LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL BRIEF

Inland Revenue Ordinance
(Chapter 112)

INLAND REVENUE (DOUBLE TAXATION RELIEF WITH RESPECT TO TAXES ON INCOME AND CAPITAL AND PREVENTION OF TAX EVASION AND AVOIDANCE) (REPUBLIC OF SERBIA) ORDER

INLAND REVENUE (DOUBLE TAXATION RELIEF WITH RESPECT TO TAXES ON INCOME AND CAPITAL AND PREVENTION OF TAX EVASION AND AVOIDANCE) (GEORGIA) ORDER

INTRODUCTION

At the meeting of the Executive Council on 20 October 2020, the Council ADVISED and the Chief Executive ORDERED that the following two orders should be made under section 49(1A) of the Inland Revenue Ordinance (Cap. 112) (“IRO”) –

(a) Inland Revenue (Double Taxation Relief with respect to Taxes on Income and Capital and Prevention of Tax Evasion and Avoidance) (Republic of Serbia) Order (“Serbia Order”), at A Annex A; and

(b) Inland Revenue (Double Taxation Relief with respect to Taxes on Income and Capital and Prevention of Tax Evasion and Avoidance) (Georgia) Order (“Georgia Order”), at B Annex B.

2. The Serbia Order and the Georgia Order implement the Comprehensive Avoidance of Double Taxation Agreements and the corresponding Protocols signed with Serbia in August 2020 and with Georgia in October 2020 respectively (hereinafter referred to as “Serbia CDTA” and “Georgia CDTA” respectively).

JUSTIFICATIONS

Benefits of Comprehensive Avoidance of Double Taxation Agreements/ Arrangements (“CDTAs”) in General

3. Double taxation refers to the imposition of comparable taxes by more than one tax jurisdiction in respect of the same source of income. The international community generally recognises that double taxation hinders the exchange of goods and services as well as movements of capital, technology and human resources, and undermines the development of economic relations between economies. As a business facilitation initiative, it is our policy to enter into CDTAs with our trading and investment partners so as to minimise double taxation.

4. Hong Kong adopts the territorial principle of taxation whereby only income sourced from Hong Kong is subject to tax. A local resident’s income derived from sources outside Hong Kong would not be taxed in Hong Kong, and hence would not be subject to double taxation. Double taxation may however occur where a jurisdiction outside Hong Kong taxes its residents’ income derived from Hong Kong. Although many jurisdictions provide their residents with unilateral tax relief for the Hong Kong tax paid on income derived therefrom, CDTAs will enhance the certainty in respect of the elimination of double taxation. Besides, the tax relief available under CDTAs may exceed the level provided unilaterally by the jurisdictions concerned.

Benefits of the Serbia CDTA and the Georgia CDTA

5. The Serbia CDTA and the Georgia CDTA set out the allocation of taxing rights between Hong Kong and Serbia/Georgia (as the case may be, same for similar references in this brief) and the relief on the tax rates on different types of income. They will help investors better assess their potential tax liabilities from cross-border economic activities, foster economic and trade links, and provide incentives for enterprises of Serbia/Georgia to conduct business or invest in Hong Kong, and vice versa.

6. In the absence of the two CDTAs, profits of Hong Kong companies conducting business through a permanent establishment in Serbia/Georgia may be taxed in both Hong Kong and Serbia/Georgia if the income is Hong Kong-sourced. Moreover, income earned by Serbian/Georgian residents in Hong Kong is subject to tax in both Hong Kong and Serbia/Georgia.

7. Under the two CDTAs, any Serbian/Georgian tax paid by Hong Kong residents in respect of income derived from sources in Serbia/Georgia will be allowed as a credit against the Hong Kong tax payable in respect of the same income, subject to the provisions of our tax laws. For Serbian/Georgian residents, double taxation will be avoided by deduction of an amount equal to Hong Kong tax paid on income or capital from Serbian/Georgian tax in respect of the same income or capital.

8. Income derived by a Hong Kong resident from employment exercised in Serbia/Georgia which is not paid by (or on behalf of) an employer resident in Serbia/Georgia, and is not borne by a permanent establishment or a fixed base (as the case may be) which the employer has in Serbia/Georgia, will be exempt from tax in Serbia/Georgia if the resident's aggregate stay in Serbia/Georgia in any relevant 12-month period does not exceed 183 days.

9. Profits from the operation of ships in international traffic earned by enterprises of Hong Kong arising from Serbia/Georgia, which are currently subject to tax in Serbia/Georgia, will no longer be taxed in Serbia/Georgia under the respective CDTAs.

10. Respective withholding tax rates applicable to Hong Kong residents under the Serbia CDTA and the Georgia CDTA are summarised below –

	Withholding tax rates set out in the CDTAs (current applicable tax rates in Serbia/Georgia)
	Dividends	Interest	Royalties
Serbia CDTA	5% ¹ /10% (Individuals – 15% Companies – 20%)	0% ² /10% (Individuals – 15% Companies – 25%)	5% ³ /10% ⁴ (Individuals – 20% Companies – 25%)
Georgia CDTA	0% ⁵ /5% (5%)	0% ⁵ /5% (15%)	5% (15%)

Exchange of Information (“EoI”)

11. Every CDTA entered into by Hong Kong contains an EoI Article to facilitate exchange of tax information for meeting the requirements of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (“OECD”). In order to protect taxpayers’ privacy and confidentiality of any information exchanged, the Government will continue to adopt highly prudent safeguard measures in our CDTAs.

12. Under the Serbia CDTA and the Georgia CDTA, the following safeguards would be adopted –

- (a) the information sought should be foreseeably relevant, i.e. there will be no fishing expeditions;

¹ The cap of 5% will be applicable if the beneficial owner of the dividends is a company which holds directly at least 25% of the capital of the dividend-paying company throughout a 365-day period.

² The withholding tax will be exempt if the interest is paid by the Serbian Government or political subdivisions or local authorities thereof, or the National Bank of Serbia, and the beneficial owner of the interest is the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (“HKSAR”) Government, the Hong Kong Monetary Authority, or the Exchange Fund.

³ The cap of 5% will be applicable if the royalties are payments of any kind received as a consideration for the use of, or the right to use, any copyright of literary, artistic or scientific work including cinematograph films or films or tapes used for radio or television broadcasting.

⁴ The cap of 10% will be applicable if the royalties are payments of any kind received as a consideration for the use of, or the right to use, any patent, trade mark, design or model, plan, secret formula or process, or for the use of or the right to use, industrial, commercial or scientific equipment, or for information concerning industrial, commercial or scientific experience.

⁵ The withholding tax will be exempt if the dividends/interest are/is paid to the HKSAR Government, the Hong Kong Monetary Authority, or the Exchange Fund, or any entity wholly or mainly owned by the HKSAR Government as may be agreed from time to time between the competent authorities of Hong Kong and Georgia.

- (b) information received by the tax authorities concerned should be treated as confidential;
- (c) information will only be disclosed to the tax authorities concerned or their oversight bodies⁶;
- (d) information requested should not be disclosed to a third jurisdiction;
- (e) there is no obligation to supply information under certain circumstances, for example, where the supply of information would disclose any trade, business, industrial, commercial or professional secret or trade process (including such information covered by legal professional privilege); and
- (f) the tax information exchanged pursuant to the Serbia CDTA is allowed for certain non-tax related purposes⁷ only if such purposes are allowed under the laws of both Hong Kong and Serbia and the competent authority of the supplying side authorises such use⁸.

13. The scope of tax types for the purpose of EoI is confined to the taxes covered by the respective CDTAs.

⁶ In relation to the disclosure of information to the oversight bodies of the tax authorities concerned, the two CDTAs follow the formulation of the Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters (“Multilateral Convention”), which was promulgated by the OECD and entered into force in Hong Kong in September 2018. Serbia advised that the oversight body of the tax authority in Serbia is the Ministry of Finance, whilst Georgia advised that the oversight body in Georgia is the State Audit Office.

⁸ While the Georgia CDTA does not provide for the use of tax information exchanged for certain non-tax related purposes, this is allowed under the Multilateral Convention, which is in force in both Hong Kong and Georgia. If Hong Kong or Georgia makes a request for tax information under the Multilateral Convention and subsequently seeks to use such information for non-tax purposes, the restrictions under the Multilateral Convention shall apply. This means that such non-tax purposes must be allowed under the laws of both Hong Kong and Georgia and the competent authority of the supplying side authorises such use. The safeguards will operate in the same manner as outlined in footnote 7 above.

Legal Basis

14. Under section 49(1A) of the IRO, if the Chief Executive in Council (“CE-in-C”), by order, declares that arrangements specified in the order have been made with the government of any territory outside Hong Kong, and that it is expedient that those arrangements should have effect, those arrangements shall have effect. Under section 49(1B) of the IRO, only arrangements made for the purposes of affording relief from double taxation; exchanging information in relation to any tax imposed by the laws of Hong Kong or any territory concerned; and/or implementing an initiative of international tax co-operation may be specified in an order under section 49(1A) of the IRO. To bring the Serbia CDTA and the Georgia CDTA into effect, the CE-in-C has to declare by order that the arrangements with Serbia and Georgia on double taxation relief and exchange of information have been made.

OTHER OPTIONS

15. An order made in respect of each CDTA by the CE-in-C under section 49(1A) of the IRO is the only way to give effect to the Serbia CDTA and the Georgia CDTA. There is no other option.

THE ORDERS

16. Section 3 of the Serbia Order declares that the arrangements in the Serbia CDTA have been made and that it is expedient that those arrangements should have effect. The text of the Serbia CDTA is set out in the Schedule to the Serbia Order.

17. Section 3 of the Georgia Order declares that the arrangements in the Georgia CDTA have been made and that it is expedient that those arrangements should have effect. The text of the Georgia CDTA is set out in the Schedule to the Georgia Order.

LEGISLATIVE TIMETABLE

18. The legislative timetable is as follows –

Publication in the Gazette	23 October 2020
Tabling at Legislative Council	28 October 2020
Commencement of the orders	18 December 2020

IMPLICATIONS OF THE PROPOSALS

19. The proposals are in conformity with the Basic Law, including the provisions concerning human rights. The proposals will not affect the binding effect of the existing provisions of the IRO and its subsidiary legislation. They have no environmental, gender or productivity implications, and no sustainability implications other than those set out in the economic implications paragraph in Annex C. The financial, economic, civil service and family implications of the proposals are also set out in Annex C.

In the absence of such agreement, such person shall not be entitled to any relief or exemption from tax provided by the Agreement except to the extent and in such manner as may be agreed upon by the competent authorities of the Contracting Parties.

Article 5

Permanent Establishment

1. For the purposes of this Agreement, the term “permanent establishment” means a fixed place of business through which the business of an enterprise is wholly or partly carried on.
2. The term “permanent establishment” includes especially:
 - 1) a place of management;
 - 2) a branch;
 - 3) an office;
 - 4) a factory;
 - 5) a workshop; and

- 6) a mine, an oil or gas well, a quarry or any other place of extraction of natural resources.
3. The term “permanent establishment” also encompasses:
- 1) A building site, a construction, assembly or installation project or supervisory activities in connection therewith, but only if such site, project or activities last more than twelve months;
 - 2) The furnishing of services, including consultancy services, by an enterprise through employees or other personnel engaged by the enterprise for such purpose, but only if activities of that nature continue within a Contracting Party for a period or periods aggregating more than 183 days in any twelve month period commencing or ending in the taxable period or fiscal year concerned.
4. For the sole purpose of determining whether the twelve month period referred to in subparagraph 1) of paragraph 3 has been exceeded,
- 1) where an enterprise of a Contracting Party carries on activities in the other Contracting Party at a place that constitutes a building site or construction, assembly or installation project or supervisory activities in connection therewith and these activities are carried on during one or more periods of time that, in the aggregate, exceed 30 days without exceeding twelve months, and
 - 2) connected activities are carried on at the same building site, or construction, assembly or installation project or supervisory activities in connection therewith, during different periods of time, each exceeding 30 days, by one or more enterprises closely related to the first-mentioned enterprise, these different periods of time shall be added to the period of time during which the first-mentioned enterprise has carried on activities at that building site or construction, assembly or installation project or supervisory activities in connection therewith.

5. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this Article, the term “permanent establishment” shall be deemed not to include:
- 1) the use of facilities solely for the purpose of storage, display or delivery of goods or merchandise belonging to the enterprise;
 - 2) the maintenance of a stock of goods or merchandise belonging to the enterprise solely for the purpose of storage, display or delivery;
 - 3) the maintenance of a stock of goods or merchandise belonging to the enterprise solely for the purpose of processing by another enterprise;
 - 4) the maintenance of a fixed place of business solely for the purpose of purchasing goods or merchandise or of collecting information, for the enterprise;
 - 5) the maintenance of a fixed place of business solely for the purpose of carrying on, for the enterprise, any other activity;
 - 6) the maintenance of a fixed place of business solely for any combination of activities mentioned in subparagraphs 1) to 5), provided that such activity or, in the case of subparagraph 6), the overall activity of the fixed place of business, is of a preparatory or auxiliary character.

6. Paragraph 5 shall not apply to a fixed place of business that is used or maintained by an enterprise if the same enterprise or a closely related enterprise carries on business activities at the same place or at another place in the same Contracting Party and

- 1) that place or other place constitutes a permanent establishment for the enterprise or the closely related enterprise under the provisions of this Article, or
- 2) the overall activity resulting from the combination of the activities carried on by the two enterprises at the same place, or by the same enterprise or closely related enterprises at the two places, is not of a preparatory or auxiliary character, provided that the business activities carried on by the two enterprises at the same place, or by the same enterprise or closely related enterprises at the two places, constitute complementary functions that are part of a cohesive business operation.

7. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 but subject to the provisions of paragraph 8, where a person is acting in a Contracting Party on behalf of an enterprise and, in doing so, habitually concludes contracts, or habitually plays the principal role leading to the conclusion of contracts that are routinely concluded without material modification by the enterprise, and these contracts are

- 1) in the name of the enterprise, or

- 2) for the transfer of the ownership of, or for the granting of the right to use, property owned by that enterprise or that the enterprise has the right to use, or
- 3) for the provision of services by that enterprise, that enterprise shall be deemed to have a permanent establishment in that Party in respect of any activities which that person undertakes for the enterprise, unless the activities of such person are limited to those mentioned in paragraph 5 which, if exercised through a fixed place of business (other than a fixed place of business to which paragraph 6 would apply), would not make this fixed place of business a permanent establishment under the provisions of that paragraph.

8. Paragraph 7 shall not apply where the person acting in a Contracting Party on behalf of an enterprise of the other Contracting Party carries on business in the first-mentioned Party as an independent agent and acts for the enterprise in the ordinary course of that business. Where, however, a person acts exclusively or almost exclusively on behalf of one or more enterprises to which it is closely related, that person shall not be considered to be an independent agent within the meaning of this paragraph with respect to any such enterprise.
9. The fact that a company which is a resident of a Contracting Party controls or is controlled by a company which is a resident of the other Contracting Party, or which carries on business in that other Party (whether through a permanent establishment or otherwise), shall not of itself constitute either company a permanent establishment of the other.
10. For the purposes of this Article, a person or enterprise is closely related to an enterprise if, based on all the relevant facts and circumstances, one has control of the other or both are under the control of the same persons or enterprises. In any case, a person or enterprise shall be considered to be closely related to an enterprise if one possesses directly or indirectly more than 50 per cent of the beneficial interest in the other (or, in the case of a company, more than 50 per cent of the aggregate vote and value of the company's shares or of the beneficial equity interest in the company) or if another person or enterprise possesses directly or indirectly more than 50 per cent of the beneficial interest (or, in the case of a company, more than 50 per cent of the aggregate vote and value of the company's shares or of the beneficial equity interest in the company) in the person and the enterprise or in the two enterprises.

Article 6

Income from Immovable Property

1. Income derived by a resident of a Contracting Party from immovable property (including income from agriculture or forestry) situated in the other Contracting Party may be taxed in that other Party.
2. The term "immovable property" shall have the meaning which it has under the law of the Contracting Party in which the property in question is situated. The term shall in any case include property accessory to immovable property, livestock and equipment used in agriculture and forestry, rights to which the provisions of general law respecting landed property apply, usufruct of immovable property and rights to variable or fixed payments as consideration for the working of, or the right to work, mineral deposits, sources and other natural resources; ships and aircraft shall not be regarded as immovable property.

3. The provisions of paragraph 1 shall apply to income derived from the direct use, letting, or use in any other form of immovable property.
4. The provisions of paragraphs 1 and 3 shall also apply to the income from immovable property of an enterprise and to income from immovable property used for the performance of independent personal services.

Article 7

Business Profits

1. The profits of an enterprise of a Contracting Party shall be taxable only in that Party unless the enterprise carries on business in the other Contracting Party through a permanent establishment situated therein. If the enterprise carries on business as aforesaid, the profits of the enterprise may be taxed in the other Party but only so much of them as is attributable to that permanent establishment.
2. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 3, where an enterprise of a Contracting Party carries on business in the other Contracting Party through a permanent establishment situated therein, there shall in each Contracting Party be attributed to that permanent establishment the profits which it might be expected to make if it were a distinct and separate enterprise engaged in the same or similar activities under the same or similar conditions and dealing wholly independently with the enterprise of which it is a permanent establishment.
3. In determining the profits of a permanent establishment, there shall be allowed as deductions expenses which are incurred for the purposes of the permanent establishment, including executive and general administrative expenses so incurred, whether in the Party in which the permanent establishment is situated or elsewhere.

4. Insofar as it has been customary in a Contracting Party to determine the profits to be attributed to a permanent establishment on the basis of an apportionment of the total profits of the enterprise to its various parts, nothing in paragraph 2 shall preclude that Contracting Party from determining the profits to be taxed by such an apportionment as may be customary; the method of apportionment adopted shall, however, be such that the result shall be in accordance with the principles contained in this Article.
5. No profits shall be attributed to a permanent establishment by reason of the mere purchase by that permanent establishment of goods or merchandise for the enterprise.
6. For the purposes of the preceding paragraphs, the profits to be attributed to the permanent establishment shall be determined by the same method year by year unless there is good and sufficient reason to the contrary.
7. Where profits include items of income which are dealt with separately in other Articles of this Agreement, then the provisions of those Articles shall not be affected by the provisions of this Article.

Article 8

International Traffic

1. Profits of an enterprise of a Contracting Party from the operation of ships or aircraft in international traffic shall be taxable only in that Party.
2. The provisions of paragraph 1 shall also apply to profits from the participation in a pool, a joint business or an international operating agency.

Article 9

Associated Enterprises

1. Where:
 - 1) an enterprise of a Contracting Party participates directly or indirectly in the management, control or capital of an enterprise of the other Contracting Party, or
 - 2) the same persons participate directly or indirectly in the management, control or capital of an enterprise of a Contracting Party and an enterprise of the other Contracting Party, and in either case conditions are made or imposed between the two enterprises in their commercial or financial relations which differ from those which would be made between independent enterprises, then any profits which would, but for those conditions, have accrued to one of the enterprises, but, by reason of those conditions, have not so accrued, may be included in the profits of that enterprise and taxed accordingly.

2. Where a Contracting Party includes in the profits of an enterprise of that Party - and taxes accordingly - profits on which an enterprise of the other Contracting Party has been charged to tax in that other Party and the profits so included are profits which would have accrued to the enterprise of the first-mentioned Party if the conditions made between the two enterprises had been those which would have been made between independent enterprises, then that other Party shall make an appropriate adjustment to the amount of the tax charged therein on those profits. In determining such adjustment, due regard shall be had to the other provisions of this Agreement and the competent authorities of the Contracting Parties shall if necessary consult each other.

Article 10

Dividends

1. Dividends paid by a company which is a resident of a Contracting Party to a resident of the other Contracting Party may be taxed in that other Party.
2. However, such dividends may also be taxed in the Contracting Party of which the company paying the dividends is a resident and according to the laws of that Party, but if the beneficial owner of the dividends is a resident of the other Contracting Party, the tax so charged shall not exceed:
 - 1) 5 per cent of the gross amount of the dividends if the beneficial owner is a company which holds directly at least 25 per cent of the capital of the company paying the dividends throughout a 365 day period that includes the day of the payment of the dividends (for the purpose of computing that period, no account shall be taken of changes of ownership that would directly result from a corporate reorganisation, such as a merger or divisive reorganisation, of the company that holds the shares or that pays the dividend);

- 2) 10 per cent of the gross amount of the dividends in all other cases.

This paragraph shall not affect the taxation of the company in respect of the profits out of which the dividends are paid.

3. The term “dividends” as used in this Article means income from shares or other rights, not being debt-claims, participating in profits, as well as income from other corporate rights which is subjected to the same taxation treatment as income from shares by the laws of the Party of which the company making the distribution is a resident.
4. The provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not apply if the beneficial owner of the dividends, being a resident of a Contracting Party, carries on business in the other Contracting Party of which the company paying the dividends is a resident through a permanent establishment situated therein, or performs in that other Party independent personal services from a fixed base situated therein, and the holding in respect of which the dividends are paid is effectively connected with such permanent establishment or fixed base. In such case the provisions of Article 7 or Article 14, as the case may be, shall apply.
5. Where a company which is a resident of a Contracting Party derives profits or income from the other Contracting Party, that other Party may not impose any tax on the dividends paid by the company, except insofar as such dividends are paid to a resident of that other Party or insofar as the holding in respect of which the dividends are paid is effectively connected with a permanent establishment or fixed base situated in that other Party, nor subject the company's undistributed profits to a tax on the company's undistributed profits, even if the dividends paid or the undistributed profits consist wholly or partly of profits or income arising in such other Party.

Article 11

Interest

1. Interest arising in a Contracting Party and paid to a resident of the other Contracting Party may be taxed in that other Party.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 2, interest arising in a Contracting Party and paid by that Party or political subdivisions or local authorities thereof, or by (in the case of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region) the Hong Kong Monetary Authority or the Exchange Fund or (in the case of Serbia) the National Bank of Serbia, to a resident of the other Contracting Party shall be taxable only in that other Party if the beneficial owner of such interest is:

Penalty charges for late payment shall not be regarded as interest for the purpose of this Article.
5. The provisions of paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 shall not apply if the beneficial owner of the interest, being a resident of a Contracting Party, carries on business in the other Contracting Party in which the interest arises through a permanent establishment situated therein, or performs in that other Party independent personal services from a fixed base situated therein, and the debt-claim in respect of which the interest is paid is effectively connected with such permanent establishment or fixed base. In such case the provisions of Article 7 or Article 14, as the case may be, shall apply.
6. Interest shall be deemed to arise in a Contracting Party when the payer is a resident of that Party. Where, however, the person paying the interest, whether he is a resident of a Contracting Party or not, has in a Contracting Party a permanent establishment or fixed base in connection with which the indebtedness on which the interest is paid was incurred, and such interest is borne by such permanent establishment or fixed base, then such interest shall be deemed to arise in the Party in which the permanent establishment or fixed base is situated.

7. Where, by reason of a special relationship between the payer and the beneficial owner or between both of them and some other person, the amount of the interest, having regard to the debt-claim for which it is paid, exceeds the amount which would have been agreed upon by the payer and the beneficial owner in the absence of such relationship, the provisions of this Article shall apply only to the last-mentioned amount. In such case, the excess part of the payments shall remain taxable according to the laws of each Contracting Party, due regard being had to the other provisions of this Agreement.

Article 12

 - 2) for the use of, or the right to use, any patent, trade mark, design or model, plan, secret formula or process, or for the use of or the right to use, industrial, commercial or scientific equipment, or for information concerning industrial, commercial or scientific experience.
4. The provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not apply if the beneficial owner of the royalties, being a resident of a Contracting Party, carries on business in the other Contracting Party in which the royalties arise through a permanent establishment situated therein, or performs in that other Party independent personal services from a fixed base situated therein, and the right or property in respect of which the royalties are paid is effectively connected with such permanent establishment or fixed base. In such case the provisions of Article 7 or Article 14, as the case may be, shall apply.
5. Royalties shall be deemed to arise in a Contracting Party when the payer is a resident of that Party. Where, however, the person paying the royalties, whether he is a resident of a Contracting Party or not, has in a Contracting Party a permanent establishment or fixed base in connection with which the liability to pay the royalties was incurred, and such royalties are borne by such permanent establishment or fixed base, then such royalties shall be deemed to arise in the Party in which the permanent establishment or fixed base is situated.

6. Where, by reason of a special relationship between the payer and the beneficial owner or between both of them and some other person, the amount of the royalties, having regard to the use, right or information for which they are paid, exceeds the amount which would have been agreed upon by the payer and the beneficial owner in the absence of such relationship, the provisions of this Article shall apply only to the last-mentioned amount. In such case, the excess part of the payments shall remain taxable according to the laws of each Contracting Party, due regard being had to the other provisions of this Agreement.

Subject to the provisions of the laws of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region relating to the allowance of a credit against Hong Kong Special Administrative Region tax of tax paid in a jurisdiction outside the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (which shall not affect the general principle of this Article), Serbian tax paid under the laws of Serbia and in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement (except to the extent that these provisions allow taxation by Serbia solely because the income is also income derived by a resident of Serbia), whether directly or by deduction, in respect of income derived by a person who is a resident of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region from sources in Serbia, shall be allowed as a credit against Hong Kong Special Administrative Region tax payable in respect of that income, provided that the credit so allowed does not exceed the amount of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region tax computed in respect of that income in accordance with the tax laws of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region.

2. In the case of Serbia, double taxation shall be eliminated as follows:
 - 1) Where a resident of Serbia derives income or owns capital which, in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement, may be taxed in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, Serbia shall allow:
 - (1) as a deduction from the tax on the income of that resident, an amount equal to the income tax paid in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region;
 - (2) as a deduction from the tax on the capital of that resident, an amount equal to the capital tax paid in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region.

Such deduction in either case shall not, however, exceed that part of the income tax or capital tax, as computed before the deduction is given, which is attributable, as the case may be, to the income or the capital which may be taxed in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region.

- 2) Where in accordance with any provision of the Agreement income derived or capital owned by a resident of Serbia is exempt from tax in Serbia, Serbia may nevertheless, in calculating the amount of tax on the remaining income or capital of such resident, take into account the exempted income or capital.

3. For the purpose of allowance as a credit or deduction in a Contracting Party, the tax paid in the other Contracting Party shall be deemed to include the tax which is otherwise payable in that other Contracting Party but which has been reduced or waived by that Party under its legal provisions for tax incentives.
4. The provisions of paragraph 3 shall cease to have effect after five years from the taxable period or fiscal year beginning on or after the first day of January in the calendar year next following the year in which the Agreement enters into force. The competent authorities of the Contracting Parties may consult each other to determine whether this period shall be extended.

Article 24

Non-Discrimination

1. Persons who, in the case of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, have the right of abode or are incorporated or otherwise constituted therein, and, in the case of Serbia, are Serbian nationals, shall not be subjected in the other Contracting Party to any taxation or any requirement connected therewith, which is other or more burdensome than the taxation and connected requirements to which persons who have the right of abode or are incorporated or otherwise constituted in that other Party (where that other Party is the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region) or nationals of that other Party (where that other Party is Serbia) in the same circumstances, in particular with respect to residence, are or may be subjected. This provision shall, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 1, also apply to persons who are not residents of one or both of the Contracting Parties.

2. The taxation on a permanent establishment which an enterprise of a Contracting Party has in the other Contracting Party shall not be less favourably levied in that other Party than the taxation levied on enterprises of that other Party carrying on the same activities. This provision shall not be construed as obliging a Contracting Party to grant to residents of the other Contracting Party any personal allowances, reliefs and reductions for taxation purposes on account of civil status or family responsibilities which it grants to its own residents.
3. Except where the provisions of paragraph 1 of Article 9, paragraph 7 of Article 11, or paragraph 6 of Article 12, apply, interest, royalties and other disbursements paid by an enterprise of a Contracting Party to a resident of the other Contracting Party shall, for the purpose of determining the taxable profits of such enterprise, be deductible under the same conditions as if they had been paid to a resident of the first-mentioned Party. Similarly, any debts of an enterprise of a Contracting Party to a resident of the other Contracting Party shall, for the purpose of determining the taxable capital of such enterprise, be deductible under the same conditions as if they had been contracted to a resident of the first-mentioned Party.
4. Enterprises of a Contracting Party, the capital of which is wholly or partly owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by one or more residents of the other Contracting Party, shall not be subjected in the first-mentioned Party to any taxation or any requirement connected therewith which is other or more burdensome than the taxation and connected requirements to which other similar enterprises of the first-mentioned Party are or may be subjected.

5. The provisions of this Article shall apply to the taxes referred to in Article 2.

Article 25

Mutual Agreement Procedure

1. Where a person considers that the actions of one or both of the Contracting Parties result or will result for him in taxation not in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, he may, irrespective of the remedies provided by the internal laws of those Parties, present his case to the competent authority of the Contracting Party of which he is a resident or, if his case comes under paragraph 1 of Article 24, to that of the Contracting Party in which he has the right of abode or is incorporated or otherwise constituted (in the case of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region) or of which he is a national (in the case of Serbia). The case must be presented within three years from the first notification of the action resulting in taxation not in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement.
2. The competent authority shall endeavour, if the objection appears to it to be justified and if it is not itself able to arrive at a satisfactory solution, to resolve the case by mutual agreement with the competent authority of the other Contracting Party, with a view to the avoidance of taxation which is not in accordance with the Agreement. Any agreement reached shall be implemented notwithstanding any time limits in the internal laws of the Contracting Parties.
3. The competent authorities of the Contracting Parties shall endeavour to resolve by mutual agreement any difficulties or doubts arising as to the interpretation or application of the Agreement. They may also consult together for the elimination of double taxation in cases not provided for in the Agreement.

4. The competent authorities of the Contracting Parties may communicate with each other directly, including through a joint commission consisting of themselves or their representatives, for the purpose of reaching an agreement in the sense of the preceding paragraphs.

Article 26

Exchange of Information

1. The competent authorities of the Contracting Parties shall exchange such information as is foreseeably relevant for carrying out the provisions of this Agreement or to the administration or enforcement of the internal laws of the Contracting Parties concerning taxes covered by the Agreement, insofar as the taxation thereunder is not contrary to the Agreement. The exchange of information is not restricted by Article 1.
2. Any information received under paragraph 1 by a Contracting Party shall be treated as secret in the same manner as information obtained under the internal laws of that Party and shall be disclosed only to persons or authorities (including courts and administrative bodies) concerned with the assessment or collection of, the enforcement or prosecution in respect of, the determination of appeals in relation to the taxes referred to in paragraph 1, or the oversight of the above. Such persons or authorities shall use the information only for such purposes. They may disclose the information in public court proceedings or in judicial decisions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, information received by a Contracting Party may be used for other purposes when such information may be used for such other purposes under the laws of both Parties and the competent authority of the supplying Party authorises such use. Information shall not be disclosed to any third jurisdiction for any purpose.

3. In no case shall the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 be construed so as to impose on a Contracting Party the obligation:
 - 1) to carry out administrative measures at variance with the laws and administrative practice of that or of the other Contracting Party;
 - 2) to supply information which is not obtainable under the laws or in the normal course of the administration of that or of the other Contracting Party;
 - 3) to supply information which would disclose any trade, business, industrial, commercial or professional secret or trade process, or information the disclosure of which would be contrary to public policy (ordre public).
4. If information is requested by a Contracting Party in accordance with this Article, the other Contracting Party shall use its information gathering measures to obtain the requested information, even though that other Party may not need such information for its own tax purposes. The obligation contained in the preceding sentence is subject to the limitations of paragraph 3 but in no case shall such limitations be construed to permit a Contracting Party to decline to supply information solely because there is no tax interest in such information under the internal laws of that Party.

5. In no case shall the provisions of paragraph 3 be construed to permit a Contracting Party to decline to supply information solely because the information is held by a bank, other financial institution, nominee or person acting in an agency or a fiduciary capacity or because it relates to ownership interests in a person.

Article 27

Members of Government Missions

Nothing in this Agreement shall affect the fiscal privileges of members of government missions, including consular posts, under the general rules of international law or under the provisions of special agreements.

Article 28

Entitlement to Benefits

1. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Agreement, a benefit under the Agreement shall not be granted in respect of an item of income or of capital if it is reasonable to conclude, having regard to all relevant facts and circumstances, that obtaining that benefit was one of the principal purposes of any arrangement or transaction that resulted directly or indirectly in that benefit, unless it is established that granting that benefit in these circumstances would be in accordance with the object and purpose of the relevant provisions of the Agreement.
2. Nothing in the Agreement shall prejudice the right of each Contracting Party to apply its internal laws and measures concerning tax evasion or avoidance, whether or not described as such.

Article 29

Entry into Force

1. The Contracting Parties shall notify each other in writing, through official channels, that the procedures required by their respective laws for the bringing into force of this Agreement have been completed.
2. The Agreement shall enter into force on the date of the later of these notifications and its provisions shall thereupon have effect:

Either Contracting Party may terminate the Agreement, through official channels, by giving the other Contracting Party written notice of termination at least six months before the end of any calendar year after the fifth year from the date of entry into force of the Agreement. - (c) in the case of either Contracting Party, the Government of that Party and any political subdivision or local authority thereof as well as a recognised pension fund of that Party.
2. Where by reason of the provisions of paragraph 1 an individual is a resident of both Contracting Parties, then his status shall be determined as follows:
 - (a) he shall be deemed to be a resident only of the Party in which he has a permanent home available to him; if he has a permanent home available to him in both Parties, he shall be deemed to be a resident only of the Party with which his personal and economic relations are closer (centre of vital interests);

In the absence of such agreement, such person shall not be entitled to any relief or exemption from tax provided by the Agreement except to the extent and in such manner as may be agreed upon by the competent authorities of the Contracting Parties.

Article 5

Permanent Establishment

1. For the purposes of this Agreement, the term “permanent establishment” means a fixed place of business through which the business of an enterprise is wholly or partly carried on.
2. The term “permanent establishment” includes especially:
- (a) a place of management;
 - (b) a branch;
 - (c) an office;
 - (d) a factory;
 - (e) a workshop; and

- (f) a mine, an oil or gas well, a quarry or any other place of extraction of natural resources.
3. A building site or construction or installation project constitutes a permanent establishment only if it lasts more than six months.
4. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this Article, the term “permanent establishment” shall be deemed not to include:
- (a) the use of facilities solely for the purpose of storage, display or delivery of goods or merchandise belonging to the enterprise;
 - (b) the maintenance of a stock of goods or merchandise belonging to the enterprise solely for the purpose of storage, display or delivery;
 - (c) the maintenance of a stock of goods or merchandise belonging to the enterprise solely for the purpose of processing by another enterprise;
 - (d) the maintenance of a fixed place of business solely for the purpose of purchasing goods or merchandise or of collecting information, for the enterprise;
 - (e) the maintenance of a fixed place of business solely for the purpose of carrying on, for the enterprise, any other activity;
 - (f) the maintenance of a fixed place of business solely for any combination of activities mentioned in subparagraphs (a) to (e),
- provided that such activity or, in the case of subparagraph (f), the overall activity of the fixed place of business, is of a preparatory or auxiliary character.

5. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2, where a person - other than an agent of an independent status to whom paragraph 6 applies - is acting on behalf of an enterprise and has, and habitually exercises, in a Contracting Party an authority to conclude contracts in the name of the enterprise, that enterprise shall be deemed to have a permanent establishment in that Party in respect of any activities which that person undertakes for the enterprise, unless the activities of such person are limited to those mentioned in paragraph 4 which, if exercised through a fixed place of business, would not make this fixed place of business a permanent establishment under the provisions of that paragraph.
6. An enterprise shall not be deemed to have a permanent establishment in a Contracting Party merely because it carries on business in that Party through a broker, general commission agent or any other agent of an independent status, provided that such persons are acting in the ordinary course of their business.
7. The fact that a company which is a resident of a Contracting Party controls or is controlled by a company which is a resident of the other Contracting Party, or which carries on business in that other Party (whether through a permanent establishment or otherwise), shall not of itself constitute either company a permanent establishment of the other.

Article 6

Income from Immovable Property

1. Income derived by a resident of a Contracting Party from immovable property (including income from agriculture or forestry) situated in the other Contracting Party may be taxed in that other Party.

2. The term “immovable property” shall have the meaning which it has under the law of the Contracting Party in which the property in question is situated. The term shall in any case include property accessory to immovable property, livestock and equipment used in agriculture and forestry, rights to which the provisions of general law respecting landed property apply, usufruct of immovable property and rights to variable or fixed payments as consideration for the working of, or the right to work, mineral deposits, sources and other natural resources; ships and aircraft shall not be regarded as immovable property.
3. The provisions of paragraph 1 shall apply to income derived from the direct use, letting, or use in any other form of immovable property.
4. The provisions of paragraphs 1 and 3 shall also apply to the income from immovable property of an enterprise.

Article 7

Business Profits

1. The profits of an enterprise of a Contracting Party shall be taxable only in that Party unless the enterprise carries on business in the other Contracting Party through a permanent establishment situated therein. If the enterprise carries on business as aforesaid, the profits of the enterprise may be taxed in the other Party but only so much of them as is attributable to that permanent establishment.
2. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 3, where an enterprise of a Contracting Party carries on business in the other Contracting Party through a permanent establishment situated therein, there shall in each Contracting Party be attributed to that permanent establishment the profits which it might be expected to make if it were a distinct and separate enterprise engaged in the same or similar activities under the same or similar conditions and dealing wholly independently with the enterprise of which it is a permanent establishment.

3. In determining the profits of a permanent establishment, there shall be allowed as deductions expenses which are incurred for the purposes of the permanent establishment, including executive and general administrative expenses so incurred, whether in the Party in which the permanent establishment is situated or elsewhere.
4. Insofar as it has been customary in a Contracting Party to determine the profits to be attributed to a permanent establishment on the basis of an apportionment of the total profits of the enterprise to its various parts, nothing in paragraph 2 shall preclude that Contracting Party from determining the profits to be taxed by such an apportionment as may be customary; the method of apportionment adopted shall, however, be such that the result shall be in accordance with the principles contained in this Article.
5. No profits shall be attributed to a permanent establishment by reason of the mere purchase by that permanent establishment of goods or merchandise for the enterprise.
6. For the purposes of the preceding paragraphs, the profits to be attributed to the permanent establishment shall be determined by the same method year by year unless there is good and sufficient reason to the contrary.

7. Where profits include items of income which are dealt with separately in other Articles of this Agreement, then the provisions of those Articles shall not be affected by the provisions of this Article.

Article 8

International Shipping and Air Transport

1. Profits of an enterprise of a Contracting Party from the operation of ships or aircraft in international traffic shall be taxable only in that Party.
2. The provisions of paragraph 1 shall also apply to profits from the participation in a pool, a joint business or an international operating agency.

Article 9

Associated Enterprises

1. Where
 - (a) an enterprise of a Contracting Party participates directly or indirectly in the management, control or capital of an enterprise of the other Contracting Party, or
 - (b) the same persons participate directly or indirectly in the management, control or capital of an enterprise of a Contracting Party and an enterprise of the other Contracting Party, and in either case conditions are made or imposed between the two enterprises in their commercial or financial relations which differ from those which would be made between independent enterprises, then any profits which would, but for those conditions, have accrued to one of the enterprises, but, by reason of those conditions, have not so accrued, may be included in the profits of that enterprise and taxed accordingly.

2. Where a Contracting Party includes in the profits of an enterprise of that Party - and taxes accordingly - profits on which an enterprise of the other Contracting Party has been charged to tax in that other Party and the profits so included are profits which would have accrued to the enterprise of the first mentioned Party if the conditions made between the two enterprises had been those which would have been made between independent enterprises, then that other Party shall make an appropriate adjustment to the amount of the tax charged therein on those profits. In determining such adjustment, due regard shall be had to the other provisions of this Agreement and the competent authorities of the Contracting Parties shall if necessary consult each other.

Article 10

Dividends

1. Dividends paid by a company which is a resident of a Contracting Party to a resident of the other Contracting Party may be taxed in that other Party.
2. However, such dividends may also be taxed in the Contracting Party of which the company paying the dividends is a resident and according to the laws of that Party, but if the beneficial owner of the dividends is a resident of the other Contracting Party, the tax so charged shall not exceed 5 per cent of the gross amount of the dividends. This paragraph shall not affect the taxation of the company in respect of the profits out of which the dividends are paid.

3. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 2 of this Article, dividends arising in a Contracting Party are exempt from tax in that Party, if they are paid to:
 - (a) in the case of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region,
 - (i) the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region;
 - (ii) the Hong Kong Monetary Authority;
 - (iii) the Exchange Fund;
 - (iv) any entity wholly or mainly owned by the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region as may be agreed from time to time between the competent authorities of the Contracting Parties;
 - (b) in the case of Georgia,
 - (i) the Government of Georgia or any political subdivision or local authority thereof;
 - (ii) the National Bank of Georgia;

- (iii) any entity wholly or mainly owned by the Government of Georgia as may be agreed from time to time between the competent authorities of the Contracting Parties.
4. The term “dividends” as used in this Article means income from shares, mining shares, founders’ shares or other rights, not being debt-claims, participating in profits, as well as income from other corporate rights which is subjected to the same taxation treatment as income from shares by the laws of the Party of which the company making the distribution is a resident.
5. The provisions of paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 shall not apply if the beneficial owner of the dividends, being a resident of a Contracting Party, carries on business in the other Contracting Party of which the company paying the dividends is a resident through a permanent establishment situated therein and the holding in respect of which the dividends are paid is effectively connected with such permanent establishment. In such case the provisions of Article 7 shall apply.
6. Where a company which is a resident of a Contracting Party derives profits or income from the other Contracting Party, that other Party may not impose any tax on the dividends paid by the company, except insofar as such dividends are paid to a resident of that other Party or insofar as the holding in respect of which the dividends are paid is effectively connected with a permanent establishment situated in that other Party, nor subject the company’s undistributed profits to a tax on the company’s undistributed profits, even if the dividends paid or the undistributed profits consist wholly or partly of profits or income arising in such other Party.

Article 11

Interest

1. Interest arising in a Contracting Party and paid to a resident of the other Contracting Party may be taxed in that other Party.
2. However, such interest may also be taxed in the Contracting Party in which it arises and according to the laws of that Party, but if the beneficial owner of the interest is a resident of the other Contracting Party, the tax so charged shall not exceed 5 per cent of the gross amount of the interest.
3. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 2 of this Article, interest arising in a Contracting Party is exempt from tax in that Party, if it is paid to:
 - (a) in the case of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region,
 - (i) the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region;
 - (ii) the Hong Kong Monetary Authority;
 - (iii) the Exchange Fund;
 - (iv) any entity wholly or mainly owned by the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region as may be agreed from time to time between the competent authorities of the Contracting Parties;
 - (b) in the case of Georgia,

- (i) the Government of Georgia or any political subdivision or local authority thereof;
 - (ii) the National Bank of Georgia;
 - (iii) any entity wholly or mainly owned by the Government of Georgia as may be agreed from time to time between the competent authorities of the Contracting Parties.
4. The term “interest” as used in this Article means income from debt-claims of every kind, whether or not secured by mortgage and whether or not carrying a right to participate in the debtor’s profits, and in particular, income from government securities and income from bonds or debentures, including premiums and prizes attaching to such securities, bonds or debentures. Penalty charges for late payment shall not be regarded as interest for the purpose of this Article.
5. The provisions of paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 shall not apply if the beneficial owner of the interest, being a resident of a Contracting Party, carries on business in the other Contracting Party in which the interest arises through a permanent establishment situated therein and the debt-claim in respect of which the interest is paid is effectively connected with such permanent establishment. In such case the provisions of Article 7 shall apply.
6. Interest shall be deemed to arise in a Contracting Party when the payer is a resident of that Party. Where, however, the person paying the interest, whether he is a resident of a Contracting Party or not, has in a Contracting Party a permanent establishment in connection with which the indebtedness on which the interest is paid was incurred, and such interest is borne by such permanent establishment,

- then such interest shall be deemed to arise in the Party in which the permanent establishment is situated.
7. Where, by reason of a special relationship between the payer and the beneficial owner or between both of them and some other person, the amount of the interest, having regard to the debt-claim for which it is paid, exceeds the amount which would have been agreed upon by the payer and the beneficial owner in the absence of such relationship, the provisions of this Article shall apply only to the last mentioned amount. In such case, the excess part of the payments shall remain taxable according to the laws of each Contracting Party, due regard being had to the other provisions of this Agreement.

Article 12

Royalties

1. Royalties arising in a Contracting Party and beneficially owned by a resident of the other Contracting Party may be taxed in that other Party.
2. However, such royalties may also be taxed in the Contracting Party in which they arise and according to the laws of that Party, but if the beneficial owner of the royalties is a resident of the other Contracting Party, the tax so charged shall not exceed 5 per cent of the gross amount of the royalties.
3. The term “royalties” as used in this Article means payments of any kind received as a consideration for the use of, or the right to use, any copyright of literary, artistic or scientific work including cinematograph films, any patent, trade mark, design or model, plan, secret formula or process, or for information concerning industrial, commercial or scientific experience.

4. The provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not apply if the beneficial owner of the royalties, being a resident of a Contracting Party, carries on business in the other Contracting Party in which the royalties arise through a permanent establishment situated therein and the right or property in respect of which the royalties are paid is effectively connected with such permanent establishment. In such case the provisions of Article 7 shall apply.
5. Royalties shall be deemed to arise in a Contracting Party when the payer is a resident of that Party. Where, however, the person paying the royalties, whether he is a resident of a Contracting Party or not, has in a Contracting Party a permanent establishment in connection with which the liability to pay the royalties was incurred, and such royalties are borne by such permanent establishment, then such royalties shall be deemed to arise in the Party in which the permanent establishment is situated.
6. Where, by reason of a special relationship between the payer and the beneficial owner or between both of them and some other person, the amount of the royalties, having regard to the use, right or information for which they are paid, exceeds the amount which would have been agreed upon by the payer and the beneficial owner in the absence of such relationship, the provisions of this Article shall apply only to the last mentioned amount. In such case, the excess part of the payments shall remain taxable according to the laws of each Contracting Party, due regard being had to the other provisions of this Agreement.

4. Gains derived by a resident of a Contracting Party from the alienation of shares or comparable interests, such as interests in a partnership or trust, may be taxed in the other Contracting Party if, at any time during the 365 days preceding the alienation, these shares or comparable interests derived more than 50 per cent of their value directly or indirectly from immovable property, as defined in Article 6, situated in that other Party. However, this paragraph does not apply to gains derived from the alienation of shares:
 - (a) quoted on such stock exchange as may be agreed between the competent authorities of the Contracting Parties; or

2. In the case of Georgia, double taxation shall be eliminated as follows:

Where a resident of Georgia derives income or owns capital which, in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, may be taxed in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, Georgia shall allow:

- (a) as a deduction from the tax on the income of that resident, an amount equal to the income tax paid in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region;
- (b) as a deduction from the tax on the capital of that resident, an amount equal to the capital tax paid in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region.

Such deduction in either case shall not, however, exceed the sums of the tax which would have been accrued according to the rules and rates on this income and capital effective in Georgia.

Where in accordance with any provision of the Agreement income derived or capital owned by a resident of Georgia is exempt from tax in Georgia, Georgia may nevertheless, in calculating the amount of tax on the remaining income or capital of such resident, take into account the exempted income or capital.

Article 23

Non-Discrimination

1. Persons who, in the case of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, have the right of abode or are incorporated or otherwise constituted therein, and, in the case of Georgia, are Georgian nationals, shall not be subjected in the other Contracting Party to any taxation or any requirement connected therewith, which is other or more burdensome than the taxation and connected requirements to which persons who have the right of abode or are incorporated or otherwise constituted in that other Party (where that other Party is the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region) or nationals of that other Party (where that other Party is Georgia) in the same circumstances, in particular with respect to residence, are or may be subjected. This provision shall, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 1, also apply to persons who are not residents of one or both of the Contracting Parties.
2. Stateless persons who are residents of a Contracting Party shall not be subjected in either Contracting Party to any taxation or any requirement connected therewith, which is other or more burdensome than the taxation and connected requirements to which persons who have the right of abode in the Party (where the Party is the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region) or nationals of the Party (where the Party is Georgia) in the same circumstances, in particular with respect to residence, are or may be subjected.
3. The taxation on a permanent establishment which an enterprise of a Contracting Party has in the other Contracting Party shall not be less favourably levied in that other Party than the taxation levied on enterprises of that other Party carrying on the same activities. This provision shall not be construed as obliging a Contracting Party to grant to residents of the other Contracting Party any personal allowances, reliefs and reductions for taxation purposes on account of civil status or family responsibilities which it grants to its own residents.

4. Except where the provisions of paragraph 1 of Article 9, paragraph 7 of Article 11, or paragraph 6 of Article 12, apply, interest, royalties and other disbursements paid by an enterprise of a Contracting Party to a resident of the other Contracting Party shall, for the purpose of determining the taxable profits of such enterprise, be deductible under the same conditions as if they had been paid to a resident of the first mentioned Party. Similarly, any debts of an enterprise of a Contracting Party to a resident of the other Contracting Party shall, for the purpose of determining the taxable capital of such enterprise, be deductible under the same conditions as if they had been contracted to a resident of the first mentioned Party.
5. Enterprises of a Contracting Party, the capital of which is wholly or partly owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by one or more residents of the other Contracting Party, shall not be subjected in the first mentioned Party to any taxation or any requirement connected therewith which is other or more burdensome than the taxation and connected requirements to which other similar enterprises of the first mentioned Party are or may be subjected.
6. The provisions of this Article shall apply to the taxes covered by Article 2.

Article 24

Mutual Agreement Procedure

1. Where a person considers that the actions of one or both of the Contracting Parties result or will result for him in taxation not in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement, he may, irrespective of the remedies provided by the internal laws of those Parties, present his case to the competent authority of either Contracting Party. The case must be presented within three years from the first notification of the action resulting in taxation not in accordance with the provisions of the Agreement.

2. The competent authority shall endeavour, if the objection appears to it to be justified and if it is not itself able to arrive at a satisfactory solution, to resolve the case by mutual agreement with the competent authority of the other Contracting Party, with a view to the avoidance of taxation which is not in accordance with the Agreement. Any agreement reached shall be implemented notwithstanding any time limits in the internal laws of the Contracting Parties.
3. The competent authorities of the Contracting Parties shall endeavour to resolve by mutual agreement any difficulties or doubts arising as to the interpretation or application of the Agreement. They may also consult together for the elimination of double taxation in cases not provided for in the Agreement.
4. The competent authorities of the Contracting Parties may communicate with each other directly, including through a joint commission consisting of themselves or their representatives, for the purpose of reaching an agreement in the sense of the preceding paragraphs.

Article 25

Exchange of Information

1. The competent authorities of the Contracting Parties shall exchange such information as is foreseeably relevant for carrying out the provisions of this Agreement or to the administration or enforcement of the internal laws of the Contracting Parties concerning taxes covered by the Agreement, insofar as the taxation thereunder is not contrary to the Agreement. The exchange of information is not restricted by Article 1.
2. Any information received under paragraph 1 by a Contracting Party shall be treated as secret in the same manner as information obtained under the internal laws of that Party and shall be disclosed only to persons or authorities (including courts and administrative bodies) concerned with the assessment or collection of, the enforcement or prosecution in respect of, the determination of appeals in relation to the taxes referred to in paragraph 1, or the oversight of the above. Such persons or authorities shall use the information only for such purposes. They may disclose the information in public court proceedings or in judicial decisions. Information shall not be disclosed to any third jurisdiction for any purpose.
3. In no case shall the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 be construed so as to impose on a Contracting Party the obligation:
 - (a) to carry out administrative measures at variance with the laws and administrative practice of that or of the other Contracting Party;
 - (b) to supply information which is not obtainable under the laws or in the normal course of the administration of that or of the other Contracting Party;
 - (c) to supply information which would disclose any trade, business, industrial, commercial or professional secret or trade

- process, or information the disclosure of which would be contrary to public policy (ordre public).
4. If information is requested by a Contracting Party in accordance with this Article, the other Contracting Party shall use its information gathering measures to obtain the requested information, even though that other Party may not need such information for its own tax purposes. The obligation contained in the preceding sentence is subject to the limitations of paragraph 3 but in no case shall such limitations be construed to permit a Contracting Party to decline to supply information solely because there is no tax interest in such information to that Party.
 5. In no case shall the provisions of paragraph 3 be construed to permit a Contracting Party to decline to supply information solely because the information is held by a bank, other financial institution, nominee or person acting in an agency or a fiduciary capacity or because it relates to ownership interests in a person.

Article 26

Members of Government Missions

Nothing in this Agreement shall affect the fiscal privileges of members of government missions, including consular posts, under the general rules of international law or under the provisions of special agreements.

Article 27

Entitlement to Benefits

1. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Agreement, a benefit under the Agreement shall not be granted in respect of an item of income or capital if it is reasonable to conclude, having regard to all relevant facts and circumstances, that obtaining that benefit was one of the principal purposes of any arrangement or transaction that resulted directly or indirectly in that benefit, unless it is established that granting that benefit in these circumstances would be in accordance with the object and purpose of the relevant provisions of the Agreement.
2. Nothing in the Agreement shall prejudice the right of each Contracting Party to apply its internal laws and measures concerning tax evasion or avoidance, whether or not described as such.

Article 28

Entry into Force

1. This Agreement shall enter into force on the first day of the month following the date of the receipt, through official channels, of the later written notification indicating the completion of the internal procedures necessary for the entry into force of this Agreement.
2. The Agreement shall have effect:
 - (a) in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region,

in respect of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region tax, for any year of assessment beginning on or after 1 April of the calendar year next following the year in which the Agreement enters into force;

- (b) in Georgia,

 - (ii) in respect of other taxes on income and on capital chargeable for any taxable year beginning on or after 1 January of the calendar year next following the year in which the Agreement enters into force.

Article 29

Termination

This Agreement shall remain in force until terminated by a Contracting Party. Either Contracting Party may, after the expiration of a period of five years from the date of its entry into force, terminate the Agreement by giving written notice of termination to the other Contracting Party through the official channels at least six months before the end of any calendar year. In such event, the Agreement shall cease to have effect:

- (a) in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region,

in respect of Hong Kong Special Administrative Region tax, for any year of assessment beginning on or after 1 April of the calendar year next following the year in which the notice is given;
- (b) in Georgia,

- (i) in respect of taxes withheld at source, to income derived on or after 1 January of the calendar year next following the year in which the notice is given;

Explanatory Note

The Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Government and the Government of Georgia signed an agreement for the elimination of double taxation with respect to taxes on income and on capital and the prevention of tax evasion and avoidance (Agreement) together with a protocol to the Agreement (Protocol) in October and September 2020 respectively.

2. This Order specifies the arrangements in the Agreement and the Protocol (arrangements) as arrangements under section 49(1A) of the Inland Revenue Ordinance (Cap. 112), and declares that it is expedient that those arrangements should have effect. The Agreement and the Protocol were done in the Chinese, Georgian and English languages which are equally authentic, and the English text prevails if there is a divergence of interpretation.
3. The effects of the declaration are—
 - (a) that the arrangements have effect in relation to tax under the Inland Revenue Ordinance (Cap. 112) despite anything in any enactment; and
 - (b) that the arrangements, for the purposes of any provision of the arrangements that requires disclosure of information concerning tax of Georgia, have effect in relation to any tax of Georgia that is the subject of that provision.

Financial, Economic, Civil Service and Family Implications of the Proposals

Financial Implications

The Government would forgo a very small sum of revenue which is currently being collected in respect of profits of Serbian/Georgian resident companies not attributable to a permanent establishment in Hong Kong, as well as profits of Serbian/Georgian operators from shipping and air services.

Economic Implications

2. The Serbia CDTA and the Georgia CDTA will facilitate business activities between Hong Kong and Serbia/Georgia, and contribute to the economic development of Hong Kong. They will enhance the economic interaction between Hong Kong and Serbia/Georgia by providing enhanced certainty to the tax liabilities of businessmen and investors.

Civil Service Implications

3. The closer economic relations between Hong Kong and Serbia/Georgia may lead to additional requests for exchange of tax information from Serbia/Georgia. This will entail additional work for the Inland Revenue Department, which will be absorbed within existing resources as far as possible. Where necessary, additional manpower resources will be sought with justifications in accordance with the established resource allocation mechanism.

Family Implications

4. Given that the tax burden of some individuals may be relieved under the two CDTAs, the proposals may have positive implications for the financial situation of their families.

Agreement between the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China and the Government of the Republic of Serbia for the Elimination of Double Taxation with respect to Taxes on Income and on Capital and the Prevention of Tax Evasion and Avoidance ("Serbia CDTA")

Summary of Main Provisions

The Serbia CDTA covers the following types of taxes:

- (a) in respect of Hong Kong –
 - (i) profits tax;
 - (ii) salaries tax; and
 - (iii) property tax;

- (b) in respect of Serbia –
 - (i) the corporate income tax;
 - (ii) the personal income tax; and
 - (iii) the tax on capital.

2. The Serbia CDTA deals with the taxing of income of the resident of one Contracting Party ("resident jurisdiction") derived from another Contracting Party ("source jurisdiction").

Exclusive taxing rights

3. Where the right to tax income is allocated exclusively to one Contracting Party under the Serbia CDTA (the resident jurisdiction or the source jurisdiction), there is no double taxation. It is provided in the Serbia CDTA that the following types of income shall only be taxed in the resident jurisdiction:

- (a) profits of an enterprise, unless the enterprise carries on business in the source jurisdiction through a permanent establishment situated therein (generally a fixed place of business through which the business of an enterprise is wholly or partly carried on);

- (b) profits of an enterprise from the operation of ships or aircraft in international traffic, gains derived by an enterprise that operates ships or aircraft in international traffic from the alienation of such ships or aircraft or of movable property pertaining to the operation of such ships or aircraft, and capital of an enterprise that operates ships or aircraft in international traffic represented by ships or aircrafts and by movable property pertaining to the operation of such ships or aircraft;

- (c) income from professional services or other activities of an independent character, including services performed in the source jurisdiction, except where the person has a fixed base regularly available to him in the source jurisdiction for the purpose of performing such services, or where the person stays in the source jurisdiction for a period or periods amounting to or exceeding in the aggregate 183 days in any relevant 12-month period;
- (d) remuneration from non-government employment, including employment exercised in the source jurisdiction, provided that, amongst others, the employee is present in the source jurisdiction for a period or periods not exceeding in the aggregate 183 days in any relevant 12-month period;
- (e) income of entertainers and sportspersons from their personal activities exercised in the source jurisdiction if the visit thereto is wholly or mainly supported by public funds of one or both of the Contracting Parties or political subdivisions or local authorities thereof or if the activities are exercised within the framework of a cultural or sports exchange programme approved by both Contracting Parties;
- (f) pensions (including lump sum payments) from non-government employment or self-employment, except those paid under a pension or retirement scheme which is a public scheme being a part of the social security system of the source jurisdiction or a scheme in which individuals may participate to secure retirement benefits and is recognized for tax purposes in the source jurisdiction;

- (g) gains from the alienation of any property not expressly dealt with in the Serbia CDTA; and all other elements of capital not expressly dealt with in the Serbia CDTA; and
- (h) other income not expressly dealt with in the Serbia CDTA.

4. Pensions (including lump sum payments) from non-government employment or self-employment paid under a pension or retirement scheme which is a public scheme being a part of the social security system of the source jurisdiction or a scheme in which individuals may participate to secure retirement benefits and is recognized for tax purposes in the source jurisdiction are taxable only in the source jurisdiction. Salaries, wages and other similar remuneration and pensions (including lump sum payments) paid by the government of a Contracting Party or a political subdivision or a local authority thereof in respect of services rendered thereto are, in general, taxable only in that Party (source jurisdiction).

Shared taxing rights

5. Where both tax jurisdictions are given the right to tax the same item of income, the resident jurisdiction is required under the Serbia CDTA to give double taxation relief to its resident for any income doubly assessed (i.e. the source jurisdiction has the primary right to tax and the resident jurisdiction is left with a secondary right). It is provided in the Serbia CDTA that the following types of income may be taxed in both jurisdictions:

- (a) income from immovable property situated in the source jurisdiction, and gains from the alienation of such property;
- (b) profits of an enterprise which carries on business in the source jurisdiction through a permanent establishment situated therein (to the extent that such profits are attributable to the permanent establishment), and gains from the alienation of movable property forming part of the business property of such permanent establishment;
- (c) passive income of dividends, interest and royalties received from residents of the source jurisdiction. The source jurisdiction's right to tax is subject to specified caps on the withholding tax rates as follows:

- for dividends, 5% if the beneficial owner of the dividends is a company which holds directly at least 25% of the capital of the dividend-paying company throughout a 365 day period, and 10% in all other cases;
 - for interest, 0% if the interest is paid by the Serbia/Hong Kong Government or political subdivisions or local authorities thereof, or by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority or the Exchange Fund in respect of Hong Kong, or the National Bank of Serbia in respect of Serbia and the beneficial owner of such interest is the Hong Kong Government, the Hong Kong Monetary Authority or the Exchange Fund in respect of Hong Kong, or the Serbia Government or political subdivisions or local authorities thereof, or the National Bank of Serbia in respect of Serbia, and 10% in all other cases;
 - for royalties, 5% if the royalties are payments of any kind received as a consideration for the use of, or the right to use, any copyright of literary, artistic or scientific work including cinematograph films or films or tapes used for radio or television broadcasting, and 10% if the royalties are payments of any kind received as a consideration for the use of, or the right to use, any patent, trade mark, design or model, plan, secret formula or process, or for the use of or the right to use, industrial, commercial or scientific equipment, or for information concerning industrial, commercial or scientific experience;
- (d) gains from the alienation of shares or comparable interests of any kind, including interests in a partnership or trust, if, at any time during the 365 days preceding the alienation, these shares or comparable interests derived more than 50% of their value directly or indirectly from immovable property situated in the source jurisdiction;
- (e) income from professional services performed in the source jurisdiction where the person has a fixed base regularly available to him in the source jurisdiction for the purposes of performing such services (to the extent that such income is attributable to the fixed base) or where the person stays in the source jurisdiction for a period or periods amounting to or exceeding in the aggregate 183 days in any relevant 12-month period, and gains from the alienation of movable property pertaining to a fixed base available to the person in the source jurisdiction for the purpose of performing independent personal services;

- (f) remuneration from non-government employment exercised in the source jurisdiction, where, amongst others, the employee is present in the source jurisdiction for a period or periods exceeding in the aggregate 183 days in any relevant 12-month period;
- (g) remuneration from non-government employment, exercised aboard a ship or aircraft operated in international traffic by an enterprise of the source jurisdiction;
- (h) directors' fees from a company resident in the source jurisdiction;
- (i) income of entertainers and sportspersons from their personal activities exercised in the source jurisdiction, except where the visit thereto is wholly or mainly supported by public funds of one or both of the Contracting Parties or political subdivisions or local authorities thereof or if the activities are exercised within the framework of a cultural or sports exchange programme approved by both Contracting Parties;
- (j) other income not expressly dealt with in the Serbia CDTA and arising in the source jurisdiction; and
- (k) capital represented by immovable property situated in the source jurisdiction, or capital represented by movable property forming part of the business property of a permanent establishment in the source jurisdiction or by movable property pertaining to a fixed base available to the person in the source jurisdiction for the purpose of performing independent personal services.

6. In general, in case of shared taxing rights, double taxation relief may be given to a taxpayer either through the exemption method, where income taxable in the source jurisdiction is exempt from taxation in the resident jurisdiction; or through the credit method, where income taxable in the source jurisdiction is subject to tax in the resident jurisdiction but the tax levied in the source jurisdiction is credited against the tax levied in the resident jurisdiction on such income. Both Hong Kong and Serbia will provide double taxation relief for its residents by the credit method.

Agreement between the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China and Georgia

Exclusive taxing rights

3. Where the right to tax income is allocated exclusively to one Contracting Party under the Georgia CDTA (the resident jurisdiction or the source jurisdiction), there is no double taxation. It is provided in the Georgia CDTA that the following types of income shall only be taxed in the resident jurisdiction:

- (a) profits of an enterprise, unless the enterprise carries on business in the source jurisdiction through a permanent establishment situated therein (generally a fixed place of business through which the business of an enterprise is wholly or partly carried on);

- (b) profits of an enterprise from the operation of ships or aircraft in international traffic, and gains derived by an enterprise that operates ships or aircraft in international traffic from the alienation of such ships or aircraft or of movable property pertaining to the operation of such ships or aircraft;

Salaries, wages and other similar remuneration paid by the Government or a political subdivision or a local authority of a Contracting Party in respect of services rendered thereto are, in general, taxable only in that Party (source jurisdiction).

5. Capital represented by ships or aircraft operated in international traffic, and by movable property pertaining to the operation of such ships or aircraft, is taxable only in the Contracting Party in which the place of effective management of the enterprise is situated.

Shared taxing rights

6. Where both tax jurisdictions are given the right to tax the same item of income, the resident jurisdiction is required under the Georgia CDTA to give double taxation relief to its resident for any income doubly assessed (i.e. the source jurisdiction has the primary right to tax and the resident jurisdiction is left with a secondary right). It is provided in the Georgia CDTA that the following types of income may be taxed in both jurisdictions:

- (a) income from immovable property situated in the source jurisdiction, and gains from the alienation of such property;
- (b) profits of an enterprise which carries on business in the source jurisdiction through a permanent establishment situated therein (to the extent that such profits are attributable to the permanent establishment), and gains from the alienation of movable property forming part of the business property of such permanent establishment;
- (c) passive income of dividends, interest and royalties received from residents of the source jurisdiction. The source jurisdiction's right to tax is subject to specified caps on the withholding tax rates as follows:

- for royalties, 5%;
- (d) gains from the alienation of shares (except gains from quoted shares or gains arising from corporate reorganisation or merger or a similar operation) or comparable interests, such as interests in a partnership or trust, deriving more than 50% of their value directly or indirectly from immovable property (other than premises (immovable property) in which a company carries on its business) situated in the source jurisdiction;
- (e) remuneration from non-government employment exercised in the source jurisdiction, where, amongst others, the employee is present in the source jurisdiction for a period or periods exceeding in the aggregate 183 days in any relevant 12-month period, etc.;
- (f) directors' fees from a company resident in the source jurisdiction;

Both Hong Kong and Georgia will provide double taxation relief for its residents by the credit method.
