Dear Ms Lau,

Panel on Transport
Joint letter relating to the issue of
Certificate of Particulars of Motor Vehicle

I refer to your letter of 10 November 2020 on the captioned subject.
Our reply is as follows.

The Transport Department revised one of the purposes of application from “Other, please specify” to “Other traffic and transport related matters” in the application form (“TD318”) for a Certificate of Particulars of Motor Vehicle (“the Certificate”) in October 2019, with a view to making it clearer for applicants to understand that the information contained in the Certificate can only be used for traffic and transport related matters.

In fact, both the previous and current versions of the application form for the Certificate have clearly set out in Part B that “I note that the personal data provided by a certificate of particulars of vehicle should only be used for activities relating to traffic and transport matters”, followed by several options of purposes to choose from immediately after the statement. Therefore, the amendment concerned does not introduce any substantial change to the requirements of application.

Yours sincerely,
