6. Auto-fuel prices in Hong Kong

See proposed item 5

At the meeting on 17 November 2020, Hon Starry LEE Wai-king requested the Administration to update the Panel on its actions to address the "rockets and feathers" phenomenon of the auto-fuel prices in Hong Kong. At the same meeting, Hon Steven HO Chun-yin expressed concern about the high tender prices of petrol filling station sites, as well as high vessel fuel prices and lack of bunkering facilities for use by marine practitioners.

At the work plan meeting on 1 December 2020, the Administration advised that a new mobile app of "Oil Price Watch" had been launched by the Consumer Council to facilitate a comparison of oil-fuel prices among auto-fuel retailers and drive price competition. Consumers' feedback on the new app would be collected to review its effectiveness. Hon Starry LEE Wai-king suggested discussion on auto-fuel prices in Hong Kong be held at the same meeting at which item 5 was discussed.
