to give evidence in the criminal proceedings instituted against Ms. JINN Mina ('JINN'), who has been prosecuted for the offence of 'Contempt' contrary to section 17(c) the Ordinance and the offence of 'Interfering with Officers' contrary to section 19(b) of the Ordinance, in respect of certain alleged conducts on the part of JINN during the proceedings held before the LegCo on 4 May 2022.

The reasons for the application are as follows. For the purpose of the criminal proceedings, it is intended that evidence will be called in an attempt to prove amongst other things the following matters: (1) JINN climbed onto a desk at the press area, shouted, threw her Hong Kong identity card to the Chamber of the LegCo, and caused injury to YAU; (2) JINN was ordered to be removed from the public gallery during the Council Meeting; and (3) the Council Meeting was suspended for about 5 minutes. The evidence of the above-named witnesses will be necessary in the trial of JINN for the above two offences which are scheduled to be heard in the Eastern Magistrates' Court between 3 February 2023 and 7 February 2023, and may involve events which happened while the Council Meeting was held.

Yours faithfully,
