

(Submission provided by Ms Aarushi B AHL)

Hong Kong does not need more land reclamation. There is enough space, but little willingness to utilize it both by developers and the government. We need to protect the flora and fauna of Lantau island, seen as a pristine and un-touched natural beauty and hence a popular tourist destination.