent authorities may communicate directly for this purpose and may authorise subordinate authorities to act on their behalf. The competent authorities of two or more Parties may mutually agree on the mode of application of the Convention among themselves.
- 2 Where the requested State considers that the application of this Convention in a particular case would have serious and undesirable consequences, the competent authorities of the requested and of the applicant State shall consult each other and endeavour to resolve the situation by mutual agreement.

- 3 A co-ordinating body composed of representatives of the competent authorities of the Parties shall monitor the implementation and development of this Convention, under the aegis of the OECD. To that end, the co-ordinating body shall recommend any action likely to further the general aims of the Convention. In particular it shall act as a forum for the study of new methods and procedures to increase international co-operation in tax matters and, where appropriate, it may recommend revisions or amendments to the Convention. States which have signed but not yet ratified, accepted or approved the Convention are entitled to be represented at the meetings of the co-ordinating body as observers.
- 4 A Party may ask the co-ordinating body to furnish opinions on the interpretation of the provisions of the Convention.
- 5 Where difficulties or doubts arise between two or more Parties regarding the implementation or interpretation of the Convention, the competent authorities of those Parties shall endeavour to resolve the matter by mutual agreement. The agreement shall be communicated to the co-ordinating body.
- 6 The Secretary General of OECD shall inform the Parties, and the Signatory States which have not yet ratified, accepted or approved the Convention, of opinions furnished by the co-ordinating body according to the provisions of paragraph 4 above and of mutual agreements reached under paragraph 5 above.

Article 25 – Language

Requests for assistance and answers thereto shall be drawn up in one of the official languages of the OECD and of the Council of Europe or in any other language agreed bilaterally between the Contracting States concerned.

Article 26 – Costs

Unless otherwise agreed bilaterally by the Parties concerned:

- a ordinary costs incurred in providing assistance shall be borne by the requested State;
- b extraordinary costs incurred in providing assistance shall be borne by the applicant State.

Chapter VI – Final provisions

Article 27 – Other international agreements or arrangements

- 1 The possibilities of assistance provided by this Convention do not limit, nor are they limited by, those contained in existing or future international agreements or other arrangements between the Parties concerned or other instruments which relate to co-operation in tax matters.

- 2 Notwithstanding paragraph 1, those Parties which are member States of the European Union can apply, in their mutual relations, the possibilities of assistance provided for by the Convention in so far as they allow a wider co-operation than the possibilities offered by the applicable European Union rules.

Article 28 – Signature and entry into force of the Convention

- 1 This Convention shall be open for signature by the member States of the Council of Europe and the member countries of OECD. It is subject to ratification, acceptance or approval. Instruments of ratification, acceptance or approval shall be deposited with one of the Depositaries.
- 2 This Convention shall enter into force on the first day of the month following the expiration of a period of three months after the date on which five States have expressed their consent to be bound by the Convention in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 1.
- 3 In respect of any member State of the Council of Europe or any member country of OECD which subsequently expresses its consent to be bound by it, the Convention shall enter into force on the first day of the month following the expiration of a period of three months after the date of the deposit of the instrument of ratification, acceptance or approval.
- 4 Any member State of the Council of Europe or any member country of OECD which becomes a Party to the Convention after the entry into force of the Protocol amending this Convention, opened for signature on 27th May 2010 (the “2010 Protocol”), shall be a Party to the Convention as amended by that Protocol, unless they express a different intention in a written communication to one of the Depositaries.
- 5 After the entry into force of the 2010 Protocol, any State which is not a member of the Council of Europe or of the OECD may request to be invited to sign and ratify this Convention as amended by the 2010 Protocol. Any request to this effect shall be addressed to one of the Depositaries, who shall transmit it to the Parties. The Depositary shall also inform the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe and the OECD Council. The decision to invite States which so request to become Party to this Convention shall be taken by consensus by the Parties to the Convention through the co-ordinating body.
