

Submission from Clear the Air

Waste charging scheme to be mandatory in Hong Kong, but 14-year delay casts doubt on hitting lower rubbish targets for 2022 | South China Morning Post
dynamco

to:

panel_ea

01/11/2018 06:38

Hide Details

From: <

To: <panel_ea@legco.gov.hk>

<https://www.scmp.com/news/hong-kong/health-environment/article/2171103/waste-charging-scheme-be-mandatory-hong-kong-14#comment-form>

Step 1 Create recycling centers able to handle separated waste and a collection system especially separate food waste collection in private as well as public estates

Step 2 Enact source separation of waste legislation

Step 3 Charge for what refuse is left over after recycling

Unfortunately baldylocks has failed to initiate step 1 and 2

This means people will get charged for throwing away recyclables